ACTS
OF THE
FORTY-FOURTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF THE
STATE OF NEW-JERSEY.

An act to alter the time of holding the January term of the Courts in the county of Essex.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the next term of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and Orphan's Court, and Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, in and for the county of Essex, shall commence and be holden on the first Tuesday in January next, and the January term of all the said courts in and for the said county of Essex, shall always hereafter commence and be holden on the first Tuesday in January in every year instead of the second Tuesday in January as heretofore. When to be held.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all writs and process which have been issued and are returnable on the second Tuesday in January next, shall be deemed and taken to be returnable on the first Tuesday in January next, and shall be of the same force and effect as they would have been if this law had not been passed: and in case the sheriff or other officer of the said county of Essex, shall hereafter serve or execute any writ which may have been already issued and made returnable on the second Tuesday in January next, whereon such sheriff or other officer may be required to take bail, such bail shall be for the appearance of the defendant or defendants, on the first Tuesday in January next, notwithstanding the writ or process whereon such bail may be taken, may be returnable on the second Tuesday in January next. Process returnable.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all notices of trial heretofore given or made for the second Tuesday in January next, or for any day in term thereafter, shall be deemed and taken to be given and Notice of trial made for the first Tuesday in January next, or for such day thereafter as may correspond with the day in term named in such notice or rule.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the secretary of this state to transmit a copy of this act, within ten days after its passage, to the clerk of the county of Essex, who shall cause it to be published for three weeks successively in each of the public newspapers printed and published in the said county.

A. Passed November 4, 1819.

A Supplement to the act, entitled "An act concerning Roads."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That, it shall be the duty of the applicant or applicants to whom shall be delivered the return of the surveyors of the highways, in pursuance of the act to which this is a supplement, to deliver or transmit the said return to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, or of the Supreme Court, as the case may require, within fifteen days after the date thereof; and that in every case of neglect or refusal to deliver or transmit the same, within the time aforesaid, the said return shall be void.

A. Passed January 26, 1820.

An act to prevent the disturbance of Meetings held for the purpose of Religious Worship.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to erect, place, or have any booth, stall, tent, carriage, boat or vessel or other place, for the purpose or use of selling, giving, or otherwise disposing of any kind of articles of traffic, spirituous liquors, wine, porter, beer, cider, or any other fermented, mixed, or strong drink (excepting as hereinafter excepted) within three miles of any place of religious worship, in this state, during the time of holding any meeting for religious worship at such place.

Liquors not to be sold within three miles &c.

Violations punished and in what manner.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall or do violate this act by erecting, fixing, or having any booth, stall, tent, carriage, boat or vessel, or other place, for the purpose or use aforesaid, or by selling, bartering, giving or otherwise disposing of any kind of articles or traffic, spirituous liquors, wine, porter, beer, cider, or other fermented, mixed, or strong drink, in, at, or about any such booth, stall, tent, carriage, boat or vessel, or other place, prepared or used for the purposes aforesaid, within three miles of any place of religious worship, during the time of holding any meeting for religious worship, at such place, the person or persons so offending, shall first be informed of his, her, or their violation of this act, and shall be warned by any justice of the peace, constable, or two freeholders of the county where the offence is or shall have been committed, to desist from such offence, and to remove such booth, stall, tent, carriage, boat or vessel, together with all such articles of traffic, spirituous liquors, wine, porter, beer, cider, or other strong drink, belonging to, or in the possession of the person or persons so offending; and if such person or persons, on receiving such information and warning, shall forthwith cease to offend against this act, and shall remove as aforesaid, at least three miles from such place of religious worship, then no further proceeding under this act, shall be had against such person or persons; but if such person or persons shall refuse or neglect immediately to remove, as aforesaid, when informed and warned, as aforesaid, then all the said articles of traffic, spirituous liquors, wine, porter, beer, cider, and other fermented, mixed, and strong drink, and all the vessels, chests and other things containing the same, together with such booth, stall, tent, carriage, boat or vessel or other place, prepared or used for the purpose aforesaid, shall be, and are hereby declared to be forfeited; and it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace, and constable, with two freeholders of the county, to seize and take possession of all or any part of the said forfeited articles and liquors, together with such booth, stall, tent and carriage, boat or vessel, and at any time within ten days after, to advertise and sell the same—and after deducting and paying the necessary and lawful expenses of such seizure and sale, the residue of the proceeds of such sale or sales, shall be paid, to the overseers of the poor of the township, for the use of the poor of the county, where the support of the poor is a county charge, and where it is a township charge, to the poor of the township where such offence shall have been committed.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be taken or construed so as to affect any licensed tavern-keeper in his or her ordinary and lawful business, at his or her usual place of residence, specified in his or her license, nor shall it be so taken and construed, as to affect any merchant, shop-keeper, farmer, mechanic, or other person, in the usual and lawful transaction of his, her, or their ordinary concerns and business, in their usual places of doing such business—neither shall it be so taken or construed as to affect any person or persons attending any religious meeting, or their property; nor shall it be so taken, construed, or understood, as to affect any person or persons, who shall have a permit in writing, from the person or persons, having the oversight, charge and management of any such meeting, to sell bread and other necessary articles of food for man and beast; Provided, the conduct of persons attending such meeting shall accord with the lawful rules and regulations of such meeting, and the property of such persons attending such religious meeting, be not of the description forbidden by this act.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if any suit or action shall be brought against any person or persons, for doing, or causing to be done, any thing in pursuance of this act, according to the provisions thereof, the defendant or defendants may plead the general issue, and give the special matter, under this act, in evidence; and if in such suit or action, a verdict and judgment shall be given for the defendant or defendants, or the plaintiff shall be become non-suit, or discontinue his action, the defendant or defendants shall have and recover double costs of suit.

A. Passed February 2, 1820.

A Supplement to an act, entitled "An act concerning costs."

Judge to certify &c.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly, of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all actions of trespass, commenced or prosecuted in the Supreme Court, wherein the judge, at the trial of the cause, shall find and certify, under his hand, upon the back of the record, that the freehold, inheritance, or title to lands, tenements, hereditaments, or other real estate, came in question, on the trial of said cause, and the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover any damages, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover not only his, her, or their damages, but full costs of suit.

Costs in suits removed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any suit commenced in any of the Inferior Courts of Common Pleas shall be removed by writ of habeas corpus into the Supreme Court, by the defendant or defendants, and the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover in the Supreme Court, he, she or they, shall recover full costs, in case he, she or they would have been entitled to recover costs, had the suit remained and been tried in the Common Pleas.

Suits on foreign bills of exchange.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing in the act, entitled "an act to prevent unnecessary costs," passed the eleventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall be construed or taken to extend to foreign bills of exchange, but that the recovery of costs, on all suits arising on foreign bills of exchange, shall be and remain the same as though the said act had not been passed.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the fourth, fifth and sixth, sections of the act, entitled "An act concerning costs," passed the eighteenth day of February, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, be, and the same are hereby repealed,

C. Passed February 15, 1820.

A Supplement to an act, entitled "An act concerning Landlords and Tenants."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the rent in arrear, directed by the fourth section of the act, to which this is a supplement, to be paid by the party suing out execution to the landlord of the premises, or his bailiff, shall extend to all the rent which shall have accrued up to the day of the removal of the goods from off the said premises, whether by the terms of lease the day of payment shall have come or not, making a rebate of interest on the sum, the time of payment of which, by the terms of the lease, shall not have come, but not exceeding one year's rent.

C. Passed February 15, 1820.

An act concerning Divorces and for other purposes.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Court of Chancery, shall have jurisdiction of all causes of divorce, and of alimony or maintenance, by this bill directed and allowed: Provided the parties, complainant and defendant, or either of them, were or shall be inhabitants of this State, at the time of the injury, desertion, or neglect complained of, or where the marriage shall have been solemnized or taken place within this state, and the complainant shall have been an actual resident in this state, at the time of the injury, desertion, or neglect complained of, and at the time of exhibiting the bill; or where the adultery was committed in this state, and the parties, complainant and defendant, or either of them reside in this state at the time of exhibiting the bill: Provided such complainant shall make his or her oath or affirmation, to be annexed to the bill of complaint, that his or her complaint is not made by any collusion between him or her, and the defendant, for the purpose of dissolving their marriage, but in truth and good faith for the causes set forth in the bill of complaint.

In what cases the court shall have jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the like process and course of practice and procedure, shall be had and pursued in all such causes, as are usually had and pursued in other causes, on the equity side of the said court, except that the answer of defendants shall not be under oath.

Causes of divorce.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That divorces from the bond of matrimony shall be decreed where either of the parties had another wife or husband living at the time of such second or other marriage; and that all marriages, where either of the parties shall have a former husband or wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be invalid from the beginning, and absolutely void, and the issue thereof shall be deemed to be illegitimate, and subject to all the legal disabilities of such issue.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That divorces from the bond of matrimony, may be decreed in case the parties are within the degrees prohibited by law, and in case of adultery in either of the parties; and also for wilful, continued and obstinate desertion for the term of five years; but the decree or sentence of divorce in such cases, shall not render illegitimate, the issue of any marriage so dissolved.

Collusion of parties.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if it appear to the court that the adultery complained of, shall have been occasioned by the collusion of the parties, and done with an intention to procure a divorce, or that the complainant was consenting thereto, or that both parties have been guilty of adultery, then no divorce shall be decreed.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any persons who shall be divorced, on account of their being within the prohibited degrees, shall after such divorce, cohabit together, such persons so offending, shall be liable to all the pains and penalties provided by the then existing laws against incest.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if any persons shall cohabit or live together in the same house, after a divorce for the cause of adultery or prior marriage, such persons so offending, shall be liable to all the pains and penalties provided by the laws against adultery.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That for extreme cruelty in either of the parties, the Court of Chancery may decree a divorce from bed and board for ever thereafter, or for a limited time, as shall seem just and reasonable.

The court may decree alimony and maintenance.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That when a divorce shall be decreed, it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Chancery, to take such order touching the alimony and maintenance of the wife; and also touching the care and maintenance of the children, or any of them by the said husband, as from the circumstances of the parties and the nature of the case shall be fit, reasonable, and just; and in case the wife is the complainant, to order the defendant to give reasonable security for such alimony and maintenance; and upon his neglect or refusal to give such reasonable security as shall be required of him, or upon default of him and his surety, if any there be, to pay or provide such alimony and maintenance; to award and issue process for the immediate sequestration of the defendant's personal estate, and the rents and profits of his real estate, and to appoint a receiver thereof, and cause such personal estate, and the rents and profits of such real estate, or so much thereof, as shall be necessary to be applied towards such maintenance and allowance, or to such maintenance and allowance as to the said court, shall from time to time seem reasonable and just, or to enforce the performance of the said decree or orders by such other lawful ways and means as is usual, and according to the course and practice of the Court of Chancery.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That in case a husband without any justifiable cause, shall abandon his wife, or separate himself from her, and refuse or neglect to maintain and provide for her, it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Chancery, to decree and order such suitable support and maintenance to be paid and provided by the said husband, for the wife and her children, or any of them by that marriage, or out of his property, and for such time as the nature of the case and the circumstances of the parties render suitable and proper in the opinion of the court, and to compel the defendant to give reasonable security for such maintenance and allowance; and from time to time, to make such further orders touching the same, as shall be just and equitable, and to enforce such decree and orders in the manner mentioned in the last preceding section of this act. But during the time such maintenance shall be allowed by the decree or sentence of the court, the husband shall not be chargeable with her debts.

Maintenance of wife and children, in case the husband abandon them.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That in any such suit as is mentioned in the last preceding section, it shall and may be lawful for the Chancellor, if applied for before answer filed, to order a bond to be given in one hundred dollars, by one or more sufficient freeholders, with condition to pay such costs as shall or may be awarded by the court to be paid to the defendant.

Indemnity for costs.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the act entitled "An act concerning divorce and alimony," passed the second day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-four, and the act entitled "A supplement to the act entitled an act concerning divorce and alimony," passed the fourth day of March, seventeen hundred and ninety-five; and the act entitled "An act concerning divorces and for other purposes," passed the third day of February, eighteen hundred and eighteen, be, and they are hereby repealed: Provided nevertheless, that such repeal shall not affect any proceedings now depending by virtue of the before mentioned acts or either of them, but the same may be continued and proceeded upon, as if this act had not been passed.

Acts repealed.

C. Passed February 16, 1820.

An act to repeal two sections of an act concerning Sheriffs.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the fourteenth and fifteenth sections of the act, entitled "An act concerning sheriffs," passed the eighteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

C. Passed February 16, 1820.

Conditions to be performed.

said writ, and before the goods shall be sold, and enter into bond to the said sheriff or other officer, with good and sufficient sureties, that the goods and chattels levied on in virtue of the said writ, shall be forthcoming to answer the exigencies of said writ, at a day therein named, not exceeding three calendar months from the date of said bond, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the said sheriff, or other officer to whom the said writ shall be directed, to suspend the sale of the said goods and chattels, and proceed to sell the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate, or such part thereof as the owner or owners thereof shall have desired to be sold as aforesaid, any thing contained in the sixth section of the act to which this is a supplement, the said writ of fieri facias, or any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

In what manner notice of sale to be givn.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff or other officer to whom a writ of fieri facias may be directed, against lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate, in addition to the notice required by the ninth section of the act to which this is a supplement, to cause the time and place of the sale of said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate, levied on by virtue of said writ, to be published in one of the newspapers printed and published in this State and circulated in the neighbourhood of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate, at least four weeks successively, once a-week, next preceding the time appointed for selling the same, and that the said sheriff or other officer, advertising as aforesaid, shall be entitled, in addition to his other fees, to the sum of one dollar and fifty cents.

to be sold by the Orphans'
Court to be advertised.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That whenever any lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate, shall be directed to be sold by an order made by the Orphans' Court, in any of the counties of this State, it shall be the duty of the executor, administrator, or guardian, as the case may be, to advertise the time and place of the sale thereof, in the manner directed in the preceding section of this act, in addition to the provision already prescribed by law.

In what case surviving executors may convey lands.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That in all cases wherein an order hath heretofore been made, or shall hereafter be made, by the Orphans' Court of any county in this State, in which the said court hath ordered or directed, or may order or direct, two or more executors, or administrators, to sell the whole or any part of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate of a testator or intestate, for the payment of debts, and one or more of the said executors or administrators shall or may have departed this life, before such sale shall have been made, or before a deed or deeds of conveyance may have been executed in pursuance thereof, that then and in such case the survivor or survivors of such executors, or administrators, shall be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to sell the said lands, tenements, he-reditaments, and real estate, and to make and execute good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance for the same, to the purchaser or purchasers, and in all respects to execute, carry into effect and fulfil the said order as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes, as if all the executors or administrators, named in the same order might if living execute and fulfil the same.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the act entitled a supplement to the act, entitled "An act making lands liable to be sold for the payment of debts," passed the eleventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred; and the act, entitled "An act to amend the act, entitled An act making lands liable for the payment of debts," passed the twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and four; and the act, entitled a further supplement to the act, entitled "An act making lands liable for the payment of debts," passed the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this repealing section shall in any way invalidate or render null any act, matter or thing, lawfully done or transacted under them, or any of them, or impair any right required under them or any of them, but the same shall be as good, valid and effectual, as though this repealing section had not been made.

C. Passed February 21, 1820.

An act to secure to Creditors an equal and just division of the estates of Debtors who convey to Assignees for the benefit of Creditors.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the fourth day of July next, every conveyance or assignment made by a debtor or debtors of his, her or their estates, real or personal or both, in trust to the assignee or assignees for the creditors of such debtor or debtors, shall be made for their equal benefit, in proportion to their several demands to the nett amount that shall come to the hands of said assignee or assignees for distribution; and all preferences of one creditor over the other, or whereby any one or more shall be first paid, or have a greater proportion in respect of his, her, or their claim than another, shall be deemed fraudulent and void, excepting mortgage and judgment creditors when the judgment has not been by confession for the purpose of preferring creditors.

Assignments to be for the equal benefit of all creditors.

Cases excepted.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the debtor or debtors making such assignment, shall annex to such assignment or conveyance, an inventory under oath or affirmation, of his, her, or their estate real and personal, according to the best of their knowledge, and together with a list of his, her or their creditors, and the amount of their respective claims, but that such inventory shall in no wise be conclusive as to the quantum of the debtor's estate, real and personal, but the assignee or assignees shall be entitled to any other property which may belong to the debtor or debtors at the time of making the assignment, and comprehended within the general terms of the same.'

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said assignee or assignees shall for the term of thirty days from the date of said assignment, give public notice by advertising in two of the newspapers printed in this state, circulating in the neighbourhood where such creditor resides, and in one or more newspapers in any other state, where it shall be known any creditor of the said assignee resides, making known thereby that such assignment has been made, and that they make their claims under oath, or affirmation. At the end of said thirty days, the said assignee or assignees shall exhibit to the surrogate of the county wherein such debtor or debtors reside, under oath or affirmation, a true inventory and valuation of said estate, as far as has come to his or their knowledge, and then and there enter into bond to the Governor of this state for the time being, in double the amount of the inventory and valuation, with sufficient security, for the faithful performance of said trust, and the said assignee or assignees may then proceed to sell said estate, and perform every other duty necessary to carry into effect the intention of said assignment, so far as respects the collection of debts, and sale of real or personal estate, and the bond shall be filed in the Surrogate's office.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That after the said assignee or assignees shall have given bond as aforesaid for the faithful performance of said trust, the Surrogate shall endorse the receipt of said bond on the deed of assignment, after which endorsement, the clerk of the county shall record the same, having been first acknowledged or proved according to law.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That at the expiration of six months from the date of said assignment, the said assignee or assignees shall file with the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of the county wherein such debtor or debtors resided at the time of making such assignment, a true list under oath or affirmation, of all such creditors of said debtors, as shall claim to be such, with a true statement of their respective claims, having first advertised for six weeks next preceding the end of said term, in two of the newspapers printed in this state, and by putting up advertisements in five of the most public places in the neighbourhood wherein such creditors or a majority of them reside, making known thereby that all claims against said estate must be made as hereinafter prescribed, or be for ever barred from coming in for a dividend of said estate, otherwise than hereinafter provided.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the assignee or assignees, or any creditor, or other person interested, by himself or attorney to appear at the next term of the said Court of Common Pleas, and file exceptions to the claim or demand of any creditor exhibited as aforesaid, and said court shall cause a notice to be served on said creditor, at least four weeks preceding the next term, and shall then proceed to hear the proofs and allegations in the premises, in the same or any subsequent term, as may be expedient, allowing the parties a right to have the said controversy settled by jury.

Exceptions to creditors'
demands.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That at the first term of said court, succeeding the expiration of six months, as aforesaid, should there be no exceptions made to the claim of any creditor, or if exceptions have been made, and adjudicated or settled by said court, the said assignee or assignees shall then proceed to make from time to time, fair and equal dividends among said creditors of the assets which shall come to hand, in proportion to their claims, and as soon as may be, and not exceeding one year thereafter, shall render on oath or affirmation, a final account to the Orphans' Court of said county, in like manner and upon the same notice to creditors and others interested, as directed in regard to executors and administrators in the sixteenth section of the act, entitled "An act to ascertain the powers and authority of the Ordinary and his surrogates, and to regulate the jurisdiction of the Prerogative Court, and to establish an Orphans' Court in the several counties of this State," passed the sixteenth of December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and exceptions may in like manner be filed to such accounts and proceeded in as is prescribed in said section, in regard to executors and administrators, and the settlement and decree of said court shall be conclusive on all parties except for assets which may afterwards come to hand, or for frauds or apparent error.

Dividends to be made by the assignees, and in what manner.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That such commissions and allowance shall be made to said assignee or assignees, in the final settlement aforesaid, as the said court shall consider just and right.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the said court may from time to time, if necessary, by citation and attachment, compel said assignee or assignees to proceed to the execution of the duties required by this act, until a final settlement and distribution as aforesaid.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That any creditor may not only exhibit any debt due, but those to grow due, making in such case a reasonable rebate when interest is not accruing on the same.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That if any creditor shall not exhibit his, her or their claims within the term of six months, as aforesaid, such claim shall be barred of a dividend, unless the estate shall prove sufficient after the debts exhibited and allowed are fully satisfied, or such creditor shall find some other estate not accounted for by the assignee or assignees before distribu-

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That whenever any assignee or assignees, as aforesaid, shall sell any real estate of such debtor or debtors as is conveyed in trust as aforesaid, he or they shall proceed to advertise and sell the same in manner as is prescribed in the case of an executor, by the twenty-first section of the act, entitled "An act making lands liable to be sold for the payment of debts," passed eighteenth of February, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and the supplement to said act, passed the twenty-sixth of November, one thousand eight hundred and four.

Power of assignees.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That every assignee as aforesaid, shall have as full power and authority to dispose of all estate, real and personal, assigned, as the said debtor or debtors had at the time of the assignment, and to sue for and recover in the proper name of such assignee or assignees, every thing belonging or appertaining to said estate, real or personal, of said debtor or debtors, and shall have full power and authority to refer to arbitration, settle and compound, and to agree with any person concerning the same, and to redeem all mortgages and conditional contracts, and generally to act and do whatsoever the said debtor or debtors might have lawfully done in the premises.

How far the debtor is protected by his assignment.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be taken or understood as discharging said debtor or debtors from liability to their creditors, who may not choose to exhibit their claims, either in regard to the persons of such debtors, or to any estate real or personal, not assigned as aforesaid, but with respect to the creditors who shall come in under said assignment, and exhibit their demands as aforesaid, for a dividend, they shall be wholly barred from having afterwards any action or suit at law or equity against such debtors or their representatives; unless on the trial of such action or hearing in equity, the said creditor shall prove fraud in the said debtor or debtors, with respect to the said assignment, or concealing his estate real or personal, whether in possession, held in trust, or otherwise.

Fees allowed.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the same fees shall be allowed in all proceedings under this act, to the judges and officers of the Orphans' Court as are allowed for like services performed in the settlement of accounts of executors or administrators, under the laws of this state.

In case of the assignees' death, sureties may act.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That if the assignee or assignees who have been appointed, and have given surety according to the provision of this act, should die before the final settlement of said estate, it shall be lawful for said surety to proceed to the final settlement of said estate, and perform every duty the said assignee or assignees could rightfully have performed, the said surety having first given additional surety for their faithful performance as aforesaid.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That in case the said surety should die, or reasonable objections be made by the creditors against his acting as aforesaid, or refuse to act, the said Orphans' Court shall proceed to appoint some suitable person or persons to settle the same.

When the Orphans' Court may appoint a person to act.

C. Passed March 1, 1820.

An Act to incorporate a company for making a Canal or water communication in this State, between the tide-waters of the Delaware and Raritan rivers.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to open books for receiving and entering subscriptions by the United States or body corporate or individual, to the amount of eight hundred thousand dollars, in shares of one hundred dollars each, for the making said Canal and perfecting the navigation thereof, at the places and by the following commissioners:

Books to be opened for entering subscriptions and commissioners appointed.

At Philadelphia, by Samuel Breck and William J. Duane, esquires.

At New-York, by Nathaniel Prime and Joseph G. Swift, esquires.

At Newark, by John Rutherford and William S. Pennington, esquires.

At New-Brunswick, by John N. Simpson and Thomas Hill, esquires.

At Trenton, by Garret D. Wall and Israel Taylor, esquires.

That the books shall be opened on the fourth Monday in April next, and continue open until the fourth Monday in June next following, when there shall be a general meeting of the subscribers at the city of Trenton, in this state, of which meeting notice shall be given by the said commissioners, or any of them, in two of the newspapers of Philadelphia, New-York, and this state, at least thirty days before such meeting; which meeting shall be continued from day to day until the business is finished, and the commissioners at the time and place aforesaid, shall lay before such of the subscribers as shall meet or be represented there, the said books of subscription; and if half of the said capital sum should appear not to be subscribed, then the said commissioners, at said meeting, are empowered to receive and take subscriptions to make up the deficiency; and in case more than eight hundred thousand dollars shall be subscribed, the said commissioners shall deduct the amount of such excess from the largest subscriptions, in such manner as that no subscription shall be reduced in amount while any one remains larger: Provided, that if the subscriptions received before and at such meeting, shall not amount to at least half the said capital sum, then the subscribers so meeting, or a majority of them, or their representatives present, are authorised to adjourn the said meeting to such further time, and from time to time, as they may deem proper; and in the mean time the said books shall be continued open by the commissioners aforesaid, or any one or more of them, and they shall be authorised to take subscriptions as aforesaid, until half the said capital sum or more shall be subscribed: Provided, that at least thirty days notice in the newspapers aforesaid, shall be given by the said acting commissioners, or a majority of them, of the time and place of every meeting of the subscribers; and whenever, whether at first or any other meeting of the subscribers as aforesaid, it shall appear that the subscriptions in said books amount to at least half the capital sum aforesaid, then such of the subscribers as are present at such meeting, or their representatives, shall and may proceed to elect by ballot, a president and eleven directors for conducting, directing and completing said Canal, and managing the business of the corporation under this act, for and during a term not exceeding two years, as the said subscribers or a majority of them may deem proper; at which election (and so at every future election) each subscriber or stockholder shall be allowed one vote for every share not exceeding five shares, and one vote for every two shares not exceeding ten, and one vote for every three shares above ten, held by such stockholder in the said company, and the said subscription books shall then be closed and deposited with the said president; and subscriptions for the residue of said capital stock, if any, shall and may be taken and received by the said president and directors or their successors, in whole shares as aforesaid, from such persons as shall first offer from time to time thereafter to subscribe for the same.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That every subscriber, at the time of subscription, shall pay to the commissioners receiving the same, five dollars on each share, in part, of such share or shares, which monies shall be deposited in some convenient bank of good credit, in the name of said commissioners, for the use of the Canal Company. And the said commissioners shall make out true accounts of all monies received from subscribers, and monies expended as aforesaid, and deliver the same with vouchers, into the hands of the president aforesaid, and transfer the monies in bank to the president and directors of the company for the use of the same; and the said company shall be liable to pay to each of the said commissioners respectively, a reasonable allowance for his services, as also to reimburse such commissioner all monies laid out and expended by him in and about the premises.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That from and immediately after the said election, the subscribers, their heirs, successors and assigns shall be, and hereby are incorporated by the name of "The New-Jersey Delaware and Raritan Canal Company," and by that name they and their successors and assigns are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate in law, and shall be capable of holding their capital stock and the increase and profits thereof from time to time, and in such manner and form as they shall see proper, and also to sue or be sued, implead and be impleaded in courts of justice or any other place whatever, to make and use a common seal, and the same to alter and renew at their pleasure, and also to ordain, establish and put in execution such by-laws, ordinances and regulations as shall seem necessary and convenient for the government of the said corporation, provided the same are not contrary to the laws and constitution of the United States, and of this state or of this act, and the president and directors so chosen as aforesaid, shall be the first president and directors of the said Canal Company for and during the term of their being chosen as aforesaid, and until the next meeting of stockholders hereinafter provided for.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors so elected, and their successors, or a majority of them assembled, shall have full power and authority to agree with any person or persons on behalf of the said company, to cut such Canal, and erect and make such dams and locks, and perform such other works as may be necessary in their opinion for opening, improving and extending the navigation between the rivers aforesaid, as they shall think fit: Provided such Canal shall be cut for not less than nine feet depth of water and be at least fifty-six feet wide on the surface of the water therein; and out of the money from subscriptions and tolls and other aids hereinafter given to pay for the same; and to repair and keep in order the said Canal, locks, dams and other works necessary thereto, and to defray all incidental charges; and also to appoint a treasurer, clerk and such other officers and toll gatherers, managers and servants as they shall deem requisite, and to agree for and settle their respective allowances and wages, and settle, pass and sign their accounts, and also make and establish rules and proceedings, and to transact all other business and concerns of said company, in and during the intervals between the general meetings of the same, and they shall be allowed for their trouble as shall be determined in a general meeting of the subscribers: Provided always, that the treasurer shall give bond in such penalty and with such security as the said president and directors or a majority of them shall direct, for the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in him, and no officer of the company shall have a vote in settling and passing his own account.

Powers of the President and Directors.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority from time to time, as money shall be wanted, to make and sign orders for that purpose, and direct in what manner and what proportions, and at what time the subscribers shall advance and pay the sums by them respectively subscribed, and the said president and directors, or a majority of them are authorised and empowered to demand and receive of the said subscribers respectively, the sums of money so ordered to be advanced, for carrying on and executing or repairing and keeping in order the said Canal, dams, locks and other works, until the sum subscribed shall be fully paid, and to order the said sums to be deposited in the hands of the treasurer, to be by him disbursed as the said president and directors, or a majority of them shall order and appoint: Provided, that the said president and directors shall give thirty days notice of such orders, and if any subscriber shall refuse or neglect to pay the sum which he or she ought to pay according to

Their powers
as to money subscribed.

such order, in one month after the time appointed by such order for that purpose, the same may and shall be recovered by action of debt in any court of record in this state, in the name of the said company, against the subscriber, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns.

When and where directors to be chosen.

Sec. 6. And to continue the succession of said president and directors, and keep up the same number, Be it enacted, That on the first Monday in May after the expiration of the term for which the said first president and directors shall be chosen as aforesaid, and so in every year thereafter, there shall be a general meeting of the stockholders at the city of Trenton, in this state, who shall then and there proceed to elect by ballot and plurality of votes then and there actually given in person, or by proxy, according to the scale of voting herein before prescribed, twelve directors for the management of the affairs of the said company; and the directors so appointed, shall serve until the first Monday in May next ensuing, and the board of directors so chosen, shall at the first meeting after their election, proceed to elect one of the said directors to be president of the corporation, who shall hold the said office during the same period for which the said directors are appointed and elected as aforesaid: Provided, that if an appointment of directors or election of a president should for any cause happen not to be so made as to take effect on any day when in pursuance of this act they ought to take effect, the said corporation shall not for that cause be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall be lawful at any other time to make such appointments and hold such elections as the case may be, and the manner of holding the elections in such case, shall be regulated by the by-laws and ordinances of the corporation, and until such appointments or elections be made, the directors and president for the time being shall continue in office: And provided also, that in case of the death, resignation, incapacity or removal of the president, the directors shall proceed to elect another president from the directors aforesaid.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That every president and director, before he acts as such, shall take an oath or affirmation for the due execution of his office.

Directors to report their proceedings.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That at the said annual meeting of the stockholders, the president and directors shall make report, and render distinct and just accounts of all their proceedings, and on finding them fairly and justly stated, the stockholders then present, or a majority of them, shall give a certificate thereof, a duplicate of which shall be entered on the said company's books, and at such yearly general meetings, after leaving in the hands of the treasurer such sum as the stockholders, or a majority of them shall judge necessary for repairs and contingent charges, an equal dividend of all the nett profits arising by the tolls hereby granted, shall be ordered and made to and among the stockholders of the said company in proportion to their several shares.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That for and in consideration of the expense the said stockholders will be at, not only in cutting the said Canal and other works for opening the said navigation, but in maintaining and keeping the same in repair, the said Canal works with all their profits, under the limitations aforesaid, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the said corporation for ever, subject nevertheless to the conditions hereafter mentioned, and that it shall and may be lawful for the said president and directors, after the said Canal shall be made navigable, to demand and receive the following tolls at such place or places in the Canal as they may hereafter direct: Provided, that the whole toll received shall not amount to more than the rates fixed by this act—that is to say:

Every pipe of wine or French brandy, one dollar and sixty-six cents.

And for all other commodities the same proportion, agreeably to the articles herein enumerated, and every boat or vessel which has not commodities on board, to pay the sum of five dollars thirty-three cents, shall pay so much as with the commodities on board will yield the sum aforesaid. And every empty boat or vessel, five dollars thirty-three cents, except an empty boat or vessel returning, whose load has already paid the tolls affixed, in which case she shall re-pass tolls free: Pro- vided, such boat or vessel shall return within thirty days after paying such tolls.

Provides in case the toll should not be paid.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That in case of the refusal or neglect to pay the toll at the time of offering to pass through the said Canal, and previous to the vessel passing through the same, the collectors of the said tolls may lawfully refuse passage to such vessel, and if any vessel shall pass without paying the said toll, then the said collectors may seize such vessel wherever found, and sell the same at auction for ready money, which so far as necessary, shall be applied towards paying said toll, and all expenses of seizure and sale; and the balance, if any there be, shall be paid to the owner; and the person having the direction of such vessel, shall be liable to such tolls, if the same is not paid by the sale of such vessel aforesaid: Provided, that the said stockholders or a majority of them, holding at least one half the capital stock, shall have full power and authority at any general meeting, to lessen the said tolls or any of them: Provided also, that the same rate of tolls shall be paid on articles passing from Delaware to Raritan, as upon those paid from Raritan to the Delaware.

To be a highway.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the said Canal and the works to be erected thereon, in virtue of this act, when completed, shall forever thereafter be esteemed a public highway, free for the transportation of goods, commodities or produce whatsoever, on payment of the tolls imposed by this act.

May purchase land, and manner of proceeding in certain cases.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the president and directors, or a majority of them, to contract and agree with the owner or owners of any lands and tenements, for the purchase of so much thereof as shall be necessary for making, digging, and perfecting the said Canal, and of erecting and establishing all the necessary locks, works and devices to such navigation belonging, if they can agree with such owner or owners; but in case of disagreement, or in case the owner thereof shall be feme covert, under age, not compos mentis, or out of the state, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said president and directors to apply to one of the justices of the Supreme Court of this state, who upon such application, is hereby authorised and empowered, enjoined and required to frame and issue one or more writ or writs, as occasion shall require, in the nature of a writ of ad quod damnum, to be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the lands to be enquired of or do lay, commanding him that by the oaths or affirmations of twelve good and lawful men of his bailiwick, who shall be indifferent to the parties, he shall inquire whether the person or persons owning any lands and tenements necessary to be used by the said president and directors, or which may be injured in establishing the said Canal (which person or persons shall be named, and which lands and tenements shall be described in such writ or writs) will suffer and sustain any and what damages, by reason or means of taking any lands or tenements necessary for the use of such Canal, and to return the same writ, together with the finding of the said jury to the next Supreme Court of this state, after such finding, and upon such writ being delivered to the said sheriff, he shall give at least fifteen days notice in writing to all and every the owners of the lands and tenements in the said writ described, or to so many of them as can be found, or to the agent or agents of such owners, of the time of executing the same, and shall cause to come upon the premises at the time appointed, twelve good and lawful men of his bailiwick, to whom he shall administer an oath or affirmation, that they will diligently inquire concerning the matters and things in the said writ specified, and a true verdict give according to their skill and judgment, without favour or partiality, and thereupon the said sheriff and inquest shall proceed to view all and every the lands and tenements, in such writs specied, and having considered the quantity of land and lands covered with water, that shall be necessary to be vested in the said company for the purpose aforesaid, they shall cause the same to be minutely and exactly described by metes and bounds or other particular descriptions, and shall value and appraise the injury or damages, if any, which the owner or owners of the said lands and tenements will, according to their best skill and judgment, sustain and suffer by means of so much of said lands and tenements being vested in the said company, defining and ascertaining as well all such lands and tenements so to be vested in the said company, as the several sums at which the said injuries and damages shall be so assessed, and the said sheriff and jury shall make inquisition under their hands and seals, distinctly and plainly setting forth all the matters and things aforesaid, and the sheriff shall forthwith return the same, together with the said writ, to the office of the Supreme Court, and at the first Supreme Court which shall be held next after the return of any such writ, the justices of the said Supreme Court shall examine the same, and if the said writ shall appear to have been duly executed, and the return thereof be sufficiently certain to ascertain the lands and tenements intended to be vested in the said company, and the several compensations awarded the owners thereof, then the said Court shall enter judgment that the said company paying to the several owners, as aforesaid, the several sums of money in the said inquisition assessed, or bringing the same into the said Court over and above the costs of such writ, and of executing and returning the same, shall be entitled to have and to hold to them and their successors and assigns for ever, all and every the lands and tenements in the said inquisition described, as fully and effectually as if the same had been granted to them by their respective owners thereof; and if any return so to be made shall not be sufficiently certain for the purposes aforesaid, the said Court shall award an inquisition denovo, and upon payment or bringing into Court all such monies as by such judgment is required to be paid or brought into Court, all such lands and tenements shall be fully and absolutely vested in the said corporation, which shall become seized and possessed thereof in like manner as the then late owner or owners was or were seized, or possessed thereof: Provided nevertheless, that the jurors making the inquest aforesaid, shall take into consideration in forming their verdict, the benefits and advantages which the respective holders of the lands and tenements to be taken as aforesaid, will derive from the said Canal, and the improvement and increase of the value of the said lands, in consequence thereof; and if the said jury shall consider that the benefits and advantages, improvements, or increase in value, will be equal to the value of the lands to be taken, then they shall return the fact and not assess any damages.

May purchase land for the erection of necessary
buildings, &c.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised to agree with the proprietors for the purchase of a quantity of land and lands covered with water, not exceeding in all over and above the land and lands covered with water, which may be set out, contracted for, and taken for the Canal as aforesaid, one thousand acres for the purpose of convenient places for the receipt of tolls and the erection of necessary buildings, and for securing reservoirs and supplies of water for the said Canal and other necessary purposes, and in case of disagreement, or any of the disabilities aforesaid, or the proprietors being out of the State, then such land may be valued, taken, and paid for as aforesaid, for the purposes aforesaid, and the said company shall, upon payment of the valuation of the said lands, be seized thereof in fee simple as aforesaid.

transferring shares.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That the shares of capital stock at any time owned by any person or persons, shall be transferable only in the books of the said company, according to such rules as may be lawfully prescribed in the bye-laws of the said corporation: Provided, that no transfer whatever shall be made, except for one or more whole share or shares, and not for part of such shares, and that no share shall at any time be sold, conveyed, transferred, or held in trust for the use and benefit, or in the name of another, whereby the said president, directors, or stockholders of said company, or any of them, shall or may be challenged, or made to answer concerning any trust; but that every person appearing as aforesaid, to be a stockholder, shall, as to others of the said company, be to every intent taken absolutely as such, but as between any trustee and the person for whose benefit any trust shall be created, the common remedy may be pursued.

The capital stock may be increased,
and in what manner.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That if the said capital stock and other aids already granted by this act, shall prove insufficient, it shall and may be lawful for the said company, from time to time, to increase the said capital by the addition of so many more whole shares as may be judged necessary by the said stockholders, or a majority of them, holding half the said capital stock at the least, present at any general meeting of the said company, and the said president and directors, or a majority of them, are hereby empowered and required, after giving at least one month's notice in the newspapers aforesaid, to open books at such place or places as shall be directed by the said meeting, for receiving and entering such additional subscriptions, in which the stockholders of the said company for the time being, shall, and are hereby declared to have the preference of all others for the first twenty days after the said books shall be opened as aforesaid, and of taking and subscribing for as many whole shares as any of them shall choose, and the said president and directors are hereby required to observe in all other respects, the same rules therein, as are by this act prescribed for receiving and adjusting the first subscriptions, and all stockholders of such additional shares, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be from thence forward, incorporated into the same company.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That if the stockholders or the president and directors aforesaid, should neglect, or omit, or be by accident prevented from performing any act or thing on the particular day which it is directed by this act to be done and performed, such neglect or omission shall not be construed or taken in any manner to destroy or invalidate this charter, but the said act may be done the next convenient day, and the said president and directors shall continue until new ones are chosen.

Omissions not to destroy this charter.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That the commissioners appointed under this act, and the said president and directors chosen under the same, or any of them, or their agents, at any time after the passing thereof, shall have full power and authority to enter upon and view, and pass, and re-pass over any lands on and adjacent to the contemplated route of said Canal, for the purpose of ascertaining and fixing on the most eligible route for the same, and to take with them such engineer, surveyor, and other assistants as may be necessary for that purpose; Provided, that the same be done without injury to the fences or enclosures thereon, or to the said land or any thing growing thereon, more than will arise from the mere passing over the same.

Power as to passing over lands to view, &c.

Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That whenever said Canal shall cross any public road, it shall be the duty of the said company, at the proper expense of the same, to make and keep good and sufficient bridges across the said Canal, so as to prevent any inconvenience in the usage of the said road or roads by reason of the said Canal crossing the same, and that it shall be lawful for the Legislature of this State at all times hereafter to enact laws for the erecting and maintaining bridges across the said Canal, at the expense of the said company, and to subject the said company to forfeitures, pains and penalties, for not complying with such laws.

Canal crossing roads, bridges to be built.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That no state, county, township, or other public assessments, taxes, or charges whatsoever, shall at any time be laid or imposed upon the said Canal Company, or upon the stocks and estates which may become vested in them.

No taxes to be laid upon the estates or stock of the company.

under this act ; but this exemption shall not extend to any other estate or property of the company than such as is possessed, occupied, and used by the said company for the actual purposes of said Canal navigation under this act, according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

Penalty for injuring the Canal, &c.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That if any person shall in any manner wilfully injure or obstruct the said Canal, locks, erections, or other part or parts thereof, by any manner of ways or means, every person so offending, and being convicted thereof, shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars, and such prosecution and fine shall in no case impair the right of action for damages by a civil suit, to be brought by the company.

Sec. 21. And be it enacted, That the funds of the said company shall never be employed in any other operation, or for other purposes than those provided for in this act.

Action for damage done by the company.

Sec. 22. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be taken to impair the right of any person to an action against the said company for damages to his or her water-rights, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by the erection of said Canal, where such person hath not been agreed with by the said company, or his or her damages, right and estate, satisfied and vested in the said company under the provisions of the twelfth section of this act.

To render an account to the State, &c.

Sec. 23. And be it enacted, That if at the end of twenty-one years from the incorporation of the said company, or at any time after, the nett proceeds arising from the said Canal to the said company, shall amount to fifteen per centum per annum, on the capital stock, or any greater sum, then in that case the said company shall pay into the treasury of this State, one fifteenth part of the said nett profits annually, so long as the said nett profits shall amount to or exceed fifteen per centum per annum ; and that at the end of twenty-one years, from the time of the incorporation of the said company, and at the end of every ten years thereafter, the said company shall exhibit to the Legislature an account of their expenditures, and of the profits arising from the said Canal, and the books, papers, and transactions of the said company shall at all times after the end of the said term of twenty-one years, be open to the inspection and examination of the Treasurer of this State, or such other person or persons as shall be appointed by the Legislature of this State for that purpose.

A Supplement to the Act relative to Dower.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if a husband, shall hereafter devise to his wife, by a will duly executed to pass real estate, any lands or real estate for her life or otherwise, and without expressing whether such devise to her is intended to be in lieu or bar of dower, or not, and the said wife shall survive her said husband, that then the said wife so surviving, shall not be entitled to dower in any lands or real estate devised by her said husband, unless she shall in writing express her dissent to receive the lands or real estate so devised to her in satisfaction and bar of her right of dower in the other lands and real estate devised in and by the said will, and file the same with the Surrogate of the county wherein she resides, or in which the lands or real estate devised to her shall be situated, within six months after the probate of the said will, and then and in that case, she shall be considered as renouncing the benefit of the said devise to her.

A devise of real estate to a wife shall bar her dower, unless she shall express her dissent, &c.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful after the passing of this act, for any widow entitled to dower in any lands or real estate, of which her husband died seized, or for any heir or heirs, or guardian of any minor child or children, entitled to any estate in the said lands or real estate, to apply by petition to the Orphans' Court of the county where the said lands or real estate are situated, for the appointment of commissioners to assign to such widow her dower in the said lands and real estate; whereupon the said court shall appoint three discreet and disinterested freeholders in the said county, commissioners, to admeasure and set off as speedily as conveniently may be, one third part of the said lands and real estate, as the said widow's dower, which commissioners before they enter upon the duty assigned them, shall be sworn or affirmed before the Surrogate, or any other person authorised to administer oaths in the said county, faithfully, honestly and impartially to execute the trust reposed in them respectively.

Orphans' court to appoint commissioners to set off
dower.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the party petitioning for the appointment of commissioners to assign and set off dower as aforesaid, shall give twenty days previous notice in writing to the other person or persons interested, and to the guardians (if any) of minor children, of the said intended application, by serving the same personally or leaving it at his or her usual place of dwelling, or where any person entitled to notice of such intended application, shall not reside in this state, and shall not be served with notice as aforesaid, then notice may be given by advertisement in a newspaper published in the county where the said lands or real estate are situated, or in the county nearest thereto, in which a newspaper shall be published, for at least four weeks successively, once at least in each week.

Notice of application.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to make a full report of all their proceedings, with the distances and courses of the lands so assigned and allotted by them to the widow for her dower, and amount of their charges, to the court which appointed them, at the next or subsequent term, after their appointment, which report, if approved and confirmed by the court, shall be entered at large by the Surrogate on the records in his office, in some proper book for that purpose; and all persons concerned therein, shall be concluded by the judgment or decree of the said court, unless the same shall be set aside or reversed.

Duty of commissioners.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any widow, heir or heirs, or guardian of any minor child, who shall conceive herself or himself aggrieved by the proceedings, judgment or decree under this act, of any Orphans' Court, at any time within twenty days after the final judgment or decree, to give notice in writing of the causes of complaint, and of his or her intention to apply to the Surrogate-General, at the next stated term to be holden after such notice, for relief, who shall review the proceedings, judgment or decree complained of, and do therein what shall be just.

Appeal given to Surrogate-General.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That where a husband shall die seized of lands or real estate in two or more counties, it shall be lawful for the Ordinary or Surrogate-General to appoint commissioners to admeasure and set off dower as aforesaid, and to proceed therein in all respects as the Orphans' Courts are by this act authorised to proceed for the making admeasurement of dower as aforesaid.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That after final sentence or decree hath been pronounced in any proceedings under this act, by the Surrogate-General, any person who may think himself or herself aggrieved by any proceedings, sentence or decree of the Surrogate-General, may within thirty days, appeal against such proceedings, sentence or decree, to the Court of Appeals and of Errors, before the Governor and Legislative Council of this State.

Appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the fees to be allowed, taxed, and taken by the Surrogates, Orphans' Courts and Surrogate-General and other officers, shall be the same as those allowed by law for similar services in other cases.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the charges of the commissioners for their services in making of the said admeasurement of dower, and the costs arising and accruing on any proceedings under this act, shall be taxed by the Surrogate or Clerk of the court in which the proceedings may be had, and paid in the first instance by the petitioner or petitioners. And the said costs and charges shall be divided and apportioned by the court, among the persons concerned, according to their respective interests in the lands and real estate, out of which the dower shall be so assigned. And in case any person or persons concerned, shall not, on demand, pay his, her or their proportion of such costs and charges, that then the petitioner or petitioners shall and may recover the same by the judgment and process of the court; or by an action of debt in any court having cognizance thereof. But in all cases of appeal, each party shall pay his, her or their own costs.

Costs, and manner of recovery.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That after dower shall be assigned to a widow by virtue of this act, nothing in the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall be considered as entitling her to remain in and to hold and enjoy the mansion-house of her husband, and the messuage or plantation thereto belonging, except such part thereof as may be assigned to her for dower without being liable to pay rent for the same.

When widow to pay rent.

A. Passed February 24, 1820.

A Supplement to an act, entitled "An act to regulate the practice of the Courts of Law."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the summons required by the eighteenth section of the act to which this is a supplement, to be served six entire days before the return day thereof, shall be valid and effectual in case the same shall be served two entire days on the defendant, before the said return day.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the time of twenty days, in which the plaintiff is required, by the fifty-first section of the act to which this is a supplement, to file his declaration, shall henceforth be, and the same hereby is extended to thirty days.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in case the party, plaintiff or defendant, shall not file his or her declaration, plea, or other pleading in the cause, by the time required by law, and shall think proper to file the same after the expiration of such time, the party, in such case, shall furnish the adverse party with notice in writing, of the time of filing such declaration, plea, or other pleading, and the said adverse party shall not be bound to take notice of the same until such notice shall be received.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That in cases where any declaration, plea, or other pleading, shall be filed after the time allowed by the act to which this is a supplement, no subsequent pleading shall in any case be required in a shorter time than thirty days from the time notice, as aforesaid, shall be given of the time of filing such declaration, plea, or other pleading.

Time of serving summons.

Filing declaration.

Cases in which notice of filing pleadings necessary.

Time of filing pleadings after notice.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That henceforth no judgment shall be entered in any of the courts of record in this State, on suits which shall be commenced by writs of scire facias, or execution issue on judgments attempted to be revived by scire facias, unless the sheriff or other officer to whom the writ of scire facias shall be directed, shall actually have served the same, either personally on the defendant, or by leaving a copy of the writ with some white person, of the age of fourteen years, at his or her usual place of abode, at least six entire days before its return, or as directed in the next section of this act.

Serving writs of scire facias.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That whenever a writ of scire facias shall issue, either to recover a forfeited recognizance, or to revive a judgment, and the defendant has removed out of the jurisdiction of the court issuing such process, or cannot be found by the sheriff or other officer to whom the writ shall be directed, it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff to proceed as though the said writ of scire facias had been duly served in the manner prescribed in the next preceding section of this act: Provided, the said plaintiff first cause the said writ to be published four successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in this State, as near the last residence of the defendant as can be conveniently ascertained, or cause a copy of the said writ to be served on the defendant wherever found, either in this State, or any other place, at least twelve days before the return thereof.

Proceedings in case defendant is out of the jurisdiction of the court.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That no writ of certiorari shall be allowed or issued, on any judgment, order or proceeding, that shall have been entered or obtained, in any court of record of this State, or that shall hereafter be entered or obtained, unless the same be issued in eighteen months after the entering or obtaining the same.

Time of allowing writs of certiorari.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That no writ of error, from any court of common law, shall be brought or allowed on any judgment that shall have been, or hereafter may be entered, or obtained, unless the same shall be had and done within three years after the judgment rendered: Provided, that in cases where the person, entitled to such writ of error, be an infant, feme covert, or insane, he or she shall have three years to bring such writ of error, after such disability shall be removed.

court, and when judgment has been or shall be rendered in any of the Inferior Courts of Common Pleas in this State, the said recognizance may be acknowledged before any one of the judges of the court wherein such judgment has or shall be rendered at his chambers, and said recognizance, when acknowledged, as aforesaid, and filed in said court, shall be as good and effectual in law as if the same had been acknowledged in the said Inferior Court of Common Pleas in open court.

Certain recognizances acknowledged before a justice of the Supreme Court.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the recognizance mentioned in the eighth section of the act, entitled "An act respecting writs of error," may be acknowledged before any one of the justices of the Supreme Court, at his chambers, in such reasonable sum as such justice shall think fit; and such recognizance, when acknowledged before one of the justices of the Supreme Court, as aforesaid, and filed in the said Supreme Court, shall be as good and effectual in law as if the same had been acknowledged in the Supreme Court before the justices thereof in open court.

Execution stayed by writ of error.

Conditions to be performed.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That when a writ of error shall be issued, pursuant to the laws of this State, directed to the justices of the Supreme Court, or the judges of any of the Inferior Courts of Common Pleas of this State, and presented to the court, such writ of error shall stay execution: Provided, the plaintiff in error shall, within fifteen days from the time the said writ of error shall be so presented, file in the court wherein the judgment shall be rendered, such recognizance of bail, duly taken as by law is or shall be required; but such recognizance shall not stay execution, as aforesaid, unless the same shall be presented in the term in which such judgment shall be rendered, or within fifteen days thereafter, to the Chief Justice in case the judgment shall be rendered in the Supreme Court, or to the presiding judge of the Common Pleas, in case the judgment shall be rendered in the Common Pleas, or in case there shall not be any presiding judge of the Common Pleas, then to one of the judges of the said Common Pleas in which the said judgment shall be rendered.

Notice of trial.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the notice of trial, mentioned in the sixty-fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall be twenty days exclusive of Sundays, when the action is in the Supreme Court of this State; and fifteen days exclusive of Sundays, when the action is in any of the courts of Common Pleas of this State.

Return of coroners.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That a return made by any one or more of the Coroners, of any county, of process for summoning of juries, shall be as effectual as if such return had been made and signed by all the Coroners of such county, any thing in the third section of the act, entitled "An act respecting Coroners," passed the eighth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled "An act respecting writs of scire facias," passed the fourteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and six, and the act, entitled "An act concerning writs of error, and writs of certiorari," passed the twenty-second day of February, eighteen hundred and eleven, and the act, entitled "An act respecting writs of scire facias," passed the twenty-eighth day of November, eighteen hundred and nine, and an act, entitled "A supplement to the act, entitled An act respecting writs of error," passed the tenth day of February, eighteen hundred and nineteen, and the eleventh section of the act, entitled "An act respecting writs of error," passed the first day of February, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided nevertheless, that such repeal shall not render ineffectual any thing lawfully done under them or either of them.

C. Passed February 28, 1820.

An act directing the mode of entering judgments upon bonds with warrants of attorney to confess judgments.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases where a bond or other obligation is given for the payment of money only, together with a warrant under hand and seal, directed to any attorney at law or other person, to appear in any court of record, to an action brought, or to be brought on such bond or obligation, against the person or persons executing the same, and to confess a judgment against him, her or them for the sum mentioned in such bond and warrant of attorney, with costs of suit, or to the like effect, it shall and may be lawful for the obligee or obligees, his, her or their executors, administrators or assigns, at any time after the day of payment mentioned in said bond or obligation, to apply to any of the justices of the Supreme Court, or to any one of the judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in any of the counties of this State, and on the production of such bond or obligation with the warrant of attorney, it shall be the duty of such justice or judge at the request of the person applying as aforesaid, at the end of a fair copy of such bond or obligation and warrant of attorney, made on a whole sheet of paper for that purpose, enter or cause to be entered an appearance for the obligor or obligors to an action of debt, as of the last precedent term of the court of which the said justice or judge is a member, and a confession and judgment against him, her or them for the sum mentioned in the said bond or obligation and warrant of attorney, signed by the said justice or judge in the following form, to wit:

Mode of entering judgments on warrants to confess, &c.

Supreme Court of New-Jersey, (or Inferior Court of Common Pleas, as the case may be) of the term of against

} In debt on bond, and warrant of attorney.

The defendant's appearance to this action is entered, and judgment confessed to the plaintiff for the sum mentioned in the above obligation, by virtue of the warrant of attorney thereunto annexed, and pursuant to the directions of an act, entitled "An act directing the mode of entering judgments on bonds with warrants of attorney, to confess judgments," whereupon it is considered that the said A B do recover against the said C D the sum of debt, and four dollars costs of suit, judgment signed this day of E. F.

Papers to be delivered to the clerk of the court.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the copy of the bond and warrant of attorney to confess judgment, with the entry of the judgment thereon, as before directed, signed by the justice or judge, shall be delivered by the plaintiff or person applying for such judgment to the clerk of the Supreme Court, in cases where the judgment is signed by a justice of the Supreme Court, or to the clerk of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas of the county where the judgment is entered, and of which the judge is a member, in cases where the judgment is signed by a judge of the Common Pleas, and the clerk shall immediately file the same in his office, marking thereon the time of filing the same, and shall enter the judgment in the minutes of the court, and all the proceedings on which such judgment shall be founded as aforesaid, and the judgment itself at large in the judgment-book of said court, and index the same as in other cases of judgment.

Such judgments to be valid.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all judgments entered as before directed, shall be as good and effectual in law to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as judgments entered by confession, in the manner heretofore practised, and no such judgment shall be reversed for error, or misprison of the clerk, in entering the same, or defect of form in the entry thereof, and execution shall issue thereon, as in cases of judgments entered by confession in the manner heretofore practised.

What judgments to be entered only as aforesaid.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That all judgments on bonds or obligations for the payment of money only, in virtue of a warrant of attorney to confess judgments thereon, shall be entered as in and by the first and second sections of this act is directed, and not otherwise.

Affidavit previous to entering judgment.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That no judgment shall be entered in any court of record of this State, on a bond or obligation and warrant of attorney, to confess judgment thereon, unless the plaintiff or his attorney shall produce at the time of confessing such judgment to the court, justice or judge, before whom such judgment shall be confessed, an affidavit of the plaintiff, his attorney or agent, stating therein the true consideration of the said bond or obligation, and that the debt for which judgment is confessed, is justly due and owing to the person or persons to whom the judgment is to be confessed, and that the said judgment is not confessed to answer any fraudulent purpose, or to protect the property of the defendant from his creditors, which affidavit shall be filed with the papers in the cause.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the affidavit required by this act, may be made before any justice of the Supreme Court, judge of any Inferior Court of Common Pleas, commissioner for taking affidavits, or justice of the peace in this State, or if the plaintiff be out of this State, before any court of judicature or notary-public of the State, kingdom or nation in which the said plaintiff resides or shall happen to be.

Before whom the affidavit
may be made.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the following and no other fees shall be allowed, viz. To the plaintiff for the copy of the bond or obligation, and warrant of attorney, entering the proceeding thereon, attending before the justice or judge to obtain the judgment and delivering the same with the affidavit to the clerk to be filed, two dollars; to the justice or judge for inspecting the bond and warrant, examining the copies and entering and signing judgment, fifty cents; to the clerk for marking and filing the proceedings and affidavit, and entering the judgment in the minutes of the court, fifty cents; and for entering the proceedings and judgment at large in the book of judgments, one dollar; and when execution shall issue on any judgment, the following additional fees shall be allowed, and no other, to wit: To the plaintiff for drawing the execution, twenty-five cents; to the clerk for sealing and recording the execution, and entering and filing the execution and return of the sheriff, seventy-five cents; which costs shall be endorsed on the execution without taxation, and collected with the debt, but to be paid by the plaintiff as the duty is performed; and further, that the sheriff shall be entitled to execution fees as in other cases.

Fees allowed.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That in case any clerk of the Supreme Court, or of any Inferior Court of Common Pleas, shall take other or greater fees for services done under this act than are by this act allowed, or shall take such fees without performing the services for which such fees are allowed, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of thirty dollars, to be sued for and recovered in an action of debt, with costs of suit, in any court having cognizance thereof, by any person who shall be aggrieved by the same.

Penalty on clerks for taking fees not allowed.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled "An act directing the mode of entering judgments upon bonds, with warrants to confess judgments," passed the ninth day of March, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, and two supplements thereto, one passed the twenty-second day of February, eighteen hundred and eleven, and the other the twenty-eighth day of February, eighteen hundred and four, and the act, entitled "An act to prevent the fraudulent confession of judgments," passed the twenty-ninth day of January, eighteen hundred and seventeen, be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, that all judgments and proceedings had, done, or entered under them or any of them shall be as good, effectual and available in law, and execution issue thereon, as though this act had not passed.

Acts repealed.

A. Passed February 24, 1820.

An act to incorporate the city of Jersey, in the county of Bergen.

Incorporated.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all that portion of the township of Bergen, in the county of Bergen, now owned by the Jersey associates, formerly called Powles-Hook, and which is constituted and surrounded by a certain ditch as the boundary line between the Jersey associates and the lands of Cornelius Van Vorst, deceased, on the west and north-west, and by the middle of the Hudson river and the bay surrounding all the other parts of the same; and the freeholders and other inhabitants thereof, and now and hereafter residing within the same, shall be, and from henceforth shall continue to be a corporation and body politic in name and in fact; and shall be known as such by the name and description of Jersey city, and by that name the said freeholders and other inhabitants shall have perpetual succession, and be capable of suing and being sued in all actions and suits at law and in equity as occasion may require.

Seal.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation or body politic hereby created, may have a common seal, which may be renewed or altered from time to time by the persons who shall conduct the affairs thereof, as after mentioned.

Board of Select-men, by whom chosen.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That for the conducting of the affairs of the said corporation, the freeholders and other taxable inhabitants shall annually choose, at an election to be held for that purpose, and by ballot, five freeholders, being inhabitants within the bounds of the said corporation, to conduct the affairs thereof, which election shall be annually held at some public and convenient places within the bounds of the said corporation, on the first Monday of September in every year, and until others are chosen; that the persons so to be chosen shall be denominated the board of Select-men of Jersey city, and shall enter upon the duties of their office on the Tuesday next succeeding their election, at which time they shall choose from amongst themselves, by a majority of votes, one person to be president, and some fit person to be their clerk, whose business it shall be to record their proceedings and to do such other acts as he shall be required to do by the board.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, and until the first Monday in September next, Doctor John Condit, Samuel Cassedy, Joseph Lyon, John K. Goodman and John Seaman, shall perform the duties required by this act, and until others are chosen in their stead; and if any person, chosen one of the said board, shall happen to die, resign or remove out of the bounds of the said corporation, within the period for which he shall be chosen, so that his seat is vacated, such vacancy shall be filled by some other freeholder, to be chosen by the remaining members of the board, until the next annual election shall be held.

The first board appointed.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the board of Select-men shall be, and are hereby empowered, by a majority of votes, to pass all such necessary ordinances as may be found requisite and convenient for the exercise of the powers hereby vested in said board, and to appoint the necessary officers, agents and servants to carry the same into effect, and to impose reasonable penalties for the breach or non-observance of the same: Provided such ordinances be not inconsistent or contrary to the constitution or legislative acts of this State, or of the United States, and all such penalties shall be sued for and recovered in any court having cognizance thereof, in the name of said board, and the members thereof, and all other corporations shall be competent witnesses in every such action or suit, and such penalties, when recovered, shall be kept an account of, and shall be applied by the said board to compensate their officers, agents or servants for their services, or any other public purpose, but not otherwise.

Powers of the board.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the powers to be exercised by the board of Select-men, and the subjects and matters respecting which they may pass and enforce ordinances, shall be the following, and those only; that is to say, relating to the commons or public grounds, streets, highways and alleys therein, and removing and preventing obstructions therein, and the enclosing or otherwise improving such commons or public grounds, relating to public markets within the corporation, relating to weights and measures, to the inspection and measurement of fire-wood, and the weight and prices of bread, and to prevent fixing any poles for fishing, or any obstructions whereby the lives of the inhabitants are endangered, or the navigation of the river obstructed; relating to the running at large, or restraining from so doing, horses, cattle, swine, or other beasts or fowl; relating to the lighting the streets, highways or alleys; relating to night-watch, fire-engines, engine houses, and the extinguishment of fires; and relative to whatever may concern the good government of the said corporation and the orderly conduct of the inhabitants and others within the same, so far as regards the public peace and tranquillity of the same.

Powers of the board confined to certain subjects.

Relates to imposing taxes.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall not impose any tax on the inhabitants thereof, for any purpose whatever, without the previous consent of a majority of the freeholders and taxable inhabitants who may attend and vote respecting the same, at a public meeting to be convened for that purpose, on reasonable notice being given or advertised by the board of Select-men.

Powers reserved.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That as this corporation is made and instituted from public policy, the power of altering and annulling the same is hereby reserved, and that nothing granted by this act shall interfere with any of the powers or rights granted to the Jersey associates.

A. Passed January 28, 1820.

An act concerning the Boards of Chosen Freeholders.

Money to be accounted for to the board of chosen freeholders.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all fines, penalties, forfeitures, or other monies, directed by any statute or law of this State, to be paid to the board of justices and chosen freeholders of the county, and all officers or other persons, directed by any statute or law of this State, to account with the said board of justices and chosen freeholders, such fines, penalties, forfeitures or other monies, shall be paid to, and the said officers or other persons, shall account with, and be amenable to, the board of chosen freeholders of the county.

Certain property vested in said board.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the goods, chattels, lands, tenements and hereditaments, which have been granted, conveyed or vested to, or in the board of justices and chosen freeholders of any county, or any person or persons, for the use of such county, shall be and are hereby transferred to and vested in the board of chosen freeholders of the said county, and shall be, remain and enure, to and for the use and benefit of such county, in the same manner, and according to such estate, title and interest, as the said board of justices and chosen freeholders, or other person or persons had therein.

In what case may adjourn.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in case a sufficient number of chosen freeholders of a county, to constitute a board, shall not attend at the time and place of the annual or other legal meeting of the board of chosen freeholders, it shall be lawful for the attending members to adjourn the meeting of the board to such time as they shall think proper.

May sell lands, &c.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the boards of chosen freeholders, in the several counties of this State, and their successors in office, shall have full power and authority to sell and convey any lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods and chattels, holden or hereafter to be holden, by them, for their respective counties, they appropriating the proceeds of such sale or conveyance to the legal use of such county.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That when the board of chosen freeholders of any county shall, at their annual meeting, refuse to go into the measure of building or purchasing a poor-house, according to the provisions of the act, entitled "An act to incorporate the chosen freeholders in the respective counties of this State," in case the said board shall be requested so to do by the chosen freeholders of any township or townships of said county, the said chosen freeholders being authorised by a vote of the town-meeting of the township or townships from which they shall be chosen, to make such request, the said refusal shall be entered on the minutes of the said board, whereupon such township or townships, so by their chosen freeholders making such request, may then proceed to build or purchase a poor-house, according to the directions of the act, entitled, "An act for the settlement and relief of the poor;" and every such township or townships, after they have built or purchased such poor-house, or have commenced building the same, shall not be liable to pay or contribute, in any manner whatsoever, towards building or purchasing any poor-house, that may afterwards be directed to be built or purchased, by the board of chosen freeholders of such county, nor to the support of the poor of the county, unless by and with the consent of a majority of the inhabitants of said township or townships, manifested by a public vote, at an annual town-meeting, nor unless the board of chosen freeholders shall pay to such township or townships, the full value of all the lands, buildings and improvements which may by them have been built, purchased or otherwise provided, for the purposes aforesaid, and in which case it shall be lawful for the overseers of the poor of such township or townships, under their hands and seals, to make a deed or deeds of conveyance, to the boards of chosen freeholders, for all such lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate, so paid for, as aforesaid: And further, that the provisions in this section contained, shall extend to and include every township that hath heretofore built or purchased a poor-house, with the lands on which the buildings and improvements shall have been erected.

Townships may build poor-houses in certain cases.

An act the better to promote the impartial administration of justice.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no justice or judge of any court of record in this State, who shall be related in the third degree to either of the parties, in any cause depending in such court, or be interested in the event of any such cause, or shall have been attorney on record, or counsel for either party, in any such cause, or shall have given his opinion upon the matter in question in any such cause, shall sit in judgment upon the trial or argument of any point in controversy in any such cause; and that the degrees of kindred, in such case, shall be calculated according to the common law manner of computation: Provided nevertheless, that any matter or thing herein contained, shall not be construed to prevent any justice or judge from sitting on the trial or argument of any point in controversy in such cause, merely because he may have given his opinion in any other cause, where the same matter in controversy shall have come in question, nor from his having given his opinion on any question in controversy in the same cause, in the course of the previous proceedings therein.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That no justice or judge of any court of record in this State, who shall be related in the third degree, as aforesaid, to either of the parties, in any cause depending in such court, or shall be interested in the event of any such cause, or shall have given his opinion in either of the said relations upon the matter in question, in said cause, shall nominate or strike the jury in any such cause.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all challenges to a justice or judge, for the causes aforesaid, shall be made previous to the trial or argument, and the court may try such challenges, or appoint three indifferent persons triors for that purpose, at the discretion of the court, and that the finding of a majority of such triors shall be received as the determination of such triors.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That no judge of any Court of Common Pleas in this State, shall act as clerk of the court of which he is a judge, nor as attorney at law, or counsellor in any

C. Passed February 24, 1829.

An act concerning Idiots and Lunatics.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all cases of idiocy and lunacy shall be determined by an inquest on a commission of idiocy or lunacy, issued out of the Court of Chancery, and returnable thereto, and the proceedings thereon shall be as heretofore practised, and in cases of idiocy or lunacy found, the Chancellor shall cause to be transmitted to the Orphans' Court of the county where such idiot or lunatic may reside, a certified copy of all proceedings which may be had thereon, which shall be recorded and filed in the Surrogate's office of said county, and the said Orphans' Court is hereby directed and required, on further application for that purpose, to appoint some fit and discreet person or persons, guardian or guardians of such idiot or lunatic, who shall have the care and safe keeping of said idiot or lunatic, his or her lands, tenements, goods and chattels, that the said idiot or lunatic may live and be competently supported and maintained by and out of his or her goods, chattels and the profits of his or her lands and tenements, and that no waste or destruction of his or her lands or tenements be done or permitted, and such lands shall in no wise be aliened, saving that the same be done by authority of this or some other statute of this State; but shall, upon the death of any such idiot, descend and go to his or her heirs, and the residue of the goods, chattels and profits of said idiot, after payment of his or her just debts, shall go to, and be distributed according to law, among his or her next of kin; and in case any such lunatic shall come to his or her right mind, that the lands and tenements, with the residue of the goods, chattels and profits of such lunatic, be restored to him or her, and in case he or she shall die in his or her lunacy, such lands and tenements shall descend and go to his or her heirs, and the residue of the goods, chattels and profits, after payment of his or her just debts, shall go to, and be distributed according to law, among such lunatic's next of kin.

Guardian appointed, and duty.

Payment of debts.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any such idiot, or lunatic, is justly indebted to any person or persons, beyond his or her ability to pay the same out of his or her personal estate, or in case the personal estate of such idiot or lunatic, together with the profits of his or her lands and tenements, shall be insufficient for his or her support and comfortable maintenance, and that of his or her household, if any he or she shall have, it shall and may be lawful for the Orphans' Court of the county in which the lands and tenements of any such idiot or lunatic shall be situate, on full investigation of the situation and circumstances of the said idiot or lunatic's real and personal estate, and of the just debts, owing by him or her, from time to time, to order the guardian of such idiot or lunatic to sell such parts of the said idiot or lunatic's lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate, as the said court shall direct and judge sufficient to pay his or her just debts, and proper and necessary for his or her support and maintenance, and for the support of his or her household, if any he or she have.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the lands, tenements and real estate of such idiot or lunatic so ordered to be sold, shall be advertised one month in a newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood where such lands are situate, and in five of the most public places in the county, for the space of two months previous to the time appointed for the sale thereof, by the guardian or guardians of such idiot or lunatic, who shall at the time and place so advertised, sell the same at public vendue to the highest bidder, and make report in writing of all proceedings thereon, to the next Orphans' Court, after such sale: Provided always, that the said guardian or guardians, may adjourn the same from time to time at their discretion.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said guardian or guardians shall make a deed to the purchaser or purchasers, for the lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate so sold, which deed shall set forth the said order at large, and shall vest in the purchaser or purchasers, as good and perfect an estate in the premises so sold, as the said idiot or lunatic shall be seized of, or entitled to, at the time of making said order by the court.

Guardian to enter into bond, &c.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That every person appointed guardian as aforesaid, shall before he enters upon the duties of his appointment, enter into bond to the Governor of this State, and his successors in office, with two or more sureties, being freeholders approved of by the Orphans' Court, in such sum as said court shall order and direct, conditioned that the said guardian shall well and truly take care of the person and estate of said idiot or lunatic, and of all writings and evidences touching his or her lands, and render the same to such person or persons, as by law, are or may be entitled to receive the same, and render a just and true account of the rents, issues and profits of the real estate of the said idiot or lunatic, and if any part should be ordered to be sold, that he or she will render a just and true account of the money arising on the sale thereof, and in the mean time improve the said lands and tenements, to the best advantage, and that he or she commit no waste or destruction thereof or thereon, and also that he or she will render a true account of the expenditures, and disbursements of the goods, chattels and personal estate of said idiot or lunatic, that shall come to his or her hands.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the Orphans' Court, when they shall know, or have cause to suspect that the sureties of a guardian of any idiot or lunatic, or any of them, are or is failing, or in dubious circumstances, may require said guardian to give additional surety or sureties, and if he or she refuse or neglect so to do, may displace him or her, and on application appoint another person, guardian to said idiot or lunatic.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of every guardian of any idiot or lunatic, once in three years, and oftener in case the Orphans' Court shall so order and direct, to render to the Orphans' Court, from whom he or she received his or her appointment as guardian, a true account of his or her administration of the estate of the said idiot or lunatic, and he or she may be cited by the said court to do the same, on the application of any one of the heirs or next of kin to the said idiot or lunatic, and on the death of any such idiot or lunatic, or the coming of sane mind of any lunatic, the guardian of such idiot or lunatic may be compelled to render an account of his or her administration of the estate of such idiot or lunatic, to the Orphans' Court in the same manner as executors and administrators are compelled by law to render an account of the administration of the estate of testators and intestates, and in case of the death of any idiot or lunatic, when the lands, tenements, hereditaments, or real estate, or any part thereof, hath been sold by order of the Orphans' Court, and at his or her death, personal estate shall remain in the hands of the guardian more than sufficient to pay the just debts of such idiot or lunatic, so much thereof as shall be equal in value to the real estate so sold, shall be deemed and taken to be real estate, and go to the heirs of the deceased, the personal estate and the rents, issues and profits of the real estate, being the fund first to be applied to the support and maintenance of the idiot or lunatic.

account.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That no idiot or lunatic, during the time of his or her lunacy, shall be, or stand committed, or detained in prison for want of bail, or his or her body taken in execution, in any civil action or in any action for a penalty, and in case any idiot or lunatic shall be arrested and detained in custody, in any civil suit, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, he or she shall be discharged on motion by the court out of which the process issued, on which he or she is so held in custody, or upon a writ of habeas corpus issuing out of the Court of Chancery or the Supreme Court, and allowed by the Chan-

A Supplement to the act respecting the Court of Chancery.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That hereafter, the Court of Chancery shall hold annually at Trenton, four stated terms, commencing the third Tuesday in January, the first Tuesday in April, the second Tuesday in July, and the second Tuesday in October, and such special terms, at the same or any other place as the Chancellor shall from time to time appoint.

Terms.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in case of a bill filed against any defendant or defendants, against whom a subpoena or other process to appear shall issue, and such defendant or defendants shall not cause his, her or their appearance to be entered in such suit as according to the rules of said court the same ought to be entered, in case such process had been duly served, and it shall be made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, that such defendant or defendants is or are out of the State, or cannot upon due inquiry be found therein, or that he or she conceals himself, herself or themselves within this State, every such defendant shall be deemed and taken to be an absent defendant, and thereupon the Chancellor may by order, direct such absent defendant to appear, plead, answer or demur, to the complainant's bill, at a certain day therein to be named, not less than two, nor more than six months, from the date of such order, which order shall within twenty days thereafter, be served personally on such defendant or defendants by a delivery of a copy thereof to him, her or them, or be published in one or more of the public newspapers printed in this State, and designated in such order for six weeks successively, at least once in every week, and which said order shall also be published or served in any other manner that the Chancellor may see proper in the same to direct: and in case such absent defendant shall not appear, plead, answer or demur, within the time so limited, or within some further time to be allowed by the Chancellor if he shall think proper; and on proof of personal service or of the publication of said order or orders as aforesaid, and of the performance of the directions contained in said order or orders, to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, the Chancellor may order and direct that the complainant's bill be taken as confessed against such absent defendant so failing to plead, answer or demur, or the Chancellor may at his discretion, order the complainant or complainants to produce documents, depositions, exhibits or other evidence to substantiate and prove the allegations in the bill, or the Chancellor may examine the complainant or complainants on oath or affirmation, touching or concerning the allegations in the bill, and thereupon such decree shall be made in either case, as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.

ants, at the time of the decree, and to compel the said complainant or complainants to refund and repay what he, she or they may have wrongfully recovered and received, together with the interest from the time of the receipt thereof, with costs of suit, the former decree against such absent defendant or defendants notwithstanding; but in case no petition shall be presented or bill filed as before provided for, within six months from the time notice as aforesaid shall be given, due proof thereof being made, or within three years from the date of the decree; the decree shall be deemed and adjudged to be confirmed; which confirmation shall have relation to the time of making said decree; and further, that the decree be executed and performed as in cases where the defendant or defendants had duly appeared.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Chancellor to cause any moneys brought into court, to be deposited by the clerk of said court, in his name as clerk of said court, in one of the banks of this State to the credit of the cause to which it belongs, or to be invested in any public stock of the United States, and the monies so deposited, or public stock in which it shall be so invested, shall be from time to time accounted for, invested, transferred or re-invested, or otherwise disposed of, as the court shall deem reasonable and proper, and on the resignation, death or removal of the clerk of the said Court of Chancery, all monies deposited in either of the said banks by the said clerk, shall be carried to the account of his successor in office, and the said bank shall take notice thereof, and transfer such accounts accordingly, and the Chancellor may from time to time make such rules and regulations, respecting such deposits and investments as to him shall appear just and right, and for the interest of all persons and parties concerned therein.

brought into court.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That an injunction shall not issue to stay proceedings at law in any personal action after a verdict or a judgment, unless a sum of money, equal to the amount for which the verdict or judgment is given with costs, shall be first deposited with the clerk of the court, by the applicant for such injunction, if such applicant shall be a defendant in the said proceedings at law: and that no injunction shall issue to stay proceedings at law in any mixed action after a verdict or judgment, unless the applicant shall first deposit with the said clerk such a sum of money as the chancellor shall direct.

Injunction.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the complainant having obtained a decree, it shall be lawful for the said court to issue process for the immediate sequestration of the real and personal estate of the defendant, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the demand of the complainant in the decree specified, with costs, or to issue a writ of fieri facias against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, hereditaments and real estate of the defendant, upon which sufficient property shall be taken and sold to satisfy the said demand, with costs, or to issue a capias ad sa-decree.

tisfaciendum against the defendant, upon which writs of fieri facias and capias ad satisfaciendum there shall be the same proceedings as at law: or to cause by injunction the possession of the effects and estate demanded by the bill, and whereof the possession or a sale is decreed to be delivered to the complainant or otherwise, according to such decree and as the nature of the case may require; and in case of sequestration, the court shall order payment and satisfaction to be made, out of the estate so sequestered, according to the true intent and meaning of the decree.

Sale of mortgaged premises.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That where a bill shall be filed for the foreclosure or satisfaction of any mortgage, it shall be lawful for the said court to decree a sale of the mortgaged premises, or such part thereof as shall be sufficient to discharge the said mortgage or incumbrances on the said mortgaged premises besides costs, which sale shall be made either by one of the masters of the court or by the sheriff of the county where the premises are situated, by virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued for that purpose, which said writ of fieri facias shall, before it is sued forth, be recorded by the clerk of the said court in the book kept by him for recording of executions against real estate.

Proceeding on writs of fieri facias.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the sheriff or other officer to whom such writ of fieri facias, as mentioned in the last preceding section shall be directed and delivered, shall give notice by advertisements of the time and place of sale, and proceed in all other respects in the same manner as in case of a writ of fieri facias issued out of the Supreme Court against real estate, and shall make and execute a deed or deeds for the premises sold, as the case may require; and the moneys arising from the said sale shall be applied to pay off and discharge the moneys decreed to be paid, and the remainder (if any there be) and the person or persons entitled to receive it, shall be absent out of this State, may be invested in stock of the United States, or put at interest on such security as the said court shall think proper to order, and the same shall be delivered or paid to the person or persons entitled to receive it, upon his or her application to the court for the same: Provided always, that no greater estate in the premises sold shall at any time be conveyed or granted to such purchaser, than would have vested in the mortgagee, had the equity of redemption been duly foreclosed.

Sale may be stayed.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That in all cases of a decree for sale of mortgaged premises against any absent defendant, if such defendant shall at any time before the sale made by the sheriff, in pursuance of any writ of execution issued as aforesaid, cause his appearance to be entered in such court, and shall pay such costs to the complainant or complainants, as the said court shall think reasonable, that then it shall and may be lawful for the said court, by a writ of supersedeas directed to the sheriff or other officer, to stay his proceedings to the sale of such mortgaged premises, and thereupon such proceedings shall and may be had, as if an appearance had been entered within such time and in such manner as, according to the rules of the court, the same ought to have been entered, in case the first process in the suit had been duly served.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That when a decree of the Court of Chancery shall be made for the sale of mortgaged premises (in cases where the whole sum secured by the mortgage is not due) either for the non-payment of any portion or instalment of the debt, or demand intended to be secured by the mortgage, or the non-payment of interest due, or both, and it shall appear to the court that a part of the mortgaged premises cannot be sold to satisfy the amount due without material injury to the remaining part of the mortgaged premises, and that it is just and reasonable that the whole of the mortgaged premises should be sold together, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to decree a sale to be made of the whole of the mortgaged premises, and to apply the proceeds of the sale of said premises, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, as well to the payment of the interest, instalments or portions then due, and also the costs then due and payable, as to the payment of the whole or residue of the debt or demand which hath not become due and payable, and the residue of the proceeds of such sale, to be paid to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, or to be brought into court to abide the further order of the court, as the equity and circumstances of the case require: Provided always, that when the residue of the debt or demand intended to be secured by the said mortgage, is payable at a future day without interest, and the mortgagee or mortgagees is or are willing to receive the same, the court shall deduct a rebate of legal interest, for what the mortgagee or mortgagees shall receive on the said debt or demand, to be computed from the time of the actual payment thereof to the time such residue of the debt or demand would have become due and payable.

Cases in which the whole of the mortgaged premises may be sold.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That if the sheriff or other officer shall neglect or refuse to execute any writ of fieri facias to him directed or delivered, for the space of two months, or shall adjourn the sale or vendue of the lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate, by him levied upon by virtue of such writ of fieri facias, more than twice, and exceeding one month for each adjournment, he shall be, and hereby is made liable to the amount of the debt or damages and costs, or sum or sums of money mentioned in the said writ with interest, and for the recovery thereof may be amerced and proceeded against in the manner prescribed in and by the fiftieth section of the act to which this is a supplement: Provided always, that if the said sheriff or other officer, shall, at any time before the entry of such amercement against him as aforesaid, sell the property levied upon, and bring the whole amount of the product of such sale (after deducting his lawful fees) into court, the said sheriff or other officer shall be exonerated from all liability on account of said amercement.

Liability of sheriff in case of neglect, &c

Appeal allowed.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That all persons aggrieved by any order or decree of the Court of Chancery, may appeal from the same or any part thereof, to the Court of Appeals and Errors, before the Governor and Legislative Council of this State: and all appeals from the said Court of Chancery, except from final decrees, shall be made within thirty days after making the order or decree appealed from: and all appeals from final decrees in the said court, shall be made within three years after making such decree: Provided, that in cases where the person entitled to such appeal from any final decree, be an infant, feme covert, or insane, he or she shall have three years to bring such appeal, after such disability shall be removed.

Acts repealed.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That the first, ninth, sixteenth, thirty-fifth, forty-fourth, forty-eighth and fifty-ninth sections of the act to which this is a supplement; and the acts, entitled "A supplement (and a further supplement) to the act entitled an act respecting the Court of Chancery," passed the third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and one, and the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen: and the act passed the twelfth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, entitled "An act for making process effectual against mortgagors who abscond or who refuse to appear," be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall render ineffectual, or in any way invalidate any proceeding had or done under them or any of them.

C. Passed February 29, 1820.

A Supplement to the act, entitled "An act to establish and confirm the charter-rights and privileges of the borough of Elizabeth."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from any judgment which may be obtained before any justice of the peace of the borough of Elizabeth, except such as shall have been given on a verdict, or on report of referees, or by default, or in the absence or by confession of the defendant, or on a debt, balance or other matter in dispute, not exceeding three dollars, either party may appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of the borough of Elizabeth aforesaid, to be holden next after the rendering of such judgment, which appeal the said justice is hereby directed to grant on the following and no other terms; that is to say, the party demanding such appeal shall enter into bond to the other party with at least one sufficient surety, being a freeholder in the said borough, and in double the sum for which such judgment was given, conditioned that the appellant shall appear and prosecute the said appeal in the said Court of Common Pleas of the borough of Elizabeth, shall stand to and abide the judgment of the said court and pay such further costs as shall be taxed, if the judgment be affirmed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Court of Common Pleas, of the borough of Elizabeth, shall have cognizance of and hear and determine all such appeals in a summary way, and give judgment and award execution thereon with costs, either on the affirmance or reversal of the judgment so appealed from, but the same and no other documents, proofs and witnesses shall be produced and examined in the said Court of Appeals, as had been previously produced and examined in the said court below, except where the justice shall have admitted illegal or rejected legal evidence, and then such Court of Common Pleas, on the hearing of the said appeal, shall reject such illegal evidence so admitted, or admit such legal evidence so rejected by the said justice.

By what court tried.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That no justice of the peace of the said borough who heard and determined the said cause, shall set as a judge of the said Court of Common Pleas of the said borough on the hearing and determining of the same cause on appeal, or give any opinion thereon.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the justice of the said borough, who grants an appeal as aforesaid, shall send a transcript of the proceedings and judgment in the said cause, under his hand and seal, together with the bond aforesaid, to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of the said borough to which such appeal is made, on or before the first day of the court next ensuing such appeal.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That when any justice of the peace, of the said borough of Elizabeth, shall issue process by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement, the constables of the said borough shall be the ministerial officers of such justice, and it shall be the duty of the said constables to execute, within the said borough, all precepts, summons, warrants, writs and other process issued by the justices of the peace of the said borough, and to them or any of them directed and delivered, and make return thereof, as by the said act, to which this is a supplement, shall be required.

Who shall serve process.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That when any justice of the peace of the borough of Elizabeth, shall issue execution by virtue of the act constituting courts for the trial of small causes, passed the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, he shall command the constable, for want of sufficient goods and chattels whereon to levy and make the debt or damage and costs, to take the body of the party in execution and convey him to the jail of the said borough.

A. Passed March 2, 1820.

A further Supplement to the act, entitled "An act to preserve and support the jurisdiction of this State."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That every plaintiff in any proceeding, judgment or decree which shall be had, passed or rendered, in pursuance of any process served or executed within the State of New-Jersey, contrary to the provisions of the act, entitled "An act to preserve and support the jurisdiction of this State," passed December third, one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be liable to all damages, expenses and charges, to be recovered with triple costs in an action of trespass, or trespass upon the case, to be brought by the parties aggrieved or injured, in the Supreme Court or any other court of this State, having cognizance thereof, or by writ of attachment in case the plaintiff in any such proceeding, judgment or decree shall not be resident in this State.

Plaintiff, in certain cases, liable to all damages, &c.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in case any person or persons shall, under color of any law of the State of New-York, seize or take into possession any boat or vessel whatever, moved by steam or fire, belonging or to belong in part or in whole to a citizen or citizens of New-Jersey for being employed or used in navigating any of the waters between the ancient shores of the states of New-Jersey and New-York, without a license first had and obtained of the person or persons entitled to, or claiming to be entitled to an exclusive right or privilege to navigate the waters of the State of New-York, (under a law of that State) with boats or vessels moved by steam or fire, the person or persons so seizing or taking possession of any such boat or vessel as aforesaid, belonging or to belong, in part or in whole, to a citizen or citizens of the State of New-Jersey, as aforesaid, shall be liable to the person or persons aggrieved or injured thereby, for all damages, expenses and charges sustained by occasion thereof, to be recovered with triple costs, in an action of trespass, or trespass upon the case, to be brought in the Supreme Court or any other court having cognizance of the same, or by a writ of attachment in case the person or persons making such seizure or taking possession as aforesaid, under or by virtue of a law of the State of New-York, shall not be resident in this State.

Vessels seized under colour of a law of New-York, damages to be recovered.

Citizens of New-Jersey enjoined, &c.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any citizen of the State of New-Jersey, shall hereafter be enjoined or restrained by any writ of injunction or order of the Court of Chancery of the State of New-York, by virtue or under color of any act of the Legislature of that State, from navigating with any boat or vessel moved by steam or fire, belonging or to belong, in part or in whole to him, the waters between the ancient shores of the states of New-Jersey and New-York, the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such writ or order, shall be liable to the person or persons aggrieved, for all damages, expenses and charges occasioned thereby, to be recovered with triple costs, in an action of trespass or trespass upon the case, in any court having cognizance thereof, or by a writ of attachment in case the plaintiff or plaintiffs in any such writ or order of the Court of Chancery of the State of New-York, shall not be resident in the State of New-Jersey.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Chancery of the State of New-Jersey, on a bill of complaint, filed by any citizen or inhabitant of this State, for that purpose, to enjoin or restrain, by a writ of injunction, the plaintiff or plaintiffs in any such writ or order of the Court of Chancery of the State of New-York, or any person or persons claiming a right derived from or under such plaintiff or plaintiffs to navigate any of the said waters; from navigating with any boat or vessel moved by steam or fire, the waters within the jurisdiction of this State, and from bringing or transporting any passenger or passengers to and from the city of New-York, or from Staten-Island into the State of New-Jersey, whether such transportation be effected directly or circuitously, or by means of one or more boats of any description, or by shifting from one boat to another, at any intermediate point between the city of New-York and Staten-Island and the shores of New-Jersey: Provided said passenger or passengers shall be conveyed part of the way from New-York, in any boat propelled by steam or fire, that then and in such case, it shall be the duty of the Chancellor to enjoin and restrain all and every person or persons whatsoever, from aiding or assisting in any such transportation of passengers during the continuance in force of any such writ or order of the Court of Chancery of the State of New-York.

Authority given to the court of chancery to restrain by injunction in certain cases.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That in case the party aggrieved, shall proceed by virtue of this act by writ of attachment, the proceedings shall be in like manner, as near as may be, as is directed by the act, entitled "An act for the relief of creditors against absconding and absent debtors," passed the eighth of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, against an absconding debtor, excepting that instead of the oath or affirmation required by the said act; the applicant for such writ of attachment shall, before the sealing thereof, make oath or affirmation, which shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court out of which the attachment shall be issued, before any judge or justice of the peace in this State; that the person or persons, against whose estate the attachment is to be issued, is not to his knowledge or belief, resident at that time in this State, and of the nature of the injury sustained.

Proceedings by writ of attachment.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor or person administering the government of this State, to cause to be enforced and effectuated, the just rights of the State, according to all the provisions contained in the act entitled "An act to preserve and support the jurisdiction of this State," passed December third, one thousand eight hundred and seven; to bring to a determination the jurisdictional rights of the State of New-Jersey, in and over all the territory and waters lying between the State of New-Jersey and the State of New-York: and for the more speedy determination of the same, to cause to be prosecuted or defended, any suit or suits, which may now, or hereafter shall exist, in which either or both of the questions, as to the rights of this State may arise: Provided, The party in such suit or suits, who may be interested in maintaining the rights of the State, agree thereto.

Governor may call to his assistance for advice, &c.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this State, to call to his assistance for advice and consultation, in any of the proceedings on this or other acts in force, on the subject aforesaid, the Attorney General, or a Privy Council, or both, at the expense of this State; and he or they, or any of them, together with him, are hereby authorised and empowered, to do all things concerning the same, which in their discretion may by him, or with any of them, be deemed to be, to the best interest of this State, to bring to a determination or final adjustment, all differences between the two states; by the appointment of commissioners, defending or prosecuting of suit or suits, or otherwise; and any report of commissioners appointed, shall become binding on this State, and the State of New-York, when confirmed by the respective Legislatures thereof: Provided always, that nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to have any operation against any patent right or privilege obtained under the constitution or laws of the United States: And provided also, that this act shall go into operation from and after the first day of April next.

in the form hereinafter mentioned, and when so executed and approved of, shall, together with the oath or affirmation of office duly taken and subscribed, be recorded in the Secretary's office, and filed in the same; to be by the Secretary of State, kept among the public papers of his office, and in case any person appointed clerk as aforesaid, before he shall enter into the security aforesaid, shall perform any of the duties required of him by law, in said office, he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay, for the use of this State, one hundred dollars, to be sued for and recovered by any one of the judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the offence shall be committed, in an action of debt, with costs of suit, in the name of this State.

Penalty for acting before bond given.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the bond to be entered into as aforesaid, by the said clerks and their sureties, with the condition thereof, shall be in the form following, that is to say:

Form of bond.

Know all men by these presents, that we A. B., C. D., and E. F., of the county of _____ are held and firmly bound, unto the State of New-Jersey, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be paid unto the State of New-Jersey, to which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals dated the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and _____

The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bounden A. B. shall well and truly execute the office of clerk of the Court of Common Pleas and General Quarter Sessions for the county of _____ and in all things touching and concerning said office, shall well and truly, faithfully and impartially, execute and perform the same according to law, as well with respect to all persons concerned as the State of New-Jersey, and at the expiration of his said office, shall deliver to his successor in office, all the books, papers, records and writings remaining in the same or appertaining thereto, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the clerks of the Courts of Common Pleas and General Quarter Sessions, in the several counties of this State, shall and they are hereby required, to enter of record in a book to be kept by them for that purpose, all bonds given to the State of New-Jersey by the sheriffs of their respective counties, who shall be hereafter elected, for the fulfilment of their respective duties, as required by the act passed the eighteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, entitled "An act concerning sheriffs."

Duty of clerks as to sheriff's bonds.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the record aforesaid of such bond, and a transcript of such record, certified to be a true transcript, by the said clerk in whose office the said record is kept, shall be received in evidence in any court of this State, and be as good, effectual and available in law as if the original bond were then and there produced and proved; and further, that the said

The record evidence, &c.

clerk, for recording each bond, shall receive thirty cents, and no more, to be paid by the sheriff giving the same.

Clerks upon the expiration of their office, to deliver up books, &c.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said clerks upon the expiration of their office, shall, in the presence of one of the judges of the Court of Common Pleas of which they were clerks, respectively deliver to their successor in office, the books, papers, records, writings and every document appertaining to said office, and it shall be the duty of the said judge to certify under his hand and seal such delivery, which certificate, together with the receipt from the successor in office, shall be transmitted by said clerk to the Secretary of State to be by him filed in his office, and in case such clerk shall die during his continuance in said office, it shall be the duty of his executors or administrators to deliver over, in like manner, to the successor in said office, all the books, papers, records, writings and every document appertaining to said office, and transmit, in like manner, the certificate of the judge, and the receipt of the successor to the Secretary of State, to be by him filed in his office.

Clerks not to be surrogates.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That no person shall hereafter hold the office of clerk of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in any of the counties of this State, and the office of Surrogate at the same time; and in case any clerk of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in any of the counties of this State, shall hereafter be appointed to, or hold the office of Surrogate, the said appointment and office of Surrogate shall be deemed to be, and is hereby declared void.

Clerk not to practice as attorney at law in the county of which he is clerk.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the clerks of the Courts of Common Pleas and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, hereafter to be appointed, shall not be allowed to practice or act as attorneys at law, in any of the counties of this State, in which they may be so appointed; and if any clerk shall practice or act contrary to the prohibition aforesaid, for each offence he shall be liable to the penalty of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt by any person who shall prosecute for the same, in any court where the same may be cognizable, with costs of suit, and shall also be liable to be removed from office by impeachment.

Acts repealed.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the fifteenth section of the act, entitled "An act respecting conveyances" passed the seventh day of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and "An act to prohibit clerks of the Courts of Common Pleas and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace from practising as attorneys at law in the counties of which they are clerks," passed the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and four, and an act, entitled "An act respecting the clerks of the Courts of Common Pleas and General Quarter Sessions, also to provide for recording the warrant of attorney, pleadings, proceedings and judgment, in the county of Hunterdon," passed the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and six; and the supplement thereto, passed the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and six; and the act, entitled "An act to insure the faithful and impartial execution of office," passed the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, that all acts done, and bonds taken and recorded under them or any of them, shall be as valid and available in law, as though this act had not been passed.

C. Passed March 2, 1820.

A Supplement to an act, entitled "An act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt," passed the eighteenth March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and to an act, entitled "An act to repeal the several insolvent laws passed since the eighteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five," and to revive the act, entitled "An act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That any person who may be arrested in any civil action or mesne process, or process of execution, and who intends to apply to the judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which such process is served, for the benefit of the acts to which this is a supplement, shall be discharged from arrest: Provided, such person shall give an inventory under oath or affirmation of all his personal estate, and a bond to the sheriff, constable or other officer having him in custody, with sufficient sureties, being freeholders and residents in the county, in double the sum for which he is arrested or taken in execution, with a condition that he will appear at the next Court of Common Pleas, to be holden in the county, and apply to the said court for the benefit of said acts, and will, in all things proceed on such application as is required and directed in the case of persons actually in jail at the time of application, and that he will appear in person at every subsequent court, or time and place to which his application may be adjourned, until he shall be duly discharged under the said act, and if refused a discharge, surrender himself immediately thereafter to the sheriff or keeper of the jail of said county, there to remain until discharged by due course of law, and with this further condition, that in the mean time, and until such discharge, he will not depart out of the county; and in case of a forfeiture of said bond, by breach of any condition therein, the sheriff, constable or other officer, at the request of the plaintiff or his attorney, shall assign such bond to the plaintiff, his executors or administrators, who may bring an action thereon, in his or their own name or names.

Conveyance of debtor's property after arrest, void as to creditors.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That any conveyance, deed, mortgage, judgment, sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition, made, given or executed by the said debtor, of, for or upon any of his estate, real or personal, to any person after the said arrest, shall, as against his creditors, or any assignee or assignees to be appointed by the said court under the fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement, be void and of no effect, and such assignee or assignees may recover the said estate, real or personal, or the value thereof, in their own name or names, for the use of said creditors, in any proper action, to be instituted therefor against any person who may have purchased or in any manner come to the possession thereof after the giving of said bond, with costs of suit.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That any person arrested as aforesaid, and having given such bond, shall be entitled to make application for his discharge, under the acts to which this is a supplement, as fully as if at the time of such application he was actually confined in the jail of said county.

What return to be made by the officer.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That where the sheriff, constable or other officer, upon any mesne process has discharged the defendant on giving bond as aforesaid, he shall so return on the process to the court, and the plaintiff may thereupon proceed to judgment and execution as in other cases where the defendant is returned in custody, and where the sheriff or other officer hath discharged any defendant on process of execution against the body as aforesaid, he shall so return to the court out of which the same issued, which shall exonerate him from any liability for escape or for not conveying the body to the jail of the said county; and the bond with the inventory taken by such officer shall within fifteen days thereafter, be filed in the clerk's office of the Court of Common Pleas of the county where the process is served, there to remain for the use of the plaintiff, if the same be forfeited; and all acts or parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed: Provided, that this act shall not go into operation until from and after the fourth day of July next ensuing.

Proviso.

Fees allowed.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the officer taking such bond and inventory, shall be entitled for taking the same, to fifty cents, and for transmitting the same to the court, fifty cents, to be paid by the party arrested, and that the clerk be entitled to ten cents for filing said bond, to be paid by the party arrested.

A. Passed March 3, 1820.

An act concerning Wrecks.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Courts of Common Pleas, in the several counties of this State, bordering on the sea, bays and sounds, and they are hereby required, each and every year hereafter, and oftener if necessary, to appoint one or more discreet and fit person or persons, not a judge of the court, so making the said appointment, commissioner or commissioners of wrecks, in their respective counties, who shall hold such appointment not less than one year, nor more than five years, at the discretion of said courts, and shall severally enter into bond to the State of New-Jersey, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved of by said court, in any sum not less than five thousand dollars, nor more than twenty thousand dollars, for the faithful discharge of the duties of their said office : which bond shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of this State; and it shall be the duty of the clerks of said courts, respectively, to make out a certificate under the seal of said court, for each of the persons so appointed, of his appointment, and deliver the same to him: Provided, that when any commissioner is appointed as aforesaid, for more than one year, and not exceeding five years, it shall not be necessary to renew his appointment or bond, until the time therein expressed shall have expired.

Appointment of commissioners.

Provida.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Courts of Common Pleas shall have authority, from time to time, to lay off and alter at the discretion of the said courts, two or more districts on the sea, bays, sounds and rivers, adjoining their respective counties, and in such cases, to appoint a commissioner in each and every district, who shall have the sole authority of commissioner of wrecks, in the district to which he shall be appointed, and give bond to the State as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed as aforesaid, on application to them made, by or in behalf of any owner, supercargo, master, or other person, having charge of any ship, or other vessel, or cargo, being stranded, or in danger of being stranded, or in distress, on or near the shores of their respective counties or districts, to call to his assistance and employ, as many men as shall be agreed on between the said commissioner and the said owner, supercargo, master, or other person having charge of said vessel or cargo, to be useful and necessary to assist in preserving the said vessel or cargo, which men so employed, shall be under the direction of the master, owner, supercargo, consignee, insurer or agent, having the lawful care of said vessel and cargo, and the said commissioner and all others, who shall, at the request, or with the approbation of the master, owner, supercargo, consignee, insurer or agent, having the lawful care and charge of any vessel, stranded or in distress, assist in preserving such vessel or cargo, shall be paid a reasonable compensation for their labour and trouble, in and about the same, and in default thereof, the ship, vessel and goods shall remain in custody of the commissioner, until all reasonable charges shall be paid, or security given for that purpose, to the satisfaction of the parties: and in case the parties shall disagree, touching the amount of the compensation to be paid to the commissioner, or other persons employed in saving such vessel or cargo, it shall be lawful for the master, owner, supercargo, or other person having the lawful care and charge of such vessel or cargo, to choose one indifferent person, being a freeholder, and also for the commissioner to choose one other indifferent person, being a freeholder, who shall adjust and ascertain the same, and in case they cannot agree, the two freeholders so chosen, shall appoint one other indifferent person, being a freeholder, to assist them in said adjustment, and the decision of any two of them shall be binding on all parties, unless the said commissioner, or the said master, owner, supercargo, or other person, having the lawful care or charge of, or interest in said vessel or cargo, shall, in fifteen days, appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of the county where such vessel or cargo shall be saved, which court shall, at the next term, in a summary way, hear and determine said appeal, and render judgment accordingly.

Duty of commissioners.

Their compensation, and manner of settling the same.

Proceedings in case of an appeal.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That in case of an appeal, as provided by the next preceding section of this act, it shall be lawful for the master, owner, or supercargo, or other person or persons, legally entitled to the care and charge of the said vessel or cargo, to pay to the commissioner the sum awarded by said freeholders, whereupon the said commissioner shall restore the vessel or cargo to the said master, owner, supercargo, or other person, having the lawful care or charge of the said vessel or cargo; but this payment shall not prejudice the right or interest of the owner of the vessel or cargo on said appeal: and further, in case the sum for such compensation shall be lessened by the judgment of the said Court of Common Pleas, the commissioners shall restore to the owner, or person or persons, having the legal interest in said vessel or cargo, the difference between the award of the said freeholders and the judgment of the Common Pleas; and in case the judgment of the Common Pleas shall increase the said compensation, then the owners of the vessel or cargo, shall be answerable for such increase, and judgment shall be rendered by the said Court of Common Pleas against him, her or them for the same, and execution accordingly.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, shall not take upon themselves any power or authority to sell, or any way dispose of the ship, vessel or cargo, or any part thereof, where there is any owner, supercargo, consignee, insurer, agent or master present, but in all things to aid and assist him or them as he or they may direct, and for such services, such commissioner or commissioners shall receive a reasonable compensation.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That every commissioner who shall aid and assist in saving any goods, or other property, shall, before the goods or other property is removed, make a true and perfect inventory of all the goods or other property that may be removed under his direction, which inventory shall describe the marks and numbers upon the respective packages or casks, the kind of goods or liquors that they contain, when that can be ascertained without unnecessarily breaking the packages, or injury to the goods, and the quantity as near as practicable, and shall sign his name thereto, which inventory he shall carefully transcribe into a book by him to be kept for that purpose, which book shall be subject to be inspected by the owner, supercargo, consignee, insurer or master, or other person or persons interested in said goods or property, and also be laid before the Court of Common Pleas, by whom said commissioners shall be appointed, at the expiration of the said commission, and at such other time or times as the said court shall order or direct, for the inspection of said court.

Inventory to be made by the commissioner.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if any person other than those employed by a commissioner, shall enter or endeavour to enter on board of any ship or other vessel stranded or in distress on or near the sea shores of this State, or the bays or inlets thereof, without the leave of the master, owner or other person having the care or charge of said vessel or a lawful right thereto, or if any person shall molest the master, owner or other person having the lawful care and custody of such vessel, in saving the same, or the cargo, or any part thereof, or shall wilfully deface the marks of goods, being part of the cargo of such vessel, before they shall be inventoried by the commissioner as aforesaid, or some other person concerned in the care and preservation of such goods, such person shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs by action of debt, in any court having cognizance thereof, in the name of and to the use and benefit of the owner of the ship, vessel or goods as the case may be, and in case of failure to pay such forfeiture immediately, or to give security to the satisfaction of the court before whom the conviction shall be had, to pay the same in twenty days, the said court shall immediately sentence the person so convicted, to imprisonment in the county jail for any time not exceeding six calendar months; and further, in case any goods shall be found upon or in the possession of any person that shall have been stolen or unlawfully carried off from any ship or other vessel in distress or stranded as aforesaid, the person upon whom or in whose possession such goods shall be found, shall, on demand, deliver the same to the owner, supercargo, master or commissioner, or to such other persons as shall be authorised by the owner, supercargo, master or commissioner, to receive the same, and shall be also liable to pay to the owner double the value of the said goods so found upon him or her, or in his or her possession, with costs, to be sued for and recovered in any court having cognizance thereof.

Vessels in distress, who shall enter on board.

Penalty for injury done.

Vessels cast on shore and no owner present, duty of commissioner.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That should any vessel or other property be cast on shore within the limits of any of the counties of this State, bordering on the sea, bays, sounds, rivers, creeks or inlets, and no person present to claim the same as owner, supercargo, consignee, insurer, agent or master, the commissioner of this district, and in case of his death or absence, a commissioner of any district of said county, who shall take possession thereof, and cause an inventory to be made and recorded in manner prescribed by the sixth section of this act, after which it shall be the duty of said commissioner or commissioners to cause a true description of said goods, with the marks, numbers and kinds, as far as can be ascertained, and a description of the vessel in which said goods shall be found, as fully as can be conveniently done, to be advertised in one or more of the public newspapers of this State, for the space of four weeks, and in case the value of said goods shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, then to advertise the same in one of the public newspapers in each of the cities of New-York and Philadelphia, for the same length of time, and in case no person shall claim the same within one year from the time the same shall have been advertised, as aforesaid, the said commissioner or commissioners shall advertise the same for sale in two or more public places in the county where the said goods were stranded or found, not less than ten nor more than twenty days, and proceed to sell the same, at public vendue or outcry, for the best price that can be obtained for the same, and after deducting all reasonable charges and expenses, to be ascertained and allowed by one of the judges of the Court of Common Pleas of said county, and the compensation for his own labour and trouble, as hereinafter provided, the residue of the money arising on such sales, together with an account of sales, be transmitted by the commissioner or commissioners, to the Treasurer of this State, and the said Treasurer shall file the account of sales in his office, and keep an account of the money so received, for the benefit of the owner, in case he shall claim the same, which may be done by proving his property to the satisfaction of the commissioner or commissioners who shall have sold the same; together with two of the justices of the peace of the county, who are hereby authorised to investigate the case and to hear proof thereof; and in case they shall be satisfied in whom the property is, they shall certify the same under their hands and seals, to the Treasurer of the State, who shall file the same in his office, and pay the money to whom it shall be so certified to be due, deducting therefrom one per cent. for his trouble; and in case no person shall claim the same within two years from the date of the advertisement of the said goods, the same shall be for the use of the State; but in case the goods shall be perishable, they may be sold at any time, after being advertised in two or more public places in the county, not less than five days.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That when any person or persons shall find any stranded goods or other property, on or near the sea or bay, shores, or in any inlet, river, creek or sound in this State, above the value of twenty dollars, and no owner appearing to claim the same, he, she or they, shall forthwith give information thereof to the nearest commissioner of the county; or in case the county shall be divided into districts, then to the commissioner of the district in which such goods or property shall be found, for which he, she or they, shall be allowed all reasonable charges or expenses, to be ascertained by said commissioner, and paid out of the product of the sales of such goods or other property: and further, should any person, finding stranded goods or other property, conceal the same, or convert them to his or her own use, or fail, within four days, to give information to the commissioner, as before directed, he or she, shall pay to the said commissioner, double the value of such goods or other property, to be recovered, with costs, by the said commissioner, in an action of debt, in his own name, in any court having cognizance thereof, for the use of the State, out of which, said commissioner is hereby directed to pay to the owner of such stranded goods or other property, all the damage the said owner shall sustain by reason of such concealment, conversion or failing to give information, in case the said owner appear and prove his property in one year from the time such judgment of recovery shall be rendered.

Stranded goods found, duty of the finder.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That if any person shall steal or embezzle any stranded goods or other property, or conceal the same, knowing them to have been stolen or embezzled, such person shall forfeit and pay to the owner or commissioner, which ever shall first sue for the same, double the value of the goods or other property so stolen or embezzled, or found in his or her possession, he or she knowing the same to have been stolen or embezzled, to be recovered in any court having cognizance thereof, and the person so stealing, embezzling or concealing the same, knowing the same to have been stolen or embezzled, shall moreover be liable to be prosecuted, convicted and punished, on the part of this State, as in other cases of theft, or receiving stolen goods, knowing them to have been stolen.

Stranded goods embezzled.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That in case any commissioner, appointed as aforesaid, either by fraud, connivance or wilful neglect, shall abuse the trust reposed in him by this act, he shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay double damages to the party aggrieved by such fraud, connivance or wilful neglect, to be recovered with costs, by action on the case, in any court having cognizance thereof, and shall thereafter be rendered incapable of acting or being again appointed a commissioner under this act: and further, in case any person, as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to give the assistance required by this act for the saving any vessel or cargo, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, to be recovered with costs, by any commissioner of the county, or in case the county where the offence shall be committed shall be divided into districts, then by the commissioner of the district in which the offence shall be committed, in an action of debt, before any justice of the peace of the county where such offence shall be committed; to and for the use of the State.

What shall be forfeited by commissioner for abuse of his trust.

Oath or affirmation to be taken by commissioner.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That every commissioner appointed under this act, shall, before he enters on the duties of his office, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: I, A. B. do solemnly swear or affirm, that I will truly and faithfully perform and discharge the duties of a commissioner of wrecks for the district in which I am appointed, in the county of , agreeably to law, to the best of my skill and abilities; so help me God. And further, in case of stranded or wrecked property coming into the bounds of any commissioner, where no owner shall appear to claim the same, the said commissioner shall receive a reasonable compensation for his trouble, to be ascertained and allowed by the Court of Common Pleas, by whom the said commissioner hath been or shall be appointed, which compensation, so ascertained and allowed, shall be retained by the said commissioner, out of the product of the sale of said goods, before the same shall be paid to the treasurer, as aforesaid.

Punishment for putting up false lights, &c.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That if any person shall put up false lights, in order to bring any vessel into danger, or wilfully do any act or thing tending to the immediate loss of such vessel, whereby such vessel shall be lost or destroyed, then every person, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, by due course of law, be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in solitary confinement, not exceeding three years, or both, at the discretion of the court before whom such conviction shall be had.

Who not eligible as to ascertaining compensation.

Sec 14. And be it enacted, That no person who shall be related within the third degree, according to the rules of the common law, to any person or persons claiming compensation for saving or assisting to save any vessel or cargo, or any part thereof, as before provided by this act, or any person having himself received compensation for saving any vessel or cargo, within three years next preceding, shall be considered as indifferent between the parties, or eligible to adjust and ascertain the compensation for saving or assisting to save any vessel or cargo, as herein before provided.

Unclaimed money, how invested and to what use.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That all moneys now in the treasury of this State, or which shall hereafter come into the said treasury, arising from the proceeds of wrecked or stranded goods, or other property, shall, on the expiration of the time allowed by this act to the owner to claim the same, and the same being unclaimed, be, as soon as can conveniently be done, invested in six per cent. stock of the United States, and the interest arising on the moneys so invested shall enure and be received by the treasurer, for the benefit of the fund for the support of free-schools, and be credited and accounted for accordingly.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That this act shall not be construed to contravene any treaty of the United States made with any foreign nation.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled "An act concerning wrecks," passed the thirty-first day of May, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine; and the act, entitled "An act concerning wrecks," passed the eighth day of March, eighteen hundred and six; and the act, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled "An act concerning wrecks," passed the twenty-eighth day of November, eighteen hundred and six; and the act, entitled "A Supplement to the act, entitled an act concerning wrecks," passed March eighth, eighteen hundred and six; which supplemental act was passed the twenty-eighth day of February, eighteen hundred and eleven; and the act, entitled "A Supplement to an act concerning wrecks," passed March, eighteen hundred and six, which supplemental act was passed the seventeenth day of February, eighteen hundred and nineteen; and the act, entitled "An act for the appropriation of moneys which may be paid into the treasury from the proceeds of unclaimed wrecks," passed the eighteenth day of February, eighteen hundred and nineteen; be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this repealing section shall be deemed, taken or construed to invalidate or render ineffectual, any act or thing lawfully done or transacted under them or either of them, nor to exonerate any person or persons from any crime or crimes, or offence or offences, done or committed against them, or any of them, but that the same may be prosecuted to conviction and punishment, the same as though this repealing section had not been made or enacted.

Duty of sheriffs as to paying jurors and witnesses fees.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That when any verdict shall be rendered against any offender or offenders, in any of the courts of this State, on any indictment, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county where the verdict shall be rendered, to pay the jury, who have passed on the trial of the cause, their legal fees, before their separation, and also to pay the witnesses, who shall have been sworn or affirmed, to testify in behalf of the State, their legal fees before they leave the court, and in case the offender or offenders, against whom such verdict shall be rendered, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for such a length of time, as by law requires him, her or them to be sent to the State-Prison, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors of the State Prison, or any two of them, to certify to the Treasurer of this State, the amount of the costs of prosecution, delivered to them, duly taxed, together with the sum due to the sheriff for his mileage and expenses, for sustaining, transporting and securing the offender, which said costs and expenses shall be paid to the said sheriff by the Treasurer, and shall be discharged by the said Inspectors of the State-Prison at such time as funds belonging to the said institution shall be in their hands sufficient to discharge the same, and for such costs the said sheriff shall be accountable, and shall pay the same to the several persons entitled thereto.

Inspectors to certify to the Treasurer amount of costs and expenses to be paid to the sheriff.

In what cases the costs of prosecution to be paid by the county collector.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That in case the offender or offenders shall be sentenced to pay a fine, or to imprisonment in the county jail, or to be whipped, and he, she or they are unable to pay the costs of prosecution, it shall be the duty of the county collector of said county, and he is hereby directed to pay the same to the sheriff of the said county, on the bills of costs duly taxed being shewn him, and in case the offender or offenders shall happen to escape after verdict against him, her or them, or for any other cause, no sentence should be passed upon such offender or offenders, it shall in like manner be the duty of the county collector of the county, to pay to the sheriff all the fees which he shall have paid to the jurors and witnesses as aforesaid, on a statement in writing, made by the sheriff under oath or affirmation, of the sums paid to the said jurors and witnesses on each and every case, and for such sum or sums so paid as before directed, it shall be the duty of the said county collector to take a receipt of the said sheriff, which sum or sums shall be allowed the said collector in the settlement of his accounts; and when on any indictment there is an acquittal, the sheriff shall pay the jurors', witnesses' and constable's fees, and the said bill of fees, on proper vouchers produced, shall on demand, be repaid to the said sheriff by the county collector, from any moneys in his hands belonging to the county, and be allowed to him in the settlement of his accounts.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That when there shall be judgment of acquittal before justices of the peace, in cases where by law they may try persons charged with any crime against the State, the said justices shall make out a bill of the fees by law allowed to said justices, witnesses for the State, and constables, and certify the said bill to be just and true, to the Court of General Quarter Sessions, at their lawful stated term, to be by them approved, and by their order, certified by the clerk of the county, who shall deliver the same to the justice, to be by him recorded in his docket and then delivered to the constable, who shall draw on the county collector for the same, and make return of the said money to said justice to be by him paid to the persons entitled thereto.

In what manner fees are to be paid on judgment of acquittal before a justice.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That all fines received by any sheriff on conviction upon any indictment, or which may be imposed by any justice or justices, shall be by him paid over to the county collector, and carried to the credit of the county; and the sheriff of each county for the time being, shall annually render to the county collector an account of all fines imposed within any year in which he is in office, and on neglect or refusal so to do, shall forfeit and pay five hundred dollars above the amount of fines imposed, to be recovered with costs of suit, in the name of the county collector, for the time being, to and for the use of the county, and the clerk of the county shall make return of said fines to the board of chosen freeholders at their annual meeting, as a check against the county collector.

Fines on conviction to be paid by the sheriff to the county collector.

Sec 7. And be it enacted, That all bills of costs in criminal cases shall hereafter be taxed by the court before whom the trial was had, or sentence passed. And it is hereby made the duty of the said courts without delay, to tax all such bills of cost, in criminal cases, as shall be presented to them. And the Inspectors of the State-Prison shall pay no bills of costs unless taxed as aforesaid.

Bills of costs in criminal cases to be taxed by the court.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That in all cases in which any offender shall be convicted of any offence for which he or she shall be sentenced to imprisonment for such length of time as by law requires that he or she be imprisoned in the State-Prison, and he or she shall have any estate, real or personal, or both, the same shall be bound by the judgment against such offender, from the time of rendering thereof, and shall be liable for the payment of the fine (in case any fine be adjudged) costs of prosecution and expenses of sustaining, securing and transporting such offender to the State-Prison, and finding and providing clothing and other necessities, during the term of imprisonment; for the recovery of which, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court by whom such judgment was rendered, or sentence pronounced, on the application of the Attorney-General, or his deputy legally appointed, to transmit under the seal of said court, a certified copy of the record of said judgment or sentence, and bill of costs to the Supreme Court; whereupon it shall and may be lawful for year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, shall be void and of no effect, against a subsequent judgment, creditor, or bona fide purchaser or mortgagee for a valuable consideration, not having notice thereof, unless such deed or conveyance shall be acknowledged or proved, and recorded or lodged for that purpose, with the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which such lands, tenements and hereditaments are situated, within fifteen days after the time of signing, sealing and delivering the same: Provided nevertheless, that such deed or conveyance shall, as between the parties and their heirs, be valid and operative.

Deeds or mortgages void in certain cases, unless recorded before judgment entered, &c.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That every deed or mortgage, or conveyance in the nature of a mortgage, of or for any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which shall be made and executed after the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, shall be void and of no effect against a subsequent judgment creditor, or bona fide purchaser, or mortgagee, for a valuable consideration, not having notice thereof, unless such mortgage shall be acknowledged or proved according to law, and recorded and lodged for that purpose with the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which such lands, tenements, or hereditaments are situated, at or before the time of entering such judgment, or of recording or lodging with the clerk as aforesaid, the said mortgage or conveyance to such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee: Provided nevertheless, that such mortgage as between the parties and their heirs, be valid and operative.

How conveyances may be acknowledged or proved, if the grantors reside in some other state in the union.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if the party who hath executed or shall execute any deed or conveyance of lands, tenements or hereditaments, lying and being in this State, or the witness thereto be in some other state or territory of the United States, then the acknowledgment or proof of such deed or conveyance, made before any mayor or other chief magistrate of any city in such state or territory, duly certified under the seal of such city, or before a judge of any Superior Court or Court of Common Pleas of the state or territory in which such party or witnesses may be, shall be as good and effectual as if such proof or acknowledgment had been made before and certified by any one of the officers mentioned in the first section of the act respecting conveyances: Provided, that where the said acknowledgment or proof is made before a judge of a Court of Common Pleas, in such state or territory, a certificate under the great seal of the state, or under the seal of the county court, in which it is made, that he is such officer, shall be deemed sufficient evidence of his authority for that purpose, and be annexed to, and recorded with, such deed, acknowledged or proof, and the acknowledgment of any deed or conveyance made by a feme covert, as prescribed in the fourth section of the aforesaid act, who shall be in any other state or territory before any such authorities or persons, certified as aforesaid, shall have the same force and effect as if taken before one of the officers mentioned in the first section of the aforesaid act.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerks of the Courts of Common Pleas in this State, to register or record deeds and mortgages, or conveyances, in the nature thereof, in the order they shall receive them, but if two or more deeds, mortgages or conveyances, of or for the same lands, tenements or hereditaments, shall be offered to or come to the hands of the clerk at one and the same time to be recorded, then it shall be the duty of the said clerk to register or record the same according to the priority of their dates.

Priority of recording.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That there shall and may be appointed by the Council and General Assembly of this State, in joint-meeting, proper and fit persons for each of the counties of this State, to be styled and denominated "Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments or proof of deeds," which commissioners shall have authority to take the acknowledgment or proof of any deed or conveyance of lands, tenements or hereditaments, lying and being in this State, or of any mortgage, defeasible deed, or other conveyance, in nature of a mortgage, or any other instrument of writing executed under the hand and seal of the grantor of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, lying and being in this State, required by the laws of this State to be acknowledged or proved; and such acknowledgment or proof, taken or made in the manner directed by the laws of this State and certified by the commissioner before whom the acknowledgment or proof shall be made, as by law required, shall have the same force and effect and be as good and available in law as if such acknowledgment or proof had been made before one of the justices of the Supreme Court of this State.

Commissioners for taking the acknowledgment and proof of deeds.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners appointed as aforesaid, shall be commissioned by the Governor, and hold their offices for five years; but in case any commissioner shall remove out of the township in which he shall reside at the time of his appointment, his commission shall thereupon become void. And further, all commissioners appointed, as aforesaid, may be removed from office by impeachment for mal-conduct during the time they shall hold the said office; and the said commissioners, and each and every of them, are hereby authorized to demand and receive the same fees as are or shall be allowed by law for like services to other persons for taking the acknowledgment or proof of deeds; and that it shall not be lawful to appoint, for any county in this State, a greater number of commissioners, as aforesaid, than two for each township, in said county.

Term of office, and how vacated.

An act to alter and amend the act, entitled "An act concerning Inns and Taverns."

Applicants for license, in what manner to be recommended.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no person shall be licensed, to keep an inn and tavern, but such as shall be recommended by at least twelve reputable freeholders, of the city or township, where the said inn and tavern, is proposed to be kept who shall certify that the person so recommended by them, is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is known to the persons recommending, to have at least two spare beds, more than are necessary for the family's use, and is well provided with house-room, stabling and provender, and it shall be the duty of the presiding justice, at the time of application made and before a license is granted, to call upon the justices present to make known any facts or objections within their individual knowledge, if any there be, why such application should not be granted; and thereupon the court may in their discretion grant the license prayed for by the applicant.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, all and every person on applying to any court authorized by law to grant license to keep an inn and tavern, shall make his or her application to the court for said purpose, on the first day of the session of said court, and the said court shall on the first day of said session, or on some other day thereof, publicly fixed on by the said court, on the said first day, determine in open court on said application by granting or refusing the same; and in case the said application shall be refused by the court, it shall not be lawful for the person so refused to make application to the court for license to keep an inn and tavern, at the same place, at any time during the same session of the court.

When applications to be made and when determined.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person, not having a license to keep an inn and tavern, to put or keep up, on or near his or her dwelling house, any sign or other device, usually employed to denote the keeping an inn or tavern, and every person so offending shall forfeit and pay five dollars for every month that the same shall be so kept up, to be recovered by action of debt, with costs, by any person, who shall sue for the same, before any justice of the peace in the county, where the offence shall be committed.

Signs not to be put up by persons not having license.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person, without license first had and obtained for that purpose, in manner aforesaid, to open an inn or tavern, or sell by retail, or cause, or knowingly permit to be sold directly or indirectly, on or for his or her account, or for his or her benefit, any wine, gin, whiskey, oider-spirits, brandy, or other ardent spirits, or any composition of which any of the said liquors shall form the chief ingredient, except such as are compounded and intended to be used as medicine, by less measure than one quart, or any mixed liquors by less measure than five gallons; and in case any person shall so offend, he or she shall be indicted for the same, and on conviction thereof by due course of law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in any sum not exceeding twenty dollars, at the discretion of the court before whom such conviction shall be had, together with the costs of prosecution: Provided always, that the said prosecution shall be commenced within six calendar months after the offence shall have been committed: Provided also, that nothing in this act shall be construed or taken to prohibit any person from selling metheglin, currant wine, cherry wine, or cider made by him, her or them.

An inn or tavern may not be opened without license.

Made an indictable offence.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be, and it is hereby made the duty of the clerks of the courts of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in the several counties of this State, at least once in every year, or oftener if thereunto required by the grand jury, duly empannelled for any county, to make out a list of the names of all the persons within the said county, who

C. Passed June 10, 1820.

An act for the preservation of Sheep.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That every person who shall keep or harbour a dog or bitch, above the age of six months, shall be taxed yearly and every year, for one dog or bitch so kept or harboured, the sum of fifty cents, and for every additional dog or bitch, above the age of six months, the sum of one dollar, which tax shall be assessed and collected by the assessor and collectors appointed for the assessing and collecting the State, county or township tax, in the several townships of this State, in the same manner and at the same time as other annual taxes raised for the use of the State, county or township, shall be hereafter assessed and collected: Provided always, that the inhabitants of the respective townships shall have power, at their annual town-meetings, to lay any additional tax on dogs, not exceeding five dollars on each; and the same fees shall be allowed for assessing and collecting the same as are allowed for assessing and collecting the said State, county or township tax, and the assessors and collectors shall be subject to the same fines and penalties, for neglect of duty, as are or shall be authorized by law for neglect of duty in assessing and collecting taxes for the use of the State, county or township.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That every inhabitant who shall refuse or wilfully neglect to deliver in to the said assessor, when by him required, a true account of the number or age of the dog or dogs, bitch or bitches, made taxable by this act, and owned or harboured by him or her as aforesaid, he or she shall, for every such refusal or neglect, forfeit and pay the sum of two dollars and fifty cents, to be recovered, with costs, by the collector of the townships wherein the offence shall be committed, to and for the benefit of the townships.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That any person who shall keep or harbour any dog or bitch, shall be considered liable to the yearly tax aforesaid: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the assessors of their respective townships to strike off his duplicate or rate-book, the tax assessed against any person for a dog or dogs, on its being proved to the satisfaction of the assessor, by the owner thereof, that he, she or they have killed or caused to be killed such dog or dogs, before the delivery of the duplicate to the collector.

Dogs taxed.

Town-meetings may lay an additional tax.

Penalty for not delivering to the assessor a true account.

Persons harbouring dogs liable for tax.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person to kill any dog or bitch, which may be found chasing, worrying or wounding any sheep or lamb.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the taxes collected by virtue of this act, shall be appropriated to make good any loss or losses which may be sustained by any person or persons, by the destruction or wounding of his, her or their sheep, within the township wherein said tax shall be collected, and shall be kept as a fund by the township committee, for that purpose, who shall pay all such damage so sustained within the year, in case the money so raised by said tax, shall be sufficient to pay the same, and if not, then in such equitable proportions to the individuals injured, according to their respective losses, as the said fund arising from such tax will enable them to do, to be adjusted at the annual settlement of the accounts of said township by the township committee, and reported to the town-meeting; and in case there shall remain in the hands of the township committee a surplus of money, after paying all the damages sustained as aforesaid, it shall be in the power of the inhabitants of such township, by public vote, at their annual town-meeting, to appropriate such surplus to any other township purposes, or to let the same remain in the hands of the township committee, to answer any damages as aforesaid, which may be sustained in the next ensuing year, and so on from year to year, at the discretion of said inhabitants.

The tax appropriated.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any dog or bitch shall be found killing, worrying or wounding any sheep or lamb, and the owner, being informed thereof, shall refuse or neglect to kill such dog or bitch, for the space of twenty-four hours from the time of receiving such information, such owner shall forfeit and pay to any person who shall sue for the same, the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered with costs, by action of debt, before any justice of the peace of the county, and moreover shall pay triple damages for any injury done by said dog or bitch, to sheep or lambs, after receiving such information, to the owner or owners thereof.

Dogs found wounding sheep, to be killed.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That when any person shall sustain damage or injury, by reason of his or her sheep or lambs being killed or wounded by a dog or dogs, wolf or wolves, it shall be lawful for such person to take two respectable freeholders of the township wherein such damage was done, who are in no wise of kin to the party so calling them, to view the sheep or lambs so killed or wounded, and if it shall appear to their satisfaction, that the said sheep or lambs were killed or wounded by a dog or dogs, wolf or wolves, then the said freeholders shall make a return or certificate thereof, in writing, stating the amount of damages such person may have sustained, which shall, in no case, exceed five dollars for one sheep or lamb so killed or wounded, which said certificate shall entitle the person so injured, to the sum stated therein, as the damage sustained, to be paid by the township committee, in conformity to the provisions made therefor in the fifth section of this act; and in case the damage so certified shall appear to the town committee to be excessive, it shall and may be lawful for said committee to require the facts stated and claim exhibited, to be investigated before them upon oath or affirmation, and shall award payment accordingly: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to cases wherein a recovery of damages can be obtained of the owner or owners of such dog or dogs as shall have committed the injury.

Damage sustained by dog or wolves how determined.

Assessor to set up a list of the names of persons who have made return to him of dogs kept.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the assessors of the respective townships of this State, to set up in at least five of the most public places in their respective townships, within ten days after having taken the annual list of ratables, lists of the names of each person who shall have delivered to him an account of the dog or dogs, bitch or bitches, and the number given in by each person; and each assessor shall be entitled to receive, on settlement of his accounts, one dollar and fifty cents for the list so set up, to be paid out of the moneys collected from the tax on dogs.

Acts repealed.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled "An act to discourage the keeping of dogs by imposing a tax on the owners or keepers thereof," passed the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and the act, entitled "An act concerning dogs," passed the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and six, and the act, entitled "An act for the preservation of sheep," passed the twenty-third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and the supplement thereto, passed the fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and the act, entitled "An additional supplement to the act for the preservation of sheep," passed February the thirteenth, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and all other acts and parts of acts coming in the purview of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, that nothing in this repealing section shall impair any right or interest acquired under them, or any of them, nor exonerate any person from any penalty which he or she may have become liable to under them or any of them.

A. Passed June 9, 1820.

An act for the preservation of Clams and Oysters.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the first day of May, until the first day of September, yearly and every year, no person under pretence of taking clams or shell-fish, or under any other pretence whatsoever, shall rake on any oyster bed in this State, or gather any oysters or shells, on any banks or beds within the same, and in case any person shall so do, whether oysters be taken or not, he shall, for every offence, forfeit and pay ten dollars, to be recovered with costs, by action of debt, by any person who shall prosecute for the same, in any court of record in this State having cognizance of that sum; one moiety thereof to the use of the prosecutor, and the other moiety to the county collector, for the use of the county in which the offence was committed: Provided nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prohibit any person or persons from taking oysters from beds planted out by him or them, pursuant to this law.

Proviso.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in case any person residing in or without this State, shall at any time hereafter rake for or gather oysters, in any of the rivers, bays or waters of this State, with a dredge or implement so called, or shall be on board of any canoe, boat or vessel employed in raking with such implement, such person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in the manner and for the use mentioned in the next preceding section.

Not to be raked with a dredge.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of every justice of the peace, upon his own view, or the information of any person on oath or affirmation, to issue his warrant to one or more of the constables in his county, commanding him or them to require such and so many persons as he or they deem necessary, to aid and assist him or them in apprehending every person offending against either of the preceding sections, in any of the bays, rivers or waters of this State, and forthwith to bring such offender, when apprehended, before the said justice, or any other justice of the peace of said county, to be proceeded against in the manner herein before directed.

Manner of proceeding against offenders.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if any person shall hereafter sell or offer for sale oysters in any part of this State, between the first day of May and the first day of September, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay five dollars, to be recovered and applied in manner directed in and by the first section of this act.

Time in which oysters may not be sold.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if any person shall at any time hereafter rake or gather oysters, in any of the rivers, bays or waters of this State, for the purpose of burning or converting them into lime, or for the purpose of conveying them to any of the landings, to be used in the manufactory of iron in any of the furnaces in this State, or shall land them on any bank or landing, for either of the purposes aforesaid, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay fifty dollars, for each and every offence, to be recovered and applied in manner directed by the first section of this act.

May not be gathered for the purpose of burning them, &c.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person, who is not at the time an actual inhabitant and resident in this State, to rake or gather clams, oysters or shells, in any of the rivers, bays or waters in this State, on board of any canoe, flat, Persons not inhabitants of this state prohibited gathering, &c.

scow, boat or other vessel, not wholly owned by some person or persons inhabitants of, and actually residing in this State, and every person who shall offend herein shall forfeit and pay ten dollars, to be recovered and applied in manner directed by the first section of this act; and shall also forfeit the canoe, flat, scow, boat or other vessel, used or employed in the commission of such offence, with all the clams, oysters, shells, clam-rakes, oyster-rakes, tongs, tackle, furniture and apparel, in and belonging to the same.

Manner of carrying the preceding section into effect.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of all sheriffs and constables, and may be lawful for any other person or persons, to seize and secure any such canoe, flat, scow, boat or other vessel, as aforesaid, and immediately thereupon give information thereof to two justices of the peace of the county where such seizure shall have been made, who are hereby empowered and required to meet at such time and place as they shall appoint for the trial thereof, and hear and determine the same, and in case the same shall be condemned, it shall be sold by the order and under the direction of the said justices, who, after deducting all legal costs and charges, shall pay one half of the proceeds of said sale to the collector of the county in which such offence shall have been committed, and the other half to the person who shall have seized and prosecuted the same.

Penalty for resisting, &c.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, on board of any such canoe, flat, scow, boat or other vessel aforesaid, shall refuse and not suffer to enter the same, or resist before or after entering any of the said officers, or other person or persons seizing the same, or otherwise resist them or any of them in the lawful seizing of the same, then every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of thirty dollars, to be recovered and applied in manner directed by the first section of this act.

Oysters and clams may be planted in certain creeks, &c.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That from and after the seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, it hath been, and hereafter shall be lawful for any person or persons owning marsh or meadow in this State, within the boundaries of which there shall be creeks, ditches or ponds wherein oysters do or will grow, and where such creeks or ditches do not lead to any public landing, to lay or plant clams or oysters therein, for the use and benefit of such owners, and for the preservation of which to erect a fence, hang or affix gates or locks across said creeks or ditches, to prevent any person or persons from entering the same.

The said property protected.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That if any person be found with any craft, boat or raft above or within the aforesaid fences, gates or locks, without leave from the owner or occupant of any creek, ditch or pond, fenced, gated or locked, as aforesaid, wherein clams or oysters may be laid or planted, or shall in any way break or destroy such fence, gate or lock, he, she or they so offending, shall severally forfeit and pay, for each and every of-ence, the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, with costs, in any court having cognizance thereof, by any person who shall prosecute for the same, one half to the use of the owner or occupant of such creek, ditch or pond, and the other half to the person who shall sue for the same: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed or understood as to obstruct or prevent the free navigation of any thoroughfare, creek or channell, leading from or out of any of the bays or principal waters to any other bay or principal water, or to any accustomed landing-place in this State, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, to rake or take with tongs, or otherwise gather up or carry away any oysters, other than by wading in and picking up by hand the same, within the following bounds, in the river commonly called or known by the name of the North or Navesink river, laying within the county of Monmouth, and dividing the township of Shrewsbury from the township of Middletown, above a direct line from the store-house of Eseck White, on the Shrewsbury side of the river, to the dwelling-house of Thomas Layton, on the Middletown side of the river aforesaid; and in case any person or persons shall be found offending against this prohibition, he, she or they, so offending, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, with costs, before any justice of the peace in the county of Monmouth, by any person who shall sue for the same, one half to the use of the prosecutor, and the other half to be paid to the county collector, to and for the use of the county.

Oysters to be taken in a part of Navesink river in a particular manner.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons owning flats or coves along the shores of the tide-waters in the county of Gloucester, between the Great-Egg-harbour and Little-Egg-harbour rivers, inclusive of the shores of so much of the said rivers as lie within the said county of Gloucester, to mark out by fixing stakes across or around the same, at the distance of two rods from each other, and of such length as to be at least two feet above the ordinary high-water, and plant or lay clams, oysters or other shell-fish within or above the same: Provided said stakes shall not include any natural oyster-beds always covered with water, beyond low-water mark: And provided also, it shall not be lawful to stake out, beyond the ordinary low-water mark, nor injure any navigation publicly used.

Privileges allowed to owners of flats or coves in a certain part of Gloucester.

Proviso.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall gather or take away any oysters or clams, above or within the line of stakes aforesaid, without permission first had and obtained from the owner or owners, occupant or occupants of the flats or coves so staked in, he, she or they, so offending, shall forfeit and pay, for each offence, the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered and applied in manner directed by the tenth section of this act, and shall moreover be liable to an action at the

A. Passed June 10, 1820.

An act concerning the estates of persons who die insolvent.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the estate, real and personal, of a testator or intestate, who shall have died since the thirteenth day of June, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, or shall hereafter die, in case the same shall be insufficient to pay all his or her debts, shall be distributed among his or her creditors, in proportion to the sums that shall be due to them respectively, except as herein after is excepted.

How distributed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That to enable the executor or executors, administrator or administrators, to examine into the condition of the estate and ascertain the amount and value thereof, and the debts to be paid out of the same, no action, either at law or equity, shall be brought against such executor or executors, administrator or administrators, within six months after the decease of the testator or intestate, unless it be on suggestion of fraud or for the physician's bill during the last sickness, funeral charges and expenses, and any judgment or judgments entered of record against such decedent, in his life-time and unsatisfied, all which shall have preference and be first paid out of the personal and real estate of the testator or intestate.

Suits may not be brought within six months.

Cases excepted.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That when any executor or administrator shall, by application in writing, represent to the Orphans' Court of the proper county on oath or affirmation, taken or made before any of the judges of said court, that the personal and real estate of the decedent is insufficient to pay the debts of the deceased according to the best of his knowledge and belief, the said court shall thereupon direct the said executor or administrator to give public notice to the creditors of the estate, to exhibit to such executor or administrator, under oath or affirmation, their claims and demands against the estate within such time as the court shall direct and appoint, not exceeding eighteen months, nor less than six months, by setting up such notice in five of the most public places in the county, for the space of two months, and also by advertising the same for the like period in one or more of the newspapers printed in this State, as may be appointed by the said court, and such further notice, if any, as the said court shall direct.

Report to be made to the court.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said executor or administrator shall make report to the next term of the said court after the said limited time shall expire, of the several claims and demands which may be so exhibited against such estate, particularly specifying the demand and amount thereof at the time of such report, and whether by judgment, decree, bond, note, book account, or otherwise, giving at least two months' notice of his intention to make such report, in three of the most public places in the county; and where there shall not be two months from the expiration of the said limited time and the succeeding court, the said report and notice shall be to the term after.

Manner of making report.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said executor or administrator shall, at the time of making such report, exhibit under oath or affirmation, as aforesaid, to the said court, a true and just account of the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the decedent which have come to his knowledge, hands or possession, and shall also make out and exhibit at the same time an inventory of the real estate of said decedent, which may have come to his or her knowledge, and the value thereof, as near as may be, under oath or affirmation.

Who may file exceptions.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any creditor or other person, interested by himself or attorney, to appear at the said term and file exceptions to the account and exhibition of the said executor or administrator, in respect of the amount and value of the real and personal estate of the said decedent; and in like manner for the executor or administrator, or other person interested, to file exceptions against the claim or demand of any creditor, exhibited as aforesaid, or any part thereof, and the said court shall proceed to hear the proofs and allegations in the premises at the same or any subsequent court, as may be expedient, and upon such exceptions, decree and determine in regard to said claims and demands of creditors respectively, and on the account of such executor or administrator in respect of the personal estate, as may be just and lawful, and in case no exception be made against any claim or demand of a creditor as aforesaid, it shall be held and deemed as justly due, and so in like manner the account of said executor or administrator not excepted to, shall be allowed and held as true: Provided that either party may appeal from such decree to the ordinary, within twenty days from rendering the same, and not after.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if upon the adjustment of the claims and demands of creditors and consideration of the amount of the personal and real estate, and value thereof, it shall appear to the court that the real and personal estate is insufficient to pay the debts, and that the estate is likely to be insolvent, the said court shall so decree, and shall order and direct the said executor or administrator to proceed as if the estate was insolvent, and to make sale of the whole or any part of the real estate of the testator or intestate, from time to time, as may appear expedient, in such manner as is directed by executors and administrators to be done, in the twenty-first and twenty-second sections of the act, entitled "An act making lands liable to be sold for the payment of debts," passed the eighteenth of February, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, any thing in the twenty-fourth section of the said act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

How to proceed in case the estate proves insolvent.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That if any creditor who shall have exhibited his claim or demand as aforesaid, to any executor or administrator upon the same being excepted to as aforesaid, shall at the same term to which the exception is made, elect to proceed at common law or in equity, in preference to having the same determined by the said court, such creditor shall so proceed immediately; and the sum recovered against the executor or administrator, if any, shall be the amount on which a ratable proportion shall be paid as aforesaid; and in case any executor or administrator shall elect at the said term that the claim or demand of any creditor so as aforesaid exhibited against the estate, shall be determined at common law or in equity, the said creditor shall proceed immediately in either court, as his case may be, and the sum recovered shall be the amount on which a ratable proportion shall be paid as aforesaid; and the court in which any such action may be brought, shall take order that the same may be determined as speedily as possible.

Election given, in certain cases, to proceed at law or in equity.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the creditor may exhibit to the executor or administrator aforesaid, not only all debts actually due and owing, but all debts and claims to grow due in future, making in such case a reasonable rebate of interest when interest is not accruing on the same.

Debts and claims to grow due may be exhibited.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the proceeds of the said personal and real estate of the testator or intestate, which shall come to the hands of the said executor or administrator, the preferred debts, as mentioned in the second section of this act, and the reasonable allowance which may be decreed by the court to the executor or administrator, for care and expenses, being first paid, shall be distributed to the said several creditors by the said executor or administrator, in proportion to the sums that shall be found due to them respectively as aforesaid, under the direction of the said court, from time to time as may be found convenient and just; and the said court may enforce obedience to such orders and directions by attachment.

Creditor not exhibiting his claim, &c.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That if any creditor shall not exhibit his claim to the executor or administrator as aforesaid; within the time limited and prescribed by the said court, such creditor shall be for ever barred from prosecuting or recovering his said demand, unless the estate shall prove sufficient after all debts exhibited and allowed are fully satisfied, or such creditor shall find some other estate not inventoried or accounted for by the executor or administrator before distribution, in which case such creditor shall receive his ratable proportion out of the same.

Actions against the executor, &c.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That if any action shall be pending against said executor or administrator, at the time of the making the application, as in the third section mentioned, or any action shall be brought against such executor or administrator, after the making of the said application, the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such action may proceed to final judgment, unless the claim shall be adjusted as is herein before directed, or otherwise, but no execution shall in any case issue after the making of said application; and the amount of such judgment when recovered, shall be the sum on which the creditor shall receive his ratable proportion as aforesaid.

Residue after the payment of debts and expenses, to be distributed.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That if it should happen that there is enough produced from such real and personal estate to make full payment, and any residue of the said estate shall remain in the hands of the executor or administrator, after paying all the said debts and expenses, the said residue shall be divided among the heirs of the intestate, in such proportions as the said real estate would have descended, or in case of a will, as the said will directs.

Acts repealed.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled "An act for the distribution of the estates of persons who die, not leaving sufficient property to pay all their just debts," passed the thirteenth of June, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine; and the act, entitled "An act concerning the estates of persons who die insolvent," passed the nineteenth day of February, eighteen hundred and nineteen; and all acts, and parts of acts, coming within the purview hereof, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, that such repeal shall in no wise affect or extend to any proceedings now pending, or rights acquired under the said repealed acts,

An act to prevent Justices of the Peace from issuing blank process.

WHEREAS many abuses have taken place from the practice of some justices of the peace in this State, signing their names to blank summonses and warrants and allowing constables or other persons to fill up the said blanks—THEREFORE,

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if from and after the first day of September next, any justice of the peace, of this State, shall sign his name to any blank summons or warrant, and allow any constable or other person to fill up the blank or blanks in the said process, without the special direction of the said justice, and in his presence, and shall afterwards issue the said process or suffer the same to be served, such justice shall be deemed guilty of misbehaviour in office, and on conviction thereof, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered by action of debt by any person who shall prosecute for the same, in any court having jurisdiction of the case, one half for the use of the person prosecuting, and the other half for the township in which such justice shall reside.

Issuing blank process prohibited.

Penalty.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the service of any summons or warrant on any party named therein, which shall have been issued by the justice as aforesaid in blank, and afterwards filled up by the constable or other person, without the special direction of the justice as aforesaid, shall be taken and considered to be altogether void, and any judgment or other proceeding afterwards had or taken in consequence of such service, or founded thereupon, shall be void and of no effect.

Service of such process void.

A. Passed June 12, 1820.

An act to provide for the distribution of the compiled and revised Public Laws of this State.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Samuel L. Southard and Charles Ewing, esquires, be authorized and required, as soon as may be, to deliver or cause to be delivered, to the Treasurer of this State, after retaining one copy each, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-eight copies of the compiled and revised laws ordered to be printed for the use of the State.

Number of copies to be delivered to the Treasurer.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer shall, on the receipt of the laws aforesaid, after retaining one copy for himself,

Their distribution.

cause one thousand five hundred copies to be delivered to, and distributed among the persons and in the proportions hereafter mentioned, namely: to the Honourable William S. Pennington, one copy; to the Governor of the State, for himself, one copy; and eighty copies, to be by him transmitted to the executives of the several states and territories within the United States, for the use of the respective states and territories; to be forwarded and presented to the Secretary of the department of state of the United States, four copies; and to the President of the American Antiquarian Society, one copy; to the Justices of the Supreme Court, the Attorney-General, the Secretary of this State, and clerk of the Supreme Court, each one copy; to the clerk of Council, for the use of Council, six copies; to the clerk of Assembly, for the use of the Assembly, fifteen copies; and the remainder shall be distributed among the counties of this State, in proportion as they severally contribute to the support of government; and the said Treasurer shall transmit them, at the expense of the State, to the collectors of the several counties of this State.

How distributed in the county, and in the township.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That each and every of the said county collectors, after retaining one copy for himself, shall, at the expense of the county, transmit one copy of the laws aforesaid, to each of the following officers: to the judges of the Court of Common Pleas, the justices of the peace, the sheriff, clerk of the Court of Common Pleas and surrogate of said county, the clerk of the board of chosen freeholders, for the use of the board, and to the present representatives of the county in the State legislature, and to each incorporated library company, one copy: Provided always, that no more than one copy shall be delivered to any one person, notwithstanding such person may hold several offices; and five copies shall be transmitted to the clerk of each township, who shall, within one week after the receipt of the same, retaining one copy for himself, cause the residue to be distributed among the following officers of the township, namely: the assessor, collector, township committee and overseers of the poor, and the receipts of the persons so entitled to receive the same, shall be a sufficient voucher to the said Treasurer and collectors in the settlement of their accounts, for the money by them for this purpose expended. And if there should be a surplus in any county, after the aforesaid distribution, it shall be subject to the order of the board of chosen freeholders of the county, for the use of the county.

Expiration of office, or death of county officers, copies of the laws to be deposited in the clerk's office.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That at the expiration or removal from office of any judge or clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, justice of the peace, surrogate, sheriff or county collector, it shall be his duty to deliver the aforesaid copy of the laws to the clerk of the county, to be deposited in his office, for the use of such person as shall be appointed to execute the said office in his place or stead, and in case of the death of any of the aforesaid officers, the said copy shall be delivered, as aforesaid, by the lawful representatives, and in case of neglect or refusal for three months in any of the aforesaid officers or their representatives, then it shall be the duty of the said clerk to prosecute the delinquent or delinquents, for double the value of the said copy or copies, in any court where the same may be cognizable, and recover the same, with costs of suit, for the use of the county, by action of debt, in the name of the State.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if any of the before recited officers of any township, who shall have received any of the aforesaid copies, shall neglect or refuse, or in case of his decease, his lawful representatives shall neglect or refuse, within one month after the expiration of his office, to deliver to the clerk of the township to which he belongs, for the use of the township, the copy by him received, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the township to prosecute and recover, in the name of the inhabitants of the township, from the delinquent, for the use of the township, double the value of the said copy, in any court where the same may be cognizable, with cost of suit, in the manner provided in the fourth section of this act.

Where to be deposited by township officers.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any collector or clerk shall neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties required of him by this act, he shall, for each offence, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be sued for in any court of competent jurisdiction, by the director of the board of chosen freeholders of the county where he may reside, to be applied to the use of the county.

Penalty on collector or clerk for neglect of duty.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the residue of the said printed copies of the compiled and revised public laws, shall be retained by the said Treasurer, subject to such disposition as may be made of the same by law.

Copies retained.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That an act to provide for the distribution of the revised laws of this State, and to appropriate a further sum of money towards defraying the expense of the revision, passed November twenty-first, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Act repealed.

A. Passed June 13, 1820.

A Supplement to the act constituting courts for the trial of small causes.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in case any claim shall be made to any goods or chattels under the twenty-sixth section of the act to which this is a supplement, and the said claimant or claimants shall not within ten days apply to a justice and have his, her, or their right tried;

Claims to goods levied on must be presented within ten days.

as is prescribed in said section, the said claim shall be considered abandoned, and the constable shall proceed as if it had not been made.

Relates to the act to which this is a supplement.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That so much of the sixty-third section of the said act, under the title of justices, in said section, as reads, "Each deposition taken under the fiftieth and fifty-first section of this act, one dollar," shall be taken and construed to read as referring to the fifty-second and fifty-third sections of the said act; and so much of the sixty-third section, under the same title, as reads, "For issuing a commission under the fifty-third section of this act, to be paid by the party applying, one dollar," shall be taken and construed to read as referring to the fifty-fifth section of the said act; and so much of the sixty-third section under the title, witnesses, as reads "For their services under the fiftieth and fifty-first sections of this act, fifty cents," shall be taken and construed, as referring to the fifty-second and fifty-third sections of the said act, any thing therein expressed to the contrary notwithstanding.

Constable's fees on serving a summons on more than one defendant.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in all actions hereafter brought before any justice of the peace in this State, where the original process shall be by summons, and there being more than one defendant therein named, the constable serving the same, shall be entitled to receive forty cents for the service of the same on one defendant, and every additional defendant on whom the same shall be served, twenty cents, and make return thereon, as directed in the sixth section of the act to which this is a supplement.

Number of the jury in certain cases.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That so much of the nineteenth section of the act entitled "An act constituting courts for the trial of small causes," passed on the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, as authorizes and requires a justice of the peace to issue a venire to summon a jury of six men, and no more, if the debt or demand depending before him do not exceed the sum or value of twenty-five dollars, be, and the same is hereby repealed; but it shall nevertheless be lawful for such justice, and he is hereby required to issue such venire to summon a jury of six men, and no more, in all cases when the debt or demand shall not exceed the sum of sixteen dollars, in the same manner as he might have done before the passing of said act, passed on the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

Corporate bodies liable to be sued,

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That any body politic or corporate in this State, shall and may be liable to be sued, in the court for the trial of small causes, by summons, which may be served on the president, cashier or clerk of said corporation, if found; and if not found, on any of the directors or managers of the said corporation, in such manner as is by law required for serving a summons.

and execution issued against their goods, &c.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if judgment shall be given against any body politic or corporate, by virtue of this act, the justice shall grant execution thereupon, against the goods and chattels of such body politic or corporate, which may be levied on and sold according to law.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That so much of the sixty-third section of the act to which this is a supplement, under title "constables," as allows constables forty cents for serving a summons when against more than one defendant, and so much of the twenty-fourth section of the said act as provides that no execution shall issue against the body of any man having a family, when the debt does not exceed the sum of ten dollars, and so much of said act as comes within the purview of this act; also, a supplement to the said act, passed the eighteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, be, and the same are hereby repealed and made void. Acts repealed.

A. Passed June 13, 1820.

An act to repeal certain acts therein named.

twenty; be taken and read as "thirteenth", and that the word "or" next preceding the word "mesne" in the first section of the act, entitled "A supplement to an act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt," passed the eighteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and to an act, entitled "An act to repeal the several insolvent laws passed since the eighteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and to revive the act, entitled "An act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt," passed March third, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be taken and read as "on", and be so printed in the said respective acts, in the compiled and revised edition of the public laws of this State.

A. Passed June 13, 1820.

An act further regulating the descent of real estates.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in case any lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, situate, lying or being in this State, shall hereafter be devised by the owner thereof to any person for life, and at the death of the person to whom the same shall so be devised for life, to go to his or her heirs, or to his or her issue, or to the heirs of his or her body, then and in such case after the death of such devisee for life, the said lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, shall go to, and be vested in, the children of such devisee, equally to be divided between them as tenants in common in fee, but if there be only one child, then to that one in fee, and if any child be dead, the part which would have come to him or her, shall go to his or her issue in like manner.

What estate the children of a devisee shall take under certain words.

A conveyance or devise in fee-tail, its operation.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, where any conveyance or devise shall be made, whereby the grantee or devisee shall become seized in law or equity of such estate in any lands or tenements as under the statute of the thirteenth of Edward the first, (called the statute of entails) would have been held an estate in fee-tail, every such conveyance or devise shall vest an estate for life only, in such grantee or devisee, who shall possess and have the same power over, and right in, such premises, and no other as a tenant for life thereof would have by law; and upon the death of such grantee or devisee, the said lands and tenements shall go to, and be vested in, the children of such grantee or devisee, equally to be divided between them as tenants in common in fee, but if there be only one child, then to that one in fee; and if any child be dead, the part which would have come to him or her shall go to his or her issue in like manner: Provided, that the widow of any such grantee or devisee of such estate, shall have her dower in the premises in like manner as if the said grantee or devisee had died seized thereof in fee-simple: And provided also, that where any person shall marry a woman being a grantee or devisee and seized of such estate, the said husband, after the death of his said wife, shall have his curtesy in the said lands and tenements, if there be issue of the marriage, in like manner as if said wife had died seized of an estate of inheritance in fee-tail of the premises.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the second section of the act, entitled "An act to pass estates in fee, by certain devises in wills and testaments, and to limit estates in tail," passed the twenty-sixth of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and the act, entitled, "An act to explain and amend an act, entitled an act to pass estates in fee by certain devises in wills and testaments, and to limit estates in tail," passed the twenty-third of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, that nothing in this section shall affect any estate now held by devise, but the same shall descend or be held as if this section had not been passed.

Acts repealed.

A. Passed June 13, 1820.

An act to ascertain the power and authority of the Ordinary and his Surrogates, to regulate the jurisdiction of the Prerogative Court, and to establish an Orphans' Court in the several counties of this State.

WHEREAS, it is necessary that the power and authority of the Ordinary of the State and his Surrogates should be defined, the jurisdiction of the Prerogative Court regulated, and an Orphans' Court established, in the several counties of this State — THEREFORE, authority of the ordinary, how far to extend.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That for the more regular hearing and determination of all causes cognizable before the ordinary, he shall at stated periods, hold a Prerogative Court, at the times and places appointed, or that hereafter shall be appointed by him for holding the Court of Chancery, when he shall hear and finally determine all causes that shall come before him, either directly or by appeal from any of his surrogates, or the Orphans' Court, herein after established.

Prerogative Court, when and where to be held.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the Secretary of the State, for the time being, shall be register of the Prerogative Court, and besides the business heretofore done by him, shall attend the sitting of the court at the stated times, to register the decrees and proceedings of the court.

Secretary of State to be register.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the ordinary shall hereafter appoint but one deputy or Surrogate in each county of the State, and that the power and authority of such surrogate shall be limited to the county for which he shall be appointed.

One surrogate in each county.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the judges of the Court of Common Pleas, in the several counties of this State, or any three of them, shall be, and they hereby are, constituted and appointed judges of a court of record, to be held four times a year, at the same week that the courts of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace are, or hereafter shall be held, and also at such other times as the said judges shall see occasion to hold the same, which court shall be styled "The Orphans' Court", and that the surrogate of the county shall be clerk or register of said court.

Orphans' Court established.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the Orphans' Court shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all disputes and controversies whatsoever, respecting the existence of wills, the fairness of inventories, the right of administration and guardianship, and the allowance of the accounts of executors, administrators, guardians or trustees, audited and stated by the surrogate, as herein after directed; and also, all other matters and things herein after submitted to their determination, and to award process and cause to come before them, all and every person and persons interested or necessary to give evidence in any such cause, or who as executors, administrators, guardians, trustees or otherwise, are or shall be entrusted with, or in anywise accountable for, any lands, tenements, goods, chattels or estate, belonging, or which shall belong, to any orphan or person under age; and the ordinary of the State, his register and surrogates, are hereby directed and required, upon application made for that purpose and payment of reasonable fees, to transmit into the Orphans' Courts, true copies or duplicates of all bonds, inventories, accounts and proceedings whatsoever, now or hereafter remaining or being in their respective offices or possession, which do or shall relate to the estates of orphans, or any of them.

Jurisdiction of the Orphans' Court.

Orphans' Court may order administrators or guardians to give further security, and may revoke letters of administration or guardianship.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the said Orphans' Court shall have full power and authority, where letters of administration or guardianship shall have been granted upon insufficient security to order and direct all such administrators or guardians to give such further or other security to the ordinary, by bonds in the usual form, as the said court, after hearing the objection of creditors or persons concerned, shall approve of; and if it appear on examination, that any administrator or guardian hath embezzled, wasted or misapplied all or any part of the decedent's estate or shall neglect or refuse to give bonds, with sureties as aforesaid or the security taken shall have been insufficient, then, and in every such case, the said court shall forthwith, by sentence, revoke or repeal the letters of administration or guardianship, and thereupon the surrogate shall grant letters of administration or guardianship to such person or persons having right thereunto, and will give bonds in manner and form aforesaid, who may have actions of trover, detinue or on the case, for such goods or chattels as came to the possession of the former administrators or guardians, and shall be detained, wasted, embezzled, withheld or misapplied by any of them, and no satisfaction made for the same.

In what cases the Orphans' Court may order executors, guardians and trustees to give security.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That when any complaint is made to any one of the judges of the Orphans' Court, that an executrix having a minor or minors of her own, or being concerned for others, is married or like to be espoused to another husband without securing the minors' portions or estates, or that an executor, guardian or other person having the care and trust of minors' estates is likely to prove insolvent or shall refuse or neglect to exhibit true and perfect inventories, or give full and just accounts of the said estates come to their hands or knowledge, then, and in every such case, the said judge is hereby required, forthwith to call an Orphans' Court, which court shall order and direct all and every such executrix, executor, guardian or trustee to give security to the orphans or minors, by mortgage or bonds in such sums and with such sureties as the said court shall think reasonable, conditioned for the performance of their respective trusts; and for the true payment or delivery, to and for the use and behoof of such orphan or orphans as they are concerned for or such as shall legally represent them, the legacies, portions, shares and dividends of estates, real and personal, belonging to such orphans or minors, so far as they have assets, as also for their maintenance and education, as the said court shall judge fit for the benefit and best advantage of such orphans.

May order an administrator or guardian, on application of a surety, to render an account, and proceedings thereon.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That where the surety, in any bond given by an administrator or guardian, for the faithful execution of his office, shall discover or believe that such administrator or guardian is wasting or mismanaging the estate whereby the said surety may become liable to loss or damage, the said Orphans' Court, upon application of such surety and upon sufficient reasons therefor, may order and direct every such administrator or guardian to render an account of his or her administration or guar-ianship, to such surety, and if it shall appear that such administrator or guardian has embezzled, wasted, misapplied or mismanaged the estate, in every such case the said court shall direct the said administrator or guardian to give separate security to his or her surety for the true payment of the balance remaining in his or her hands, to creditors, representatives or the ward of such guardian, and on neglect or refusal it shall be lawful for the said court to revoke the letters of administration or guardianship and grant the same to such person or persons having right thereon, as will give sufficient bonds, in the usual form, to the ordinary, and in such case it shall be the duty of the said newly appointed administrator or guardian immediately to bring an action on the case against such removed administrator or guardian, and hold him or her to bail, and in such action to recover the amount of all moneys, assets, rents, issues and profits received by such removed administrator or guardian, and not applied according to law, as well as all damages done or committed by such administrator or guardian in respect of the estate in his or her hands.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That whenever there are two or more acting executors, guardians or administrators, the Orphans' Court shall or may, from time to time, on application of any one or more of them, upon sufficient reasons given to the court therefor, order and direct every such executor, guardian or administrator, to account with his or her co-executor or co-executors, administrator or administrators, guardian or guardians, for all assets which have severally come to the hand of such executor, guardian or administrator, and whenever the court shall judge it necessary, shall compel each executor, guardian or administrator, to give separate security to his co-executor or co-executors, administrator or administrators, guardian or guardians, for the true payment of the balance remaining in his or her hands, to wards, creditors, legatees or representatives of the testator or intestate, and on neglect or refusal in giving such account or security, it shall and may be lawful for the same court to authorize such co-executor or co-executors, administrator or administrators, guardian or guardians, to sue for such assets in the hands of such executor or executors, administrator or administrators, guardian or guardians so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid.

May direct an executor, administrator or guardian to account with, and give security to his co-executor, &c.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That executors, administrators, trustees or guardians, may, by leave and direction of the Orphans' Court, put out their minors' money to interest, upon such security and for such a length of time as the said court shall allow of, and if such security so taken, bona fide and without fraud, shall happen to prove insufficient, it shall be the minors' loss, and it shall be the duty of executors, administrators, trustees and guardians, in cases where the minors' estates may be materially benefitted thereby, to make application to the Orphans' Court for such leave and direction, and in case they shall neglect so to do, they shall be accountable for the interest that might have been made thereby. But if no persons who may be willing to take the said money at interest, giving such security can be found by the said executors, administrators, trustees or guardians, nor by any other friend or friends of such minor; then the said executors, administrators, trustees or guardians shall, in such cases, be accountable for the principal money or interest, until it can be put out at interest, as aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that in any case where executors, administrators, trustees or guardians shall make use of the money of minors, which shall come to their hands, they shall be accountable not only for the principal but for the interest thereon.

The real estates of intestates may be divided in certain cases.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That where any person hath died or shall die intestate, seized in fee-simple of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, leaving two or more children or other heirs, any of whom, being under the age of twenty-one years, the Orphans' Court of the county in which such real estate is situated upon application made by the said heirs, or any of them, or by any person duly authorized in their behalf, or claiming under them or any of them, shall and may order and direct a division of such real estate to be made in such shares and proportions between them as they may be entitled to under the laws of this State or any of them, directing the descent of real estates; the metes and bounds of each child's or other heir's share, to be ascertained by three disinterested commissioners, to be appointed by the court, whose report or the report of any two of them, made in writing under their hands, to the next or any subsequent Orphans' Court after such division shall be made and approved of by the court, shall be recorded in the records of said court, and be conclusive to all parties concerned.

Real estates, devised by will, may be divided.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That where any person hath died or shall die seized of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, leaving a legal will and testament, devising his or her real estate to two or more devisees and not ascertaining the metes and bounds of each devisee's share, any of whom being under the age of twenty-one years, and their shares remaining undivided, or any such devisee shall die, leaving any heir under the age of twenty-one years, entitled to the share or a part of the share of such devisee, so dying, and no division shall have been made among the said devisees, the said Orphans' Court, upon application by any of the devisees or any person claiming under them, or any of them, or duly authorized by them or any of them, shall and may order and direct a division of such real estate to be made agreeably to the true intent and meaning of the said testator's last will and testament; the metes and bounds of each devisee's share to be ascertained by three disinterested persons, commissioners to be appointed by the court, whose report or the report of any two of them, made in writing, under their hands, to the next or any subsequent Orphans' Court, after such division made and approved of by the court, shall be recorded in the records of the court, and be conclusive to all parties concerned.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That where any person hath died or shall die intestate, seized in fee-simple of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, situate in two or more counties, leaving two or more children, or other heirs, any of whom being under the age of twenty-one years, the surrogate-general, on application made by the said heirs, or any of them, or by any person duly authorized in their behalf, or claiming under them or any of them, shall and may order and direct a division of such real estate, to be made in such shares and proportions between them as they may be entitled to under the laws of this State, or any of them directing the descent of real estates, the metes and bounds of each child's or other heir's share, to be ascertained by three disinterested persons, commissioners, to be appointed by the said surrogate-general, whose report, or the report of any two of them, made in writing, under their hands, to the next or any prerogative court held after such division made and approved by the surrogate-general, shall be conclusive to all parties concerned, and shall be recorded in the clerk's office in each of the counties where the lands lie, for which the said surrogate-general and register of the prerogative court, commissioners and clerks, shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed by this act, to the Orphans' Court, commissioners and surrogate, for similar services.

Cases where a person dies intestate, in which the surrogate-general is authorized to direct a division.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That where any person hath died, or shall die, seized of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, leaving a legal will and testament, devising real estate to two or more devisees, situate in two or more counties, and not ascertaining the metes and bounds of each devisee's share, any of whom being under the age of twenty-one years, and their shares remaining undivided, or any such devisee shall die, leaving any heir under the age of twenty-one years, entitled to the share or a part of the share of such devisee so dying, and no division shall have been made among the said devisees, upon application made by said devisees, or any of them, or any person claiming under them, or any of them, or duly authorized by them, to the said surrogate-general, he shall and may order and direct a division to be made of such real estate agreeably to the said last will and testament, by three disinterested persons, commissioners, appointed by the said surrogate-general; and the proceedings on such application shall be in like manner, in all respects, as is prescribed in the foregoing section, and have the same force and effect, and the same fees be allowed.

Cases where he is authorized to direct a division among devisees.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That the persons appointed by the Orphans' Court, or by the surrogate-general, to make partition in any of the cases aforesaid, shall, before they enter upon the duties of their appointment, take an oath or affirmation, to make a fair and just partition of such real estate, without partiality, favour or affection; which oath or affirmation may be administered by any judge of the Orphans' Court, surrogate, or Persons appointed to make partition of lands, to take an oath.

justice of the peace of the county or counties in which the said real estate is situate, or by the said surrogate-general.

Expense of division, how assessed and recovered.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That the necessary costs and expenses which shall arise under an order of the Orphans' Court, or surrogate-general, in any of the cases aforesaid, shall be assessed by the said court, or surrogate-general, upon each share, in proportion to the value divided to him or her, and may be recovered by a warrant from the said court or surrogate-general, directing distress and sale to be made of so much timber, wood, or herbage, or other property belonging to such devisee or heir, as may be found on the part divided to him, or her, as will be sufficient to pay the costs and expenses aforesaid, and costs of such distress and sale.

In making a division, damage committed to be estimated.

Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That on a division made in any of the cases aforesaid, if any devisee or heir as aforesaid, or any person claiming under him or her, hath, after the death of the testator or intestate and before the division, cut off or made use of any timber, or committed any waste or destruction on the premises, the commissioners appointed to make the division shall estimate the damage done by such heir or devisee, or person claiming under him or her, and divide the premises so, that such heir or devisee shall be charged with said damage, and have a share proportionably less in value than the other heirs or devisees who have done no waste or damage.

Manner of proceeding in case a division cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That wherever commissioners appointed in any of the cases mentioned in this act to divide real estate, shall be of opinion that the tract or tracts of land, or real estate, is or are so circumstanced, that a partition thereof cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners of the same, they may proceed as is directed in such case, by the act entitled "An act for the more easy partition of lands held by coparceners, joint-tenants and tenants in common," and by an act entitled "An act to ascertain the power and authority of the ordinary and his surrogates, to regulate the jurisdiction of the prerogative court, and to establish an Orphans' Court in the several counties of this State," passed the seventh February, eighteen hundred and sixteen; and the fees of the commissioners in such case shall be the same as is allowed by this act to commissioners for dividing lands: Provided, that such fees and expenses shall not bar any claim which may be made by such commissioners for services which may be performed under the fifth and eighth sections of said act.

In what case a creditor may apply to the Orphans' Court to direct a sale of real property.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That when any creditor shall have obtained judgment against an executor or administrator, and the execution issued on the same shall remain unsatisfied in whole or part, for defect of personal estate to be levied on and sold, and there is real estate, it shall be lawful for the creditor, or his legal representative, if the executor or administrator, being thereto required, shall neglect or refuse to obtain a sale hereof according to law for the space of six months after being so required, to apply to the Orphans' Court of the proper county, to order such sale to be made; and the said court, upon due notice given to said executor, or administrator, of such application, shall examine the circumstances of the case; and if it appears that the said debt, or any part thereof, is unpaid, and the personal estate deficient as aforesaid, and no sufficient cause being shewn to the contrary, the said court may make such order to shew cause as is mentioned in the nineteenth section of the act entitled "An act making lands liable to be sold for the payment of debts," passed eighteenth of February, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine; and such further proceedings shall be had as is prescribed in the same act in relation to the sale of real estate, where the personal estate is insufficient to pay debts.

Sec. 21. And be it enacted; That the surrogate of each county shall take the depositions to wills, administrations, inventories and administration bonds, in case of intestacy, and issue thereon letters testamentary and of administration; which several letters shall be in the form herein after mentioned; but in all cases whatsoever, where doubts arise on the face of a will; or a caveat is put in against prob. a will, and wherever disputes happen respecting the existence of a will, the fairness of an inventory, or the right of administration, the surrogate shall issue citations to all persons concerned, to appear at the next Orphans' Court to be held in and for the county; which citations shall be served at least ten days before the sitting of the court, when the cause shall be heard in a summary way, and determined by the judges of the court, subject to an appeal to the prerogative court, if demanded by any of the parties within thirty days after the sentence or decree of the Orphans' Court; after which, if no appeal be demanded, the surrogate shall proceed thereon as the sentence of the Orphan's Court shall direct; and all proceedings of surrogates, not brought as aforesaid before the Orphans' Court, shall, in like manner, be subject to an appeal to the prerogative court by any persons interested, or other person legally representing them, provided such appeal be made within six months after any such proceedings; and upon all causes heard in a summary way, as aforesaid, upon citation by the Orphans' Court, the evidence and proceedings, upon the application of either party, shall be reduced to writing by the register of the court, and the court, upon just cause, may put off the hearing of the cause to another time, upon the application of either party: Provided, that no surrogate shall proceed to prove any will until ten days from the death of the testator.

Surrogates to take the depositions to wills, inventories, administrations, &c.

Disputes relative to the same, when and how to be settled.

Sec. 22. And be it enacted, That each of the surrogates, in the several counties of this State, shall record, in books to be provided for that purpose, at the expense of the county for which they shall be used, all wills proved before them or the Orphans' Court, together with the proofs thereof; all letters of guardianship, letters testamentary and letters of administration, by him issued or granted, and all things concerning the same, and also all inventories proved before him; which records shall be of the same force, validity and effect as the like records in the prerogative office, and the transcript of such records, certified under the hand and seal of office of the surrogate, shall be received in evidence in every court of this State, and have the same validity and effect as transcripts certified by the register of the prerogative court.

Letters testamentary.

Sec. 23. And be it enacted, That each of the said surrogates shall issue letters testamentary in the following form:—

I, surrogate of the county of do certify the annexed to be a true copy of the last will and testament of late of the county of deceased, and that the executors therein named, proved the same before me, and are duly authorized to take upon themselves the administration of the estate of the testator, agreeably to the said will. Witness my hand and seal of office, the day of in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred .

And the said surrogate shall issue letters of administration in the following form:—

Letters of administration.

I, surrogate of the county of do certify, that on the day of administration of the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of late of the county of who died intestate, was granted by me to of who are duly authorized to administer the same agreeably to law. Witness my hand and seal of office, the day of in the year of our Lord, &c.

And the said probate of wills and letters of administration shall have the same validity and effect as probate of wills and letters of administration issued by the register of the prerogative office in the name of the ordinary or surrogate-general, with the seal of office affixed.

Surrogates to make returns to the register.

Sec. 24. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of every surrogate, on the first Mondays of February, May, August and November, in each year, to transmit to the register of the prerogative court, all wills and inventories proved by him, and a return of all letters of administration granted during the preceding three months, to be filed in the said register's office.

To file administration bonds, &c.

Sec. 25. And be it enacted, That every surrogate shall carefully file all administration and guardianship bonds by him taken, and all other instruments of writing required by law in conducting the business of his office, or which were heretofore used to be filed in the prerogative office.

The ordinary may direct guardianship bonds to be prosecuted

Sec. 26. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the ordinary or surrogate-general, to cause any guardianship bond to be prosecuted in any court of record, at the request and expense of any person aggrieved by the said bond having become forfeited, and the moneys recovered upon such bond shall be applied towards making good the damages sustained by the not performing the condition thereof, in such manner as the ordinary or surrogate-general shall by his sentence or decree direct.

Sec. 27. And be it enacted, That the powers and duties formerly exercised and performed by the ordinary, relative to the admission of guardians for persons under the age of twenty-one years, shall hereafter be exercised and performed by the Orphans' Court of the county in which the minor applying for a guardian may reside or shall have real or personal estate, subject however to an appeal to the prerogative court, and the letters of guardianship shall be issued under the direction of the Orphans' Court by the surrogate of the county in which the application shall be made, which letters shall be in the following form:—

into bond to the state of New-Jersey, in the sum of two thousand dollars, with at least two good and sufficient securities, being freeholders of the county for which such surrogate is appointed, to be approved of by two of the judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas of said county, which bond, with the condition thereof, shall be in the form herein after mentioned, and shall also take and subscribe the following oath before one of the judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas aforesaid:—

Form of oath.

“I, being appointed surrogate of the county of do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will well, truly, faithfully and impartially execute the office of surrogate of the said county, agreeably to law, according to the best of my skill and understanding, so help me God”; which oath or affirmation shall, by the judge before whom the same is taken, be delivered or safely transmitted to the Secretary of this State, together with the bond aforesaid, to be filed among the public papers of his office; and the bond to be entered into, as aforesaid, shall be in the following form:—

Form of bond.

Know all men, by these presents, that we, of the county of in the state of New-Jersey, are held and firmly bound unto the said State in the sum of two thousand dollars, to be paid to the said State, to which payment, well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and . The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bounden shall well and truly execute the office of surrogate of the county of and in all things touching and concerning the said office shall well and truly, faithfully and impartially, execute and perform the same according to law, as well with respect to all persons whatsoever concerned, as to the said state of New-Jersey, and at the expiration of his said office, shall deliver the seal and all the books, records and papers remaining in said office or appertaining thereto, to his successor in office, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Surrogates to state the accounts of executors, &c. and report the same,

Sec. 30. And be it enacted, That the surrogate shall audit and state the accounts of executors and administrators exhibited to him, and report the same to the Orphans' Court at the next sitting thereafter, the executor in case of a will, or the administrator in case of intestacy, giving at least two months' notice of his intention in five of the most public places in the county, as near as may be to the place of residence of the parties concerned or some of them, where such account is to be allowed, which court, on due proof of notice as aforesaid and no exception being made to the report of the surrogate, shall decree an allowance of the account as stated; but if any person or persons interested in the settlement of said account, shall, by himself or attorney, appear and make exceptions to the report, the court shall either proceed to hear the proofs and allegations and correct or amend any mistake or errors that may happen in the account as reported, or refer the same to auditors, who shall examine and re-state the account, after hearing parties and witnesses, and make report to the next or some subsequent court for confirmation and allowance as aforesaid: Provided always, that in all cases where it shall appear that the executor or administrator hath not had sufficient assets in hand, of the testator or intestate, to satisfy all just debts and expenses, the court shall not proceed to decree an allowance of the account, until the next sitting after the report is made; and the accounts of guardians or trustees shall be audited and stated by the surrogate, and reported to, and finally settled and allowed by, the Orphans' Court, in manner aforesaid; but in cases of trustees and guardians the surrogate shall issue citations to all persons concerned, to appear at the said Orphans' Court, which citations shall be served at least ten days before the sitting of the court; and the said court shall, upon application of an orphan or other person interested, from time to time, order and direct the guardians to account, as aforesaid, for all moneys, goods and chattels they shall receive, and for the rents, issues and profits of any real estate in their possession, belonging to their wards.

Accounts of guardians and trustees to be audited and settled in like manner.

Sec. 31. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the court to whom any account is reported for allowance, as aforesaid, or for the auditors, to whom an account is referred, as aforesaid, at the instance of any party interested in the same, or by their own proper authority, to examine any executor, administrator, guardian or trustee exhibiting such account, on oath or affirmation, touching the truth and fairness of the same, or any part or item thereof; and the allowance of commissions to executors, administrators, guardians or trustees, shall be made with reference to their actual pains, trouble and risque, in settling such estate, rather than in respect of the quantum of estate; and where any difference arises between executors, administrators, guardians or trustees, in regard to the proportion of commissions between them, the Orphans' Court shall determine the same, having regard to their respective services.

Executors &c. exhibiting their accounts, may be examined on oath.

Allowance of their commissions.

Sec. 32. And be it enacted, That the sentence or decree of the Orphans' Court, on the final settlement and allowance of the accounts of executors, administrators, guardians or trustees, shall be conclusive upon all parties, and shall exonerate and for ever discharge every such executor, administrator, guardian or trustee from all demands of creditors, legatees or others beyond the amount of such settlement, except for assets or moneys which may come to hand after settlement as aforesaid, excepting also in cases where a party applying for a re-settlement, shall prove some fraud or mistake therein, to the satisfaction of the said Orphans' Court.

Decree of the court, in the settlement of accounts, conclusive, except &c.

Sec. 33. And be it enacted, That every person duly cited or summoned to appear at any of the said Orphans' Courts, ten days before the time appointed for appearance, who shall make default, shall be liable to attachment for contempt, and the said courts are hereby authorized and empowered to compel obedience to their process, orders and sentences, by imprisonment of body or distress and sale of lands and goods, as fully and amply as any other court of record in the State, and all final sentences or decrees of the Orphans' Courts; in the several counties of this State, where no appeal is given to the prerogative court, shall be subject to removal, by certiorari, into the Supreme Court: Provided always, that such certiorari be applied for by either of the parties, within ninety days after such final sentence or decree shall be made, and not afterwards.

Sec. 34. And be it enacted, That the sheriff and constables of the county, shall be, and they hereby are, severally declared to be officers of the Orphans' Court, and shall attend the same as such, and serve all process and order of the court or judges, directed to them or any of them.

Sec. 35. And be it enacted, That if it shall happen that an Orphans' Court shall not be held the regular term or terms of said court, by reason of the non-attendance of a sufficient number of judges, the business and proceedings pending in said court and process returnable thereto, shall be considered continuing from term to term until a regular court shall be held.

Sec. 36. And be it enacted, That the clerk of the Orphans' Court, shall draw bills of costs in all litigated suits in said court, and present the same to the court, who shall adjudge and direct which of the parties shall pay the same, and examine and tax the said bill agreeably to the fees allowed by law, which bill of costs shall be filed by the surrogate, who is hereby authorized, if the same is not paid, to issue an execution against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the party adjudged to pay the same, and the costs when paid or levied shall be received by the surrogate, who shall pay to the court, sheriff and cryer, each their fees, as the same shall be taxed, and the residue to the persons entitled thereto, and for issuing the said execution, the surrogate shall be entitled to fifty cents, and the execution, before the same is delivered to the sheriff, shall be recorded by the clerk of the county in the book by him kept for recording executions.

Sec. 37. And be it enacted, That the surrogate shall cause to be affixed, and at all times keep up in his office, in some conspicuous place, a true list of all fees which may be lawfully demanded by him, as well in his capacity of clerk of the Orphans' Court as of surrogate of the county, and if he shall neglect to put up and keep in view such list of fees, or shall take other or greater fees than by law allowed, or shall take fees for services not performed, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of thirty dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, with costs of suit, before any court having cognizance thereof, by the party aggrieved.

Sec. 38. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every executor, administrator or guardian, who hath settled or shall settle his or her account before the Orphans' Court, and who hath or shall hereafter pay any legacy or legacies, distributive share or shares, or sums of money, to any person or persons entitled by law to receive the same, his, her or their executors or administrators, to produce the receipts and discharges therefor to the surrogate of the county in which letters testamentary, or of administration, or guardianship have been or shall be granted, and the said surrogate shall immediately record the same in a book to be by him kept for that purpose: Provided, that the same be first proved and acknowledged in the manner that deeds of conveyance of land are by law required to be proved and acknowledged, which proof or acknowledgment shall be recorded with such receipts or discharges, and the said surrogate shall endorse on such receipts and discharges, the book and page in which the same is recorded, with the time of recording the same, and sign his name thereto, and the said record or a copy thereof, under the hand and seal of office of the surrogate shall be received in evidence in any court of record in this State, if it shall be made appear to the satisfaction of said court that the original receipt or discharge hath been lost, or that it is not in the power of the party offering the copy in evidence, to produce the same, and the surrogates of the several counties of this State shall procure, at the expense of the county, a good bound book, in which they shall record such receipts and discharges, and be entitled to receive ten cents for recording each receipt or discharge.

Receipts and discharges given to the executor, &c. to be recorded by the surrogate.

How proved.

Sec. 39. And be it enacted, That any special Orphans' Court, to be held in vacation, excepting in cases directed by the eighth section of this act, shall be appointed by the judges at a regular term, in open court, and be held at the place in the county where the said court by law holds its regular terms.

How special Orphans' Courts are to be appointed, and where held.

Sec. 40. And be it enacted, That no surrogate shall be allowed to appear or act as attorney, proctor or counsel, in the Orphans' Court of any of the counties of this State, and also that no surrogate of any county, being a judge of the court of Common Pleas of such county, shall sit as a judge of the Orphans' Court, on the hearing of any cause pending before said court.

Surrogate not to act as attorney &c. in certain courts.

Sec. 41. And be it enacted, That upon the death, removal or expiration of the office of surrogate, the minutes, papers, writings, documents and books of, and belonging to, such office shall be delivered to his successor in office, on oath or affirmation of the preceding surrogate, or in case of his death, on the oath or affirmation of his executors or administrators, and if such surrogate, or the executors or administrators of a deceased surrogate, shall refuse or neglect to deliver the same on oath or affirmation as aforesaid, being demanded by the successor in office, then every such person shall forfeit and pay five hundred dollars, to be re-

An act authorising the banking and improving of certain meadows, marsh and swamp in the townships of Shrewsbury and Middletown, in the county of Monmouth.

Owners, when to meet, &c.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the owners and possessors of the meadow, marsh and swamp, lying on the main branch of North-Shrewsbury river, above James Grover's land, in the township of Middletown, in the county of Monmouth, which owners or possessors shall be denominated and known by the name of the "North-River Meadow Company," to meet at the inn of Forman Throckmorton, in the township of Shrewsbury, on the second Monday of March next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, and yearly thereafter on the second Monday in March of every year, (every future meeting to be held at such place, as may by a majority of votes of the owners or possessors present at the meeting be appointed, and on failure of such appointment, then at the place where the last meeting was held) then and there, by plurality of votes of the said owners or possessors present, personally or by proxies in writing duly executed, to choose out of the owners, three managers for the ensuing year, or until others be chosen in their places, and in case of death, removal, inability or the refusal of the said managers, or either of them, to serve, it shall be lawful for any two of the owners or possessors, by public advertisement under their hands, set up in three of the most public places in the neighbourhood of said meadow, giving eight days notice, to call a meeting of the said owners and possessors, at the place where the last annual meeting was held, and then and there, by plurality of votes of the persons so met, personally or by regular proxies as aforesaid, choose one or more managers, as the case may require, who shall serve until the next annual meeting, or until others be chosen, and it is hereby directed and appointed by the authority aforesaid, that each owner or possessor of said meadow, marsh and swamp, shall be entitled to one vote (either in person or by proxy duly executed) for every three acres which he or she may have enclosed in said bank.

Commissioners appointed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That there shall be three disinterested freeholders chosen at the first meeting of the aforesaid owners, to be commissioners to ascertain and value all the meadow, marsh and swamp, which shall or may be secured from the overflowing of the tide by the said bank and other water-works and cause all the lots or parcels of meadow, marsh and swamp lying within the bounds of the same, to be measured, and a plot of the same to be made, shewing the quantity of meadow, marsh and swamp held by each person, and the value of the same, and likewise the benefit each owner receives by the tides being kept from overflowing the same, which shall be given to the said managers and shall remain in their possession during their continuance in office, and upon expiration of such time, be delivered to their successors in office, which said return of the commissioners shall be received as evidence of each owner's or possessor's quantity of acres and value, and all assessments and votes shall be made and given according thereto.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the managers, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make, or cause to be made, good and sufficient bank, dam, sluices, and every other work necessary and proper to keep out the tide at all times, and prevent said meadow, marsh and swamp from being overflowed, and to begin the bank at or near Little Falls Brook, on the lands of Joseph and John A. Taylor, and thence across said branch to such part of the fast land on the opposite side thereof, as to them shall seem most prudent, in which said branch or marsh adjoining shall be erected, a sluice or gates sufficient to stop the tide from flowing up the said branch, and to discharge at low tide all the back-water. Managers' duty.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said managers, or any two of them, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to assess and collect from the several owners and possessors of the meadow, marsh and swamp, lying within the bounds of the said bank, all such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to pay the expense of making such bank, dam, sluices, gates and other water-works necessary for the above mentioned purpose, and also, the expense of attending and obtaining this act, in proportion to the number of acres and value that each owner or possessor may have within the said dam and water-works, as well as agreeably to what each owner or possessor may in the judgment of the commissioners, to be chosen, as the second section enacts, will be benefitted thereby.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said managers, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at all times, to amend, uphold and keep in good order and repair the said bank, dam, sluices, gates and every and any works so by them erected for the purposes aforesaid, and to assess and collect from each and every of the said owners or possessors of the said meadow, marsh and swamp, from time to time, all such sum or sums of money, as may be necessary to pay for amending, upholding, maintaining and repairing said bank, dam, sluices, gates and other water-works necessary for the aforesaid purposes, in proportion to the number of acres and benefit which each one may have included by the said bank.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said managers, and they are hereby authorised and empowered from time to time, to dig and take for the purposes aforesaid, any earth, marsh, mud or sod, in any part of the said meadow or marsh most convenient and least detrimental to the owners thereof, and also to employ skilful artificers to make and con-

Jay, George Buckmaster, Robert M'Queen, John Targee, Charles G. Haines, James L. Bell, John Condit, Robert Campbell and William S. Pennington, shall be the directors of the said corporation, and shall continue to be directors until others shall be duly elected in their stead, and the directors who may from time to time be duly elected, shall continue in office and hold over until others are duly elected in their place and stead.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said directors herein before named, and those who may from time to time be duly elected, or a majority of them, shall, as soon as may be convenient after their election, appoint one of their number to be president and one to be secretary, and the said president and directors, or a majority of them, shall have power to make all necessary rules and regulations for the government of their own board, and the time and mode of transacting business therein, the regulation of elections for directors and for the management of the concerns of the corporation: Provided, such rules are not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of the United States and of this State, and shall have the power of appointing all such officers and agents, as they or a majority of them may deem necessary for the purposes intended by this act. The first election for directors shall be held at Hoboken in the county of Bergen, and all subsequent elections shall be held at such time and place within said county as the president and directors, or a majority of them, shall from time to time direct, and notice shall be given in at least one newspaper published in the city of New-York, and one in this State, thirty days prior to each election for directors, stating the time and place where such election will be held, at which election each stockholder may vote either in person or by proxy.

Powers of the directors.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said company and their successors shall have power to drain, ditch, dyke, embank, cultivate and improve the said marshes or meadows in any way which they shall deem most conducive to the profit and interest of the company and to public utility: Provided, that no law of this State or of the United States, nor the constitution of this State or of the United States, be in any manner violated by their so doing, nor the property of any individual thereby injured.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any person shall wilfully break down or otherwise injure or destroy any bank, sluice, dyke or other works erected by the company for the improvement of their meadows or marshes aforesaid, such person shall, on conviction thereof, be fined any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, besides being liable to an action, at the suit of the company, for such damages as they may thereby sustain.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed, taken or construed to authorise the said corporation to employ any part of their capital for banking purposes, or for any other objects than those connected with the draining, ditching, dyking, embanking and cultivation of said salt marshes or meadows.

A. Passed January 28, 1820.

AN act to authorise the owners of a tract of marsh on the lower side of Stow Creek, to make a road through the same.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the owners or possessors of the marsh lying on the lower side of Stow creek, in the county of Cumberland, to make and keep up a road beginning at the fast land near Jonathan Walling's house, and running thence crossing two islands four rods beyond a small ditch near Stow creek, said ditch being a line of Isaac Mulford and Howell P. Watson's marsh.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the owners and possessors of all the marsh using said road, to meet at Jonathan Walling's on the first Thursday in April, between the hours of two and five o'clock in the afternoon, to choose by ballot or otherwise, and by plurality of votes of those met, such persons as they may think proper for managers, treasurer and clerk for the ensuing year, or until the next annual meeting thereafter, and Benjamin Bacon, Caleb Sheppard and Abel Bacon are hereby appointed to value the marsh, the hay off of which is hauled over said road.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the managers when appointed as aforesaid, shall as soon as may be, cause all the lots or parcels of marsh belonging to each owner to be carefully and strictly measured, and a draft or plot to be made shewing the quantity held by each owner, and cause a valuation to be made, by the persons appointed as aforesaid, of the marsh of each owner separately, and shall thereupon make an estimate of the sum or sums of money which will be necessary to defray the expenses of the different services required by this law, and also of making and keeping the aforesaid road sufficiently good for hauling hay over, and shall assess the same rateably on said marsh, agreeably to the valuation and quantity each owner may possess, and shall state the said assessment in a regular duplicate containing the names of the owners or possessors; the number of acres and parts of acres held by each; the sums assessed on them severally, and the time or times of payment; which duplicate shall be delivered by him to the treasurer appointed as aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of the manager to keep up and repair the said road from time to time as he shall think necessary; and the said manager shall be accountable for any moneys remaining in his hands at the end of every year, or at the annual meeting; and if the said manager shall refuse to pay such balance remaining in his hands, to his successor in office, then such successor shall sue for and recover the same in an action of debt with costs of suit.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the treasurer on receipt of the said duplicate, shall in person or by notice in writing, left at the usual place of abode of each owner or possessor, demand of and from such owner or possessor, twenty days before the time of payment, the sums assessed as aforesaid; and if any of the said owners or possessors shall neglect or refuse to pay the sum assessed as aforesaid, for the space of twenty days after the time fixed for the payment thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said treasurer to seize and rent out by public vendue to the highest bidder, for so long a time and no longer, as will be requisite, so much of the said marsh belonging to or in the possession of said delinquent owner or possessor, as may suffice to discharge such assessment, and all expenses attending the recovery thereof; having first advertised the same for the space of three weeks in three of the most public places in the neighbourhood where the said marsh lies, may be sold. Duty of the treasurer.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the owners and possessors of said marsh shall meet annually after their first meeting, on the first Monday in May, at such places as they shall by a majority of those met appoint.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said manager, and he is hereby authorised and empowered from time to time, to dig and take for the purposes aforesaid, any earth, mud or sod in any part of the said marsh most convenient and least detrimental to the owners thereof, and to have free ingress and egress for himself, his team and workmen, through any part of said marsh whenever he may deem it necessary.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the owners and possessors of said marsh, at their annual meeting, to pass such by-laws respecting the pasturing of said marsh, as a majority of those met may think proper.

A. Passed January 31, 1820.

An act authorising the enclosure of a certain tract of land situate in the township of Caldwell, in the county of Essex, called the Great Piece.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the owners and possessors of all that tract of land, situate, lying and being, in the township of Caldwell, in the county of Essex, called the Great Piece: which said land is included in the following boundaries, to wit:—Beginning on the bank of the Passaic river, at the Long Bridge; thence south along the road (as it now runs) sixty-six degrees, east seventeen chains and seventy-five links, to the land of Richard Jacobus; thence along his line north thirteen degrees, east nine chains and nine links, to the said Jacobus's corner; thence north seventy-three degrees, east along said Jacobus's line eleven chains and twenty-three links, to John Husk's line; thence south fifty-seven degrees, east nineteen chains and eighty-four links to the northerlymost corner of John Husk's land; thence along his line north thirty-two degrees, east five chains and fifty-three links; thence south fifty-seven degrees, east twenty-four chains and thirty-two links, to the road leading to Fairfield church; thence along said road (as it now runs) north fifty-nine degrees, east ninety-four chains and forty links; thence on a line between Moses Day and Abraham J. Vandroff, north forty-two degrees, west thirteen chains and eighty-six links; thence north sixty-four degrees, east thirteen chains; thence north thirty-six degrees, west two chains and thirty links; thence north sixty-three degrees, east seven chains and sixty-six links; thence south thirty-two degrees, east thirty-four links; thence north seventy-one degrees, east eight chains and forty-four links; thence south nineteen degrees, east five chains and fifty links; thence north eighty-one degrees, east twenty-five chains and seventy-five links, to Abraham Smith's land; thence along the line between said Smith and Aaron Cadmus, north eighteen degrees, east thirty-four chains and ninety-four links, to the bank of the Passaic river; thence along said river to the place of beginning; and to erect such fences and swinging gates, as by the persons hereinafter elected to make the assessments from time to time, as may be deemed proper to enclose the same; and that from and after enclosing the same, as aforesaid, no person or persons whatsoever shall be at liberty to drive or let in any horses, cattle, sheep or hogs, with an intent to run at large in the said tract: Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent any person or persons from permitting his, her or their own or the cattle, horses, sheep or hogs of any other person to run on any part of the said tract already enclosed, by him, her or them, or which may hereafter be enclosed, so long as the same shall be enclosed, by him, her or them, by a lawful fence.

Land to be enclosed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons whatsoever, shall drive or let in any horses, cattle, sheep or hogs, within the said tract, after it shall have been enclosed, as aforesaid, except as excepted in the first section, with an intent to run at large, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, with costs of suit, in the name or names of any person or persons hereafter to be appointed, in any court having cognizance of the same, to be applied towards repairing the said fence.

Sec 3. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful immediately after the passing of this act, for any one concerned in the aforesaid tract, to call a meeting of the owners and possessors thereof, by putting up advertisements in three of the most public places in the township of Caldwell, at least ten days previous to the time of meeting, and publishing the same for two weeks prior thereto in a newspaper printed in the town of Newark, on which notice being given, the owners and possessors of the said tract shall convene at the house of Cornelius Dey, in Caldwell township, which owners and possessors, or such as shall assemble in pursuance of said notice, shall, when met, proceed to elect by a plurality of votes, three persons, being owners of some part of said tract, to make and repair the fences and swinging gates, necessary to enclose the aforesaid tract, and for the purpose of making assessments, and superintending the expenditure of all moneys to be received and paid for the purpose aforesaid, which said persons so elected, shall continue in office until the first Monday in April next, when a new election shall take place between the hours of twelve and three o'clock P. M. of that day, and an election for that purpose shall be had on the first Monday in April, in each year afterwards, at such place as shall be agreed upon by a majority of the said owners, assembled at a previous annual meeting, between the hours aforesaid; and each owner or possessor shall be entitled to one vote for every acre of land to the number of ten, and one vote for every additional ten acres he, she or they shall own or possess in the aforesaid tract: Provided no one person shall be entitled to more than thirty votes.

Meeting of the owners, &c.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if any horses, cattle, sheep or hogs shall be found running at large on any part of the said tract, enclosed as aforesaid, excepting as excepted in the first section of this act, it shall and may be lawful for any owner or possessor of any part of the said tract, to take and drive the same to any public pound in the township of Caldwell, and shall, as soon as may be, make affidavit stating that the same were taken running at large in the said tract; and in such affidavit shall state a description of the horses, cattle, sheep or hogs so taken, which affidavit shall be delivered to the pound-keeper where the horses, cattle, sheep or hogs are impounded, and the person impounding the said cattle, horses, sheep or hogs, shall be entitled to receive for every head so taken and impounded the sum of thirty-seven cents, if not exceeding four, if more than four, then for every head so taken or impounded, the sum of twenty-five cents, to be collected by the pound-keeper of the owner, or from the sale of the said cattle, horses, sheep or hogs, and shall be the measure of damage to be paid on such occasions; and the pound-keeper is directed to receive such beast, and to proceed in the same manner after the receipt of the same as is directed in the case of distress, for damage feasant by the twelfth section of the act entitled "An act regulating fences," passed the twenty-second day of January, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, and shall be entitled to the same fees and subject to the same penalties for the neglect of duty as are allowed and imposed in and by the said act.

Cattle running at large.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That all damages recovered by virtue of this act, shall be appropriated and applied, from time to time, towards making and repairing the fences deemed necessary to enclose the aforesaid tract.

Benefit estimated.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the persons so elected, as aforesaid, shall, by virtue of this act, be authorised to make an estimate of the part of the tract benefitted by such enclosure; shall ascertain the number of acres, as accurately as they can, which each individual owns or possesses therein, and which may receive benefit from such enclosure, either by an actual survey or otherwise, as shall be agreed on by a majority of the owners and possessors met at their first or any subsequent meeting, which estimate, when made, shall be by the persons so elected, as aforesaid, fairly entered in a book to be kept for the purpose, in which book shall be entered the names of the persons, from time to time, elected to superintend the expenditure of the moneys assessed for making and repairing fences and swinging gates, as aforesaid, and other of the proceedings relative to enclosing of the said tract; which book shall be kept by the person elected as aforesaid, and all assessments shall be made according to the first estimate, until the same is altered by a majority of votes of the owners and possessors of the said tract.

Assessments.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That as soon as any assessment is made, and the sum which each individual is to pay is ascertained, it shall be the duty of the persons so elected, as aforesaid, to demand from each individual, his, her or their proportion, either personally or by leaving a statement of the sum, he, she or they are to pay, with some white person above the age of fourteen years, at their dwelling house, and on failure of payment thereof, for thirty days after such demand, which shall and may be proved by the oath of the person making it, it shall be lawful for the persons elected, as aforesaid, to sue for and recover the same in their own names, from each individual so assessed and notified as aforesaid, together with cost of prosecuting for the same, before any court having cognizance of the same.

Money accounted for.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the persons so elected, shall annually account to the owners for all moneys which have come to their hands, as aforesaid, and shall pay over all balances re-remaining in their hands, if any, to their successors, together with the book directed to be kept, immediately on their going out of office, under the penalty of one hundred dollars on the defaulter, to be sued for and recovered by their successors, with costs of suit, and to be applied by them, when recovered, to the purposes contemplated by this act.

A. Passed February 3, 1820.

A Supplement to an act, entitled "An act to authorise the banking and improving certain marsh, meadow and swamp, in the township of Downe, in the county of Cumberland, passed February 2, 1819.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the managers appointed, or that may hereafter be appointed by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement, to continue the bank from any part of the bank line already established, to the fast land at Ogden's point, or to any other fast land, at the discretion of the managers, having regard to the best interests of the company, and that may be the least injurious to any individuals concerned therein; and to stop, bank and dam out any creek or creeks, being in the route between Oron Ocon creek to the main fast land that may be fixed upon to terminate said bank, and lay such sluices and erect such water-works as the said managers may think necessary.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the managers to clear out and straighten the main water courses, and to cut and open such new drains as may be deemed necessary for draining the marsh, meadow and swamp, lying within said bank, and from time to time to clear out the same, at the expense of said company.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That six months shall be allowed any manager or managers going out of office, to collect such moneys as may be due him or them from any owner or owners upon the settlement of their accounts; and the owners or possessors of the marsh, meadow and swamp, shall be liable in the same manner for assessments not paid, as though such manager or managers had continued in office, any provision in the act to which this a supplement to the contrary notwithstanding.

A. Passed January 31, 1820.

An act to repeal part of a certain act, therein mentioned.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the several parts, clauses and articles contained in a certain act, entitled "An act to enable the owners and possessors of two several tracts of meadow lying on the north side of Cohansey creek, in the county of Cumberland, to repair, keep up and maintain the banks, dams and water-works enclosing the same," passed November fourteenth, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, so far as relates to one of those tracts denominated therein Holmes' marsh, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

C. Passed February 1, 1820.

A Supplement to an act, entitled "An act to incorporate the Mount-Hope and Longwood turnpike company."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the time allowed for the completion of the Mount-Hope and Longwood turnpike road, by the act passed the eleventh of February, eighteen hundred and fifteen, entitled "An act to incorporate the Mount-Hope and Longwood turnpike company," be, and it is hereby extended to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and twenty-five.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to form the middle part or artificial space of the said road, twenty feet in width across the Green-Pond Mountain, and such other places as do not require or will not admit a road of greater width.

A. Passed February 7, 1820.

An act more effectually to provide for the removal of all the obstructions to the free course of the waters in the river Passaic and its branches between Cook's bridge, and the reef at the Little Falls next below the Turnpike bridge, commonly called Singack bridge.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the managers hereinafter to be appointed, to assess all the flowed lands on the Passaic river and its branches between Cook's bridge and the reef at the Little Falls next below the Turnpike bridge, commonly called Singack bridge, for such sums of money, as in their judgment shall be sufficient to remove all the obstructions to the free course of the waters in the said river and its branches; and in order more accurately to ascertain the sum necessary to be raised, it shall be the duty of the managers or a majority of them, to view the said rivers and their branches and ascertain what obstructions are necessary to be removed, and the amount of money to be raised previous to the assessment being made.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said managers or a majority of them, shall make a fair and reasonable assessment of all the above flowed lands, whether in the hands of the owners or of the possessors, in proportion as well to the quantity each person is possessed of, as the benefit each person may receive therefrom, and they or one of them shall give notice to the owner or possessor, and if such owner or possessor shall think him, her or themselves aggrieved by any assessment made by virtue of this act, it shall and may be lawful for such person or persons to apply to David Harrison, esq. John W. Wardell and Silas Cook, esquire, who are hereby appointed commissioners of appeal, to meet on all lands supposed to be over taxed, giving notice to the managers appointed under this act, at least three days previous to the meeting of said commissioners of appeal, and if it appears to them that such person or persons are over taxed, to strike off such sum or sums as appear too much, together with such part of the expenses of said attendance as they shall think just and right, and the judgment of the said commissioners or any two of them, shall be conclusive to the parties, but the expense of ascertaining the quantity of flowed lands each person is possessed of, in cases where the quantity is disputed, shall be paid by such owner or possessor, him, her or themselves.

Assessment to be made.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons who shall be assessed by the managers aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse for the space of forty days after notice given them by one of the managers to pay the money, or if they think themselves aggrieved, to procure the said commissioners of appeal to meet and determine the same, that then it shall be lawful for the managers or any one of them, to make return of the name or names of the person or persons with the sum he, she or they were taxed, for which shall be judged to be due by said commissioners of appeal to any justice of the peace, in the county where such person or persons reside, which justice of the peace upon the oath of one of the managers, that the tax has been demanded forty days previous thereto, shall immediately issue his warrant of distress, directed to some one of the constables of said county, commanding him within thirty days to seize upon the goods and chattels of such delinquents, and make sale of the same or so much thereof as may be sufficient to pay the sums assessed, together with cost, and to pay forward the same to the managers or one of them, and the justice and constable shall receive the same fee and be liable to the same penalties as in other cases of taxation.

Manner of recovering assessments.

Managers' duty.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said managers shall keep a book containing a regular account of the money they may have received, the payments they have made, and the expenses they have been at, which accounts they shall lay before a committee to be chosen by the owners or possessors of said lands, and the said managers shall be liable for all moneys by them received and not applied for the purpose of clearing the obstructions in the rivers aforesaid, and shall pay the balance in their hands over to their successors in office, and on their neglect or refusal to do the same, shall be liable to an action of debt, to be sued for and recovered by any owner or possessor, in their own names, in any court where the same may be cognizable, to and for the use and purpose of clearing the obstructions in the rivers aforesaid.

Managers chosen.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the owners and possessors of said flowed lands, shall and may on the fourth Tuesday in April next, after passing of this act, at one o'clock in the afternoon meet at the house of Richard Spier, in the township of Caldwell, and all other subsequent annual meetings on their own adjournments, at such places as they shall appoint, and when met, shall by plurality of votes of those met, choose five persons managers being owners of said flowed lands, for the ensuing year, and also three persons as a committee to examine the accounts of said managers.

Penalty for neglect of duty.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any person who shall be chosen a manager in pursuance of this act, and accepting the said appointment, shall neglect or refuse to do any duty enjoined on him, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be sued for and recovered by any person that will prosecute for the same, and to be applied to the use of clearing said rivers, and in case a vacancy shall happen by the death or otherwise of any one or more of the managers, committee or commissioners of appeal, shall be the duty of the managers, their successors, to advertise in six or more public places near said rivers for two weeks, appointing a time and place of meeting, and choose some person or persons to supply such vacancy in the board of managers, committee or commissioners of appeal aforesaid, and the said persons so chosen, when said vacancies may happen, shall have all the privileges and be subject to all the penalties as those whose places they are chosen to supply.

Obstructions to be removed.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That where any person or persons before the passing of this act, shall have created any obstruction to the free course of the waters in the said rivers within the limits aforesaid, by falling in of timber or brush, or driving stakes, making dams which are not removed before the passing of this act, and do not remove the same within two months after notice shall have been given, shall forfeit and pay thirty dollars for every month they shall suffer them to remain thereafter, to be sued for by the managers or any one of them, in an action of debt, in any court where the same may be cognizable, with cost of suit, to be applied to clearing said rivers, together with the full expense of removing the same by the managers.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, shall hereafter fall any trees or cut any log, or erect any dam in said rivers, or cut any brush and leave it on the ice for the space of six days, or by any means obstruct the waters and shall not remove the same, shall forfeit and pay twenty dollars, together with the full expense of removing the same, to be sued for by the managers or any one of them in an action of debt, in any court where the same may be cognizable, with costs of suit, to be applied towards clearing said rivers.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the branch of Whippany river, commonly called Black Brook, shall as to every provision of this act, be considered as a part of said Whippany river.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That if the owners and possessors of said land, shall neglect or refuse to meet and elect managers, that in such case the managers for the preceding year, shall continue in office and have the same powers as before, until new ones are chosen.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of appeal and managers, shall receive one dollar per day, and one dollar seventy-five cents per day for a man and yoke of oxen, and fifty cents per day for every additional yoke of oxen, and one dollar for each labouring man in the water per day, seventy-five cents per day otherwise necessarily employed.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That so much of the act, entitled "An act to enable the owners and possessors of flowed lands and swamps on the river Passaic and its branches, between the Little Falls on said river and Cook's Bridge, to break the reefs in said river near said falls, and remove all obstructions to the free course of the waters of said rivers," passed January thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, as comes within the purview of this act, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

A. Passed February 2, 1820.

An act authorising the enclosure of a certain tract of woodland in the township of Harrington, in the county of Bergen.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the owners and possessors of all that tract of woodland, lying and being in the township of Harrington and county of Bergen, known by the name of the Closter Mountain, beginning at the south-east corner of Matthew P. Bogart's land, laying on the north side of the Closter old Dock Road, from thence running on a south-easterly course along the north side of said road, along the lands of several owners, still by the clear land belonging to Seba Bogart, laying at a place commonly called and known by the name of Long-Hill, be, and they are hereby required respectively to erect, uphold and maintain his or their respective share of a good, substantial and lawful fence to enclose the southerly side of said tract.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any of the owners or possessors of the said tract of woodland, shall refuse or neglect to erect, maintain and uphold his, her or their respective portion or share of the fence aforesaid, such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, in the name or names of the person or persons hereafter to be appointed, in any court having cognizance thereof, to be applied towards the repairs of said fence.

Proceedings
in case of neglect respecting fence.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any owner or possessor of the said tract of woodland shall so refuse or neglect to erect, uphold and maintain his, her or their respective share of said fence, it shall and may be lawful for any one concerned in said tract to call a meeting of the owners and possessors thereof, by putting up advertisements in three of the most public places in the said township of Harrington, at least ten days previous to the time of meeting, who shall convene at any public tavern or inn in said township, which said owners or possessors so met, or a majority of them, shall, by plurality of votes of such as shall then be present, choose from among themselves two persons, being owners, and the persons so chosen shall cause the said fence to be erected or repaired, as the case may require, and the said owner or possessor so neglecting or refusing to erect or repair his share of the said fence, shall be liable to pay the expense of erecting or repairing the same, and on refusal so to do, the same shall be recovered in any court of this State having cognizance thereof, in the name of the person or persons appointed as aforesaid, in an action of debt with costs of suit.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons whomsoever, shall drive or let in any horse, cattle or sheep within the said tract of land, after it shall be enclosed as aforesaid, with an intent to let them run at large, such person or persons shall be subject to an action of trespass, to be brought in the name of any owner or possessor of the said tract of land, and be liable to triple damages, to be assessed by a jury of the county, in any court having cognizance of the same, with costs of suit.

Proceedings
in case cattle
&c. are found running at large.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if any cattle, horses or sheep shall be found running at large on any part of the said tract of land, it shall and may be lawful for any owner or possessor of any part of the same to take and drive the said cattle, horses or sheep to any public pound in the township of Harrington, and shall, as soon as may be thereafter, make affidavit setting forth that the same were taken running at large in the said tract, and giving a description of the cattle, horses or sheep so taken, which affidavit shall be delivered to the pound-keeper where they are impounded, and the person impounding them shall be entitled to receive for every head, the sum of thirty seven cents, if not exceeding four, and if more than four, for each and every head, the sum of twenty-five cents, to be collected by the pound-keeper of the owner or owners, or from the sale of said horses, cattle or sheep, and the pound-keeper is directed to receive such horses, cattle or sheep, and proceed as in cases of distress for damage feasant, by the twelfth section of the act, entitled "An act regulating fences," passed the twenty-third day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and he shall be entitled to the same fees, and subject to the same penalties for neglect of duty as are allowed and imposed in and by the said act.

C. Passed February 3, 1820.

A further Supplement to the act, entitled "An act to incorporate the Newark and Morris turnpike company."

WHEREAS that part of the said turnpike road between the town of Newark and the land of Timothy Meeker, between the first and second mountains, in a few instances has been altered and made on other grounds than those on which it was laid out, for remedy whereof,

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That General John N. Cumming, Silas Condit and Thomas T. Kinney, esquires, be, and they are hereby appointed, commissioners to view, lay out and make such alterations in the line of said road as they shall think most conducive to the interest of the stockholders and the public good, having due regard to the rights of individuals; and the report of the said commissioners, or any two of them, certified under their hands and seals, shall, within six months thereafter, be entered on record, and filed with a map of the same, in the Secretary's office of this State.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, the stockholders of the said Newark and Morris turnpike road, shall have five years for the completing the same, agreeably to the act to which this is a supplement, allowing six degrees rise in two hills ascending the first and second mountains, any thing in the said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

A. Passed February 7, 1820.

An act to enable Jacob Van Doren to erect a mill-dam across the Raritan river.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for Jacob Van Doren, his heirs or assigns, to erect a mill-dam across the river Raritan, four feet and a half high, from the bed of the channel of said stream, and adjoining the bank of lands of the Rev. John S. Vredenburg on the northerly side, and the bank of lands of Rynier Vighie, on the southerly side of said stream, for the purpose of creating a water-power for the benefit of such mill or mills, or other water-works as shall be hereafter erected by the said Jacob Van Doren, his heirs or assigns, and for ever hereafter use the same for the purposes aforesaid, and the same to repair, maintain and uphold, upon condition that the said Jacob Van Doren shall form, build and complete a lock in said dam, at the most advantageous place in said river, where the channel may run, of such size, dimensions and construction, that Durham boats of the largest size formerly used on said river, may pass through the same with ease and safety, whenever the board of chosen freeholders of the county of Somerset may order and direct the same for the benefit of navigation up and down said river, and that there shall be a sluice left open in said dam, twelve feet long and two and a half feet deep, with an apron the width of the sluice and ten feet long, that fish may with ease pass said dam, for the benefit of the shad fishery, from the first day of April until the fifteenth day of June, annually, and that said dam may be so altered or regulated by any future act of the Legislature as the interest of the navigation and fisheries may require.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Jacob Van Doren, his heirs or assigns, shall not commence the building of said dam across said river in whole or in part, at the place in the preceding section mentioned, until he, the said Jacob Van Doren, shall obtain the consent in writing of such persons whose lands may be touched by the contemplated works of the said Jacob Van Doren, and until the said writing shall be duly acknowledged by the said person from whom the same may be obtained, and recorded in the clerk's office of the county of Somerset; and that when said dam and works shall be in operation that he the said Jacob Van Doren, his heirs or assigns, shall be subject to all damages that may be done by reason thereof, until discharged therefrom in writing, to be executed and recorded as aforesaid, from any person who may be injured thereby.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That after the building of said dam and lock and sluice, the said Jacob Van Doren, his heirs or assigns, as long as the same is made use of for the purposes aforesaid, shall maintain, uphold and support the said dam, lock and sluice, and if occasion shall require, rebuild the same, and at all times for ever hereafter keep the said dam, lock and sluice in good and sufficient repair, and fit, safe and convenient for the passage of boats and other craft that may navigate said river freely, without delay or expense of any kind or nature soever; and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, after the said lock shall be ordered to be erected, whereby boats or other craft shall be hindered or obstructed in the passage of the same, or the shad prevented from running up the said river, in the time specified, by keeping shut said sluice; that the said Jacob Van Doren, his heirs or assigns, shall be liable to an indictment, and on conviction of not having erected said lock, or of keeping the same in repair as aforesaid, or of preventing the shad from running up said river as aforesaid, by not keeping open said sluice, he or either of them, shall for every such offence, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court, and also be liable in an action of trespass on the case at the suit of the party injured, for all damages sustained by reason of such neglect or refusal.

Penalty for neglect.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully injure said dam, lock, sluice or other improvements built or made for the support thereof, or shall wilfully, negligently or unnecessarily leave open any gate or aperture whereby a waste of water is occasioned, with an intent as aforesaid to injure the said Jacob Van Doren, his heirs or assigns, or either of them, he, she or they so offending shall be liable to be indicted, and on conviction thereof be fined, at the discretion of the court, in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and shall also be liable to damages in an action of trespass, at the suit of the party injured.

Penalty for injury done.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That previous to the completion of said dam, whereby the ford near and above the same may be rendered impassable by the erection of said dam, the said Jacob Van Doren shall cause to be laid out and legalized, by the proper officers appointed by law for such purposes, a road, not less than two rods wide, leading from the public road on the south side of the river Raritan, to the public road on the north side, passing the said river as near the said dam as may be, and at as convenient a ford as the present one: and also, that the said Jacob Vandoren causes a grist-mill to be erected at said place, within two years from the passing of this act, otherwise the privilege hereby granted to be null and void.

Road to be laid out and mill erected.

A. Passed February 16, 1820.

An act authorising the guardians of Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic, to purchase and sell certain small Lots of Land.

WHEREAS it appears by the petition of the guardians of Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic, and the heirs of William Voorhees, deceased, who are of full age, that a tract of land containing about two hundred acres, was devised to said lunatic and his brother William, lately deceased, by their father Isaac Voorhees, deceased, to be equally divided between them by a line from Raritan river, northwardly, leaving the buildings thereon to the said William; which line according to said devise, will by striking through the buildings erected by the said William since said devise, materially injure the convenience and value of both tracts: and that by reason of the death of the said William, and lunacy of said Abraham, no contract can be made relating to the lands so by them possessed, to the future benefit of the minor children of said lunatic: and that it will greatly advance the interest of the family of said lunatic; to make sale of his undivided seventh part in the one hundred acres aforesaid, and other eighteen acres of the said William, and now descending to his seven heirs: and also, for the purpose of exchange, to sell about eighteen acres of the dividend of said lunatic, joining the division line of said two hundred acres in a parallel line with the same, and to purchase other eighteen acres in the place thereof, from the heirs of the said William, and devote such sum as may arise therefrom to the erection of necessary buildings on the lands of said lunatic: to which all concerned consenting and the same appearing reasonable:—THEREFORE

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for Peter Z. Elmandorf and Peter Voorhees, surviving guardians of Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic, or the survivor of them, to sell and convey for a fair price, to be approved by the Orphans' Court of the county of Somerset, a certain undivided seventh part of lands lately descending to the said Abraham, a lunatic, from William Voorhees, deceased; also eighteen acres, or thereabouts, from the land which was devised to the said Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic, by Isaac Voorhees his father, deceased, on a line of division between the lands of the said Abraham and William Voorhees, deceased, running parallel thereto from Raritan river to the woodland; and therefor to execute a good and sufficient deed or deeds conveying all the right and title of him, the said Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic, and his heirs to the same.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Peter Z. Elmandorf and Peter Voorhees, guardians of Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic, shall have full power and authority to purchase from the heirs of William Voorhees, deceased, or from any persons to whom they may convey, eighteen acres of land or thereabouts, adjoining the easterly side of lands belonging to the said Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic, by deed to be given to him, the said Abraham, his heirs and assigns for ever. And they are hereby further authorised, from the proceeds of the sales aforesaid, to devote said money to the payment of the purchase aforesaid, and the erection of necessary and suitable buildings, on the lands belonging to the said Abraham Voorhees, a lunatic: Provided, that they, the said guardians aforesaid, shall duly account to the Orphans' Court of the county of Somerset, for all moneys by them received, laid out and expended as aforesaid.

An act more effectually to provide for the removal of all the obstructions to the free course of the waters in the river Passaic, between Bonnel's upper saw-mill, up the river Passaic, ninety-three chains above the bridge at the mouth of Dead river.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That two appraisers, being freeholders and disinterested, be appointed to appraise the damage each person sustains by the water overflowing their lands, and two managers, being owners or possessors of the said meadow, swamps or low lands, be appointed for removing obstructions in the river Passaic from Bonnel's upper saw-mill, up the said river Passaic, ninety-three chains above the bridge at the mouth of Dead river, and to clear the channel thereof, and shall continue appraisers and managers until the fourth Monday in April next after being chosen, and until others are chosen in their stead, and it shall and may be lawful for the said managers or either of them, to enter upon the meadows, swamps and low lands of all persons whatsoever, lying upon the river aforesaid, to clear the same and remove every obstruction, division, swinging pole fences across said river excepted, to the free passage of the water within the limits aforesaid, and the mud and other obstructions taken out of said river to be cast out upon the meadows, swamps and low lands next adjoining where it is most convenient.

Appraisers
and managers appointed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the two appraisers aforesaid, shall make out an appraisal-bill by the first Monday of August yearly, and determine the amount each respective owner or possessor of the said meadow, swamp and low land shall pay for all and every of the expenses which accrue in carrying this law into effect, which appraisal-bill is to be delivered to the managers aforesaid, which managers shall and may demand and receive of all and every of the owners and possessors, such sums of money so assessed, and on neglect or refusal of the payment thereof, for the space of thirty days after such demand, it shall and may be lawful for the said managers or either of them, and they are hereby enjoined by action of debt to sue for and recover the same, with costs of suit, in such manner and in such courts as debts of such value are recovered by the laws of this State; all which moneys or sums so assessed, received and recovered, shall be applied by the manager or managers to the purpose in this act before mentioned.

Bridges.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all bridges built after the passing of this act within the limits aforesaid, shall be at least twenty feet wide between the middle bents, and sufficiently high to let logs, rafts, timber or scows go through in any ordinary freshet, and that if any person or persons whatsoever shall fall any tree or cast or put any thing whatsoever into the said river, which will be an impediment or obstruct the free course of the water within the limits aforesaid, he, she or they for every such offence, shall forfeit and pay a fine not to exceed fifty dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, with costs of suit, by any one of the owners or possessors of the said meadow, swamps and low-lands, in any court having cognizance of the same, one half to the informant who shall sue for and recover the same, and the other half to be applied by the manager or managers above mentioned, or either of them, to the clearing the river aforesaid.

Fine for obstructions.

Time of choosing managers.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the owners and possessors of the low-lands aforesaid, to meet at the house where John Little, esq. now lives, in Essex county, on the fourth Monday in April next, at one o'clock P. M. and afterwards at such place as they shall agree upon at their first or any subsequent meeting, and by plurality of votes of those met, choose two appraisers who shall be disinterested, and two managers who shall be owners or possessors of the meadow, swamps and low-lands aforesaid, yearly and every year after the passing of this act; which appraisers and managers shall continue one whole year next ensuing the choice, and in case of neglect to meet and appoint new ones, they are to continue from year to year until others are elected in their place.

Proceedings in case persons chosen do not act.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons who shall be chosen appraiser or appraisers, and manager or managers as aforesaid, shall die or remove out of the place before the expiration of the time for which he or they are so chosen, or who shall refuse to take upon himself or themselves the management aforesaid, then and in that case it shall and may be lawful for any five owners or possessors of said meadows, swamps and low-lands as aforesaid, to call a meeting of the owners and possessors of the said property, by putting up advertisements in at least three of the most public places in the neighbourhood of such owners and possessors, five days before the day of election, expressing he time and place and the intention of such meeting, who shall, when met, elect a person or persons to supply the place of such appraiser or appraisers, manager or managers so refusing, removing or dying, and the appraiser or appraisers, manager or managers so chosen, shall have all the powers and authority herein before given to appraisers or managers in this act.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That all persons whatsoever, who shall have any timber, logs, wood, manure or other property within the limits aforesaid, shall have from the first day of December until the first day of July, to remove the same out of the river aforesaid, yearly and every year after the passing of this act, after which time, being from the first day of July until the first day of December, the managers aforesaid are hereby required to enter on and upon the lands aforesaid, and remove all obstructions out of the river aforesaid, to the least damage of owners, and sell the same to the best advantage, and apply the money arising thereupon to the clearing the river aforesaid.

Time allowed for removing wood, &c.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the said appraisers and managers shall severally have for each day he or they may be employed in discharging the duties required by this act, the sum of one dollar; and all persons wishing to work out their proportion of money so assessed or appraised, shall receive for each man in the water, or each pair of oxen, or each pair of horses, at the rate of one dollar per day, and each driver or man, working on the land, at the rate of seventy-five cents per day.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the owners of said flowed lands, shall provide a book at their first meeting and make regular entries of their moderator and clerk, chosen at said meeting, together with their proceedings signed by the moderator, which shall be received in evidence in any court where the same may be required, and the manager or managers when his or their time of office shall expire, shall make a fair and legible transfer of all his or their proceedings, with respect to all accounts concerning said river to his or their successor or successors in office.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That any person or persons taking upon them the duties of the appraisers or managers, and neglecting or refusing, when called upon, to perform their respective duties until others are appointed, shall forfeit and pay ten dollars to any one of the owners of the lands aforesaid, to be recovered in an action of debt, and when recovered to be applied towards clearing out said river.

An act to authorise the sale of the Real Estate of John Mandeville, deceased.

WHEREAS it is represented by the widow and administrators of John Mandeville, deceased, late of the county of Bergen, who died intestate, that the said deceased died seized of twenty-six acres of land, in the county of Morris, and a small house and lot in the town of Bergen, the rents, issues and profits of which are wholly insufficient for the support of the widow and three minor children, and that the said land is decreasing in value by reason of decay and waste, and is becoming much less beneficial to the said widow and heirs, than if the same were sold, when from the interest of the proceeds of the sale, together with a small sum of personal estate remaining, and some other aid, the children may be raised and the principal resumed for their use when they arrive at lawful age. All which appearing to be true:—THEREFORE,

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Cornelius Van Winkle and Jacob D. Van Winkle, be, and they are hereby appointed trustees with full power and authority to sell, dispose of and convey, all the real estate whereof the said John Mandeville died seized, as soon as conveniently may be, for the highest sum or sums of money the same will bring, and for the same or any part thereof when sold, to make and execute, in due form of law, in their own names as trustees aforesaid, good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance according to the estate and interest which the said John Mandeville had or might legally claim of, in and to the same, which sale or sales being made and confirmed by deed, shall entitle the purchaser or purchasers to all the estate, right, title, claim and demand which the said John Mandeville had to the said premises at the time of his death.

Trustees appointed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Cornelius Van Winkle and Jacob D. Van Winkle, shall keep a fair account of the said sale or sales, and of the expenses attending the same, and keep the residue of said sum out at interest upon good security, for the benefit of the said widow and heirs of the said John Mandeville, paying the one-third of the interest of the said sum to the widow, and the remaining two-thirds to the support of the children of the said deceased, until they severally arrive at lawful age, and then to pay to each one as they shall arrive at lawful age, his or her distributive share of such sum as may be in their hands, to be distributed according to law.

Account to be kept and money put at interest.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That before the said Cornelius Van Winkle and Jacob D. Van Winkle, do enter upon the trust assigned them by this act, they do enter into bond with sureties unto the Governor of this State, in such amount as shall be approved by the Orphans' Court of the county of Bergen, conditioned for the faithful performance of the trust assigned them by this act, which bond shall be deposited in the Surrogate's office of the county of Bergen.

Bond to be given.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said Cornelius Van Winkle and Jacob D. Van Winkle, or the survivor of them, shall, within six months after the said sale or sales, make, subscribe and exhibit under oath unto the Surrogate of the county of Bergen, an exact statement of the amount of said sale or sales, to be by him recorded and filed agreeably to law; and no deed of such lands shall be valid unless it be certified in or upon such deed by Silas Cook and Nicholas Mandeville, or the survivor of them, under their hands and seals that such sale is made bona fide, and for the highest price that could be obtained for such property at the time of said sale or sales, and said sale or sales shall not affect any lien upon said estate except that of the heirs of the said John Mandeville, deceased.

Statement of sales to be exhibited under oath.

An act to authorise Moses Rows and Abraham Lawshe, administrators of the estate of John Lawshe, deceased, to fulfil a contract for the sale of land, made by the said John Lawshe, deceased, with John Suydam.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Moses Rows and Abraham Lawshe, administrators of John Lawshe, deceased, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make and execute a deed of conveyance in fee-simple to the said John Suydam for a certain lot of land in the township of Bethlehem, in the county of Hunterdon, containing nineteen acres and eighty-seven hundredths of an acre, now in the possession of the said John Suydam, and which the said John Lawshe in his life-time did agree to convey by articles of agreement to the said John Suydam, which deed, when duly executed and delivered, shall be as good and effectual for the conveyance of said land as if the same had been executed by the said John Lawshe in his life-time.

An act to alter the corporate name of the Presbyterian Church in the township of Lawrence.

WHEREAS by virtue of an act of the Council and General Assembly of this State, entitled "An act to incorporate certain persons as trustees in every religious society or congregation in this State, for transacting the temporal concerns thereof," certain trustees of the Presbyterian Church in the township of Lawrence, then called the township of Maidenhead, duly chosen according to the directions of said act, did, according to the provisions thereof, on the first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, choose to be distinguished in law from all other incorporated bodies under the style and name of "Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in the township of Maidenhead, in the county of Hunterdon and State of New-Jersey," which was duly recorded according to said law, and it is expedient that the name of the said corporation should be changed so as to be conformed to the change of the name of the township which has been since effected by law:—Therefore,

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the name of the said corporation be, and the same hereby is changed to the style, description and name of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in the township of Lawrence, in the county of Hunterdon, and State of New-Jersey."

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all deeds, gifts, grants, devises, bequests, records, acts, matters and things whatsoever, in which the said corporation has heretofore been described and in which the word "Maidenhead" has been used, shall be good and available in law, and shall enure to the benefit of the trustees of the Presbyrian Church in the township of Lawrence, in the county of Hunterdon, State of New-Jersey, as effectually as if the word "Lawrence" had been originally therein inserted, and that the said trustees of the Presbyterian Church in the township of Lawrence, in the county of Hunterdon and State of New-Jersey, may have, claim, sue for and recover in any court of law or equity, all debts, dues, rights, choses in action and demands whatsoever, real, personal and mixed, which have accrued by reason of any such deeds, gifts, grants, devises, bequests, records, acts, matters and things whatsoever, in any of which the word "Maidenhead" has been used, as fully as if the word "Lawrence" had been therein originally inserted.

A. Passed February 25, 1820.

An act securing to Mechanics and others, payment for their labour and materials in erecting any house or other building within the limits therein mentioned.

WHEREAS Edward Sharp, esquire, of Camden, in the county of Gloucester, has by his memorial represented to the Legislature, that he is about to lay off and divide into building lots, and as soon as may be, sell and dispose of the same, a certain tract of land now owned by him, in and adjoining to the town of Camden aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, to wit: All that tract of land situate in the township of Newton, in the county of Gloucester, beginning at a marble slab by the side of Delaware river, at high water mark, in the line of land formerly of Joseph Kaighn, since of James Kaighn; thence by the said Kaighn's land along the top of a ditch bank, north eighty degrees, east twenty-three chains and fifty-seven links, to a marble slab; thence partly by Richard M. Coopers's woodland, and partly by woodland belonging to the heirs of Daniel Cooper, deceased, north five degrees, east thirty-nine chains and thirty-eight links, to a marble slab in the middle of Federal street, bedded in the ground twelve inches below the surface; thence along the middle of said Federal street, north eighty-two and a half degrees, west twenty chains and seventy-three links, to a marble slab, also bedded in the ground about twelve inches below the surface, from which the south-west corner of Joshua Cooper's tavern and ferry-house bears north twelve degrees, east distant sixty-eight links and three fourths of a link, and the top of Christ church steeple bears north sixty-two and a half degrees west; thence by other ground of the said Joshua Cooper, south five degrees and a half, west six perches and seventeen twentieths of a perch to a stone; thence still by the said Joshua Cooper's other land, north eighty-four degrees and a half, west two chains and twenty-eight links, to a stone at high water mark of the said river, and thence along the high water mark of the said river to the place of beginning, containing about eighty-nine acres, and seventy-five one hundredths of an acre, more or less. Also the mud flats which the courses of the said farm to low water mark will contain, which is between the high water and low water mark, and which is computed to be about fifty-eight acres more or less, and which is bounded southerly by flats formerly belonging to the estate of Kaighn's, and northerly by flats belonging to the ferry property lately owned by Joshua Cooper, it being the same tract purchased by Edward Sharp, of the said Joshua Cooper, by deed dated the eighth June, eighteen hundred and eighteen, and recorded at Woodbury, sixteenth July, eighteen hundred and eighteen, in Lib. c c, folio 109, and excepting therefrom the site of the contemplated bridge from the Jersey shore to the island in the river Delaware, opposite to the city of Philadelphia. And whereas the said Edward Sharp hath further represented that it would greatly encourage the erection of buildings on the said lots so to be laid off and divided as aforesaid, and thereby more speedily enlarge and improve the said town of Camden, to secure by law to mechanics and others, payment for their labour and materials in erecting any building upon the said tract of land: all which appearing to be just and reasonable,

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all and every dwelling-house or other building hereafter constructed and erected within the tract of land above described, shall be subject to the payments of the debts contracted for or by reason of any work done or materials found, and provided by any brick-maker, brick-layer, stone-cutter, mason, lime-merchant, carpenter, painter and glazier, iron-monger, blacksmith, plaisterer and lumber merchant, or any other person or persons employed in furnishing materials for or in the erecting and constructing such house or other building; but if such house or other building should not sell for a sum of money sufficient to pay all the demands for work and materials, then and in such case, the same shall be averaged and each of the creditors paid a sum proportioned to their several demands: Provided always, that no such debt for work and materials shall remain a lien on the said houses or other buildings longer than two years from the commencement of the building thereof, unless an action for the recovery of the same be instituted, or the claim filed, within six months after performing the work or furnishing the materials, in the office of the clerk of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas of the said county of Gloucester: and Provided also, that each and every person having received satisfaction for his or their debt, for which a claim shall be filed, or action brought as aforesaid, shall at the request of any person interested in the building on which the same was a lien, or in having the same lien removed, or of his, her or their legal representatives on payment of the costs of the claim or action, and on tender of the costs of office for entering the satisfaction, within six days after such request made, enter satisfaction of the claim in the office of the clerk of the court where such claim shall be filed or such action brought, which shall for ever thereafter discharge, defeat and release the same: and if such person, having received such satisfaction as aforesaid, by himself or his attorney, shall not within six days after request and payment of the costs of the claim or action as aforesaid, and tender as aforesaid, by himself or his attorney duly authorised, enter satisfaction as aforesaid, he, she or they neglecting or refusing so to do, shall forfeit and pay unto the party or parties aggrieved, any sum of money not exceeding one half of the debt for which the claim was filed, or action brought as aforesaid, to be sued for and recovered by the person or persons injured, in like manner as debts are now recoverable by the laws of this State.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases of lien created by this act, the person having a claim filed agreeably to the provisions hereof, may at his election proceed to recover it by personal action, according to the nature of the demand against the debtor, his executors or administrators, or by scire facias against the debtor, and owner or owners of the building, or their executors or administrators; and where the proceeding is by scire facias, the writ shall be served in like manner as a summons, upon the person or persons named therein, if they can be found within the said county of Gloucester, or are resident therein; or if they cannot be found or are not resident in said county, by fixing a copy of the writ on the door of the building against which the claim is filed, and upon the return of service and failure of the defendant or defendants to appear, the court shall render judgment, as in other cases upon writs of scire facias; but if they or either of them appear, such person or persons may plead and make defence, and the like proceedings be had as in personal actions for the recovery of debts: Provided, that no judgment rendered on any such writ of scire facias, shall warrant the issuing of an execution except against the building or buildings upon which the lien existed as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That every claim to be filed as aforesaid, shall particularly designate the building for which the work therein to be mentioned was done, or the materials therein to be mentioned were found and provided.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That whenever, within the tract of land above described, any building shall be erected by contract, then and in such case, payment according to such contract, by the owner or owners of the building to the contractor or contractors, shall fully and entirely discharge such building from all lien for work done, and materials furnished: Provided, the said contract be in writing and filed as aforesaid forthwith after the same shall have been made and executed.

A. Passed February 25, 1820.

An act to raise the sum of thirty thousand dollars, for the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That there shall be assessed, levied and collected on the inhabitants of this State, their goods and chattels, and on the lands and tenements within the same, the sum of thirty thousand dollars, money of the United States, which sum shall be paid into the treasury of this State, on or before the twentieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said sum of thirty thousand dollars shall be paid by the several counties of this State, in the manner following, that is to say :

Quotas of the several counties.

The county of Bergen, shall pay the sum of one thousand nine hundred thirty-six dollars, and thirty-nine cents.

The county of Essex, shall pay the sum of two thousand seven hundred thirty dollars and forty-eight cents.

The county of Middlesex, shall pay the sum of two thousand five hundred thirty dollars and twenty-six cents.

A C T S
OF THE
FORTY-FOURTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF THE
STATE OF NEW-JERSEY.

An act, being a further supplement to an act, entitled "An act to incorporate the president, directors and company of the Pennsylvania and New-Jersey communication company."

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when one thousand or more shares of stock in "The Pennsylvania and New-Jersey communication company," shall have been subscribed, and the first instalment thereon paid, and the names of the subscribers, together with the number of shares subscribed by each, shall be certified to the Governor, under the hands and seals of at least five of the commissioners, the Governor shall thereupon, under his hand and the seal of the State, create and erect the said subscribers, and those who shall afterwards subscribe, into one body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, under the name, style and title, and with all the privileges contained in said act to incorporate "The president, directors and company of the Pennsylvania and New-Jersey communication company," passed the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and the supplement thereto. And in order to give to the new subscribers, under the company in its organized capacity, an equal voice in the election of directors, the said company are hereby authorized to elect the first directors, to serve for any less period than one year, any thing contained in the third section of said act notwithstanding.

To be incorporated when certain things are performed, and certified to the Governor.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That so much of the said original act as is inconsistent with this supplement, be, and the same is hereby repealed, but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to supercede the functions of the commissioners for any other purposes, more especially those which may be required by the law of Pennsylvania, in order to incorporate said company under the act of that state.

Part of the original act repeated.

C. Passed May 24, 1820.

An act to authorize the sale of the real estate of Philip Williams, deceased.

WHEREAS it is represented by the widow and administrator and the guardian of the children of Philip Williams, deceased, late of the county of Bergen, who died intestate, that the said deceased died seized of two lots of ground, situate, lying and being in the town of Jersey, in said county, on which two lots the office and dwelling-house of the said Philip Williams, deceased, are situated; and that the rents, issues and profits thereof, are, and have been ever since the death of the said Philip Williams, much less than the interest of the sum the same would sell for.

AND it being also represented that it would be advantageous to said estate that the said property should be sold and the proceeds thereof invested in real estate or stock, or that the money be put out on good security, there to remain at interest until the infant children come of age: all which appearing to be true—THEREFORE,

Trustees appointed, and their authority to sell.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That James Hedden and Sarah C. Williams be, and they are hereby appointed trustees, with full power and authority to sell, dispose of and convey all the said real estate whereof the said Philip Williams died seized, as soon as conveniently may be, for the highest price or prices the same will bring, and for the same or any part thereof, when sold, to make and execute, in due form of law, in their own names, as trustees aforesaid, good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance, according to the estate and interest which the said Philip Williams had or might legally claim of, in and to the same, which sale or sales, being made and confirmed by deed, shall entitle the purchaser or purchasers to all the estate, right, title, claim and demand which the said Philip Williams had to the said premises at the time of his death.

Accounts to be kept.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said James Hedden and Sarah C. Williams shall keep a fair account of the said sale or sales and of the expenses attending the same, and keep the residue of said price out at interest, upon good security, for the benefit of said widow and heirs of the said Philip Williams, paying the one-third of the interest of the proceeds of the said sale to the widow, and the remaining two-thirds to the support of the children of the said deceased, until they severally arrive at lawful age, and then to pay to each one, as they shall arrive at lawful age, his or her distributive share of such sum as may be in their hands, to be distributed according to law.

Money arising from the sale, how distributed.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That before the said James Hedden and Sarah C. Williams do enter upon the trust assigned them by this act, they do enter into bond, with sureties, unto the Governor of this State, in such amount as shall be approved by the Orphans' Court of the county of Bergen, conditioned for the faithful performance of the trust assigned them by this act, which bond shall be deposited in the surrogate's office of the county of Bergen.

Trustees to give bond, &c.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said James Hedden and Sarah C. Williams, or the survivor of them, shall, within six months after the said sale or sales, make, subscribe and exhibit, under oath, unto the surrogate of the county of Bergen, an exact statement of the amount of said sale or sales, to be by him recorded and filed agreeably to law, and no deed of such lands or estate shall be valid unless it be certified in or upon such deed by Peter Sip and John Van Vorst or the survivor of them, under their hands and seals, that such sale is made bona fide, and for the highest price that could be obtained for such property at the time of said sale or sales; and said sale or sales shall not affect any lien upon said estate, except that of the heirs of the said Philip Williams, deceased, and of his widow Sarah C. Williams.

Trustees to render an account of the sales to the surrogate of Bergen.

Deed not valid unless, &c.

A. Passed June 1, 1820.

An act to compensate the honorable William S. Pennington, for compiling and revising the laws of this State.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That five hundred dollars be paid to the honorable William S. Pennington, for his services in compiling and revising the laws of this State; in pursuance of an act entitled "An act making provision for a compilation and revision of the laws of this State," passed on the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and that the said sum of five hundred dollars be paid by the Treasurer of this State, out of any moneys in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

A. Passed June 12, 1820.

An act for the relief of James Armstrong.

WHEREAS James Armstrong, in the month of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, had stolen from him a certain quantity of butter, of the value of one hundred and thirty dollars; and, after considerable trouble and expense, arrested one Isaac Kirkbuff as the thief, and brought him before Jacob Kerr, esquire, who, after a due examination of the facts and evidences in support of the charge, committed the said Isaac to the jail of the county of Sussex, for trial; but afterwards, and before trial, the said Isaac was admitted to bail, in the sum of one thousand dollars, and discharged from prison by James Vankirk, esquire, a justice of the peace of said county: And whereas the said Isaac, failing to appear at the court, as he was bound to do, his recognizance was forfeited, in due form of law; and the said sum of one thousand dollars has since been recovered from his bail, and paid into the treasury of this State: And whereas, it is further represented that after the arrest of the said Isaac, he offered to settle and pay the said James the full value and amount of the property stolen, which the said James refused, and insisted on bringing the said culprit to justice according to law; and it is just and expedient; that in such cases, reparation should be made to the injured individual out of the money received by the State in manner aforesaid.—THEREFORE,

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Treasurer of this State pay, and he is hereby directed to pay to the said James Armstrong, the sum of one hundred and thirty dollars, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

A. Passed June 10, 1820.

An act relative to the township officers of the township of Morris

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Council and General Assembly of this State, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the official acts of the township officers of Morris, in the county of Morris, elected at the annual town-meeting on the second monday in April last, so far as the same would have been legal, in case they had duly taken their oaths of office, are hereby declared to be, and shall hereafter be taken to be valid and effectual in law, notwithstanding the said officers may not have taken their oaths of office as required by existing laws

A. Passed June 10, 1820.

An act relative to printing a new edition of the public laws.

Southard and Charles Ewing, esquires, in manner and form as are prescribed in the act making provision for a compilation and revision of the laws of this State, passed February second, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and that Daniel Coleman correct the proof-sheets for the press.

Number of copies, &c.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said edition of public revised laws be printed neatly, and substantially bound, in sheep, and lettered, by Joseph Justice, of the city of Trenton, on the terms contained in his written proposals, submitted to the House of Assembly: Provided, that if said edition shall not exceed one thousand pages, that the same be bound in one volume, and the said Joseph Justice deduct such proportion of the expense of binding one volume instead of two, therefrom.

By whom printed.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the above named superintendents, Samuel L. Southard and Charles Ewing, esquires, be authorized, and they are hereby directed, to cause the said printer, Joseph Justice, before he enters upon the business, to enter into bond, to the Governor of the State, under such penalty and with such surety as they may reasonably require, for the faithful execution of the work, on the terms to be therein specified, and to be delivered as early in the next session of the legislature as practicable.

Printer to give bond.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That in order that the revised edition of the laws may be correctly published, according to the original acts, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to deliver, unto the superintendents before named, such of the original manuscripts and printed copies of laws, as they may require, to be safely returned after they shall have used the same for the purpose aforesaid.

Secretary of State to deliver to the superintendants certain acts.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the superintendents aforesaid, to draw upon the Treasurer of the State, in favour of the printer, for such sum or sums of money, not exceeding the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, as they shall find necessary to facilitate the progress of the work; and the Treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.
